Coloniality and Decolonisation in the Nordic Region Adrián Groglopo, Julia Suárez-Krabbe, 2023-03-22 This book advances critical discussions about what coloniality decoloniality and decolonisation mean and imply in the Nordic region It brings together analysis of complex realities from the perspectives of the Nordic peoples a region that is often overlooked in current research and explores the processes of decolonisation that are taking place in this region The book offers a variety of perspectives that engage with issues such as Islamic feminism and the progressive left racialisation and agency among Muslim youths indigenising distance language education for Sami extractivism and resistance among the Sami the Nordic international development endeavour through education Swedish TV reporting on Venezuela creolizing subjectivities across Roma and non Roma worlds and hierarchies and the whitewashing and sanitisation of decoloniality in the Nordic region As such this book extends much of the productive dialogue that has recently occurred internationally in decolonial thinking but also in the areas of critical race theory whiteness studies and postcolonial studies to concrete and critical problems in the Nordic region This should make the book of considerable interest to scholars of history of ideas anthropology sociology cultural studies postcolonial studies international development studies legal sociology and intercultural philosophy with an interest in coloniality and decolonial social change

Global University Rankings and the Mediatization of Higher Education Michelle Stack, 2016-04-12 Higher Education Institutions simultaneously critique and participate in national and international rankings of universities However this creates a difficult situation since if universities do participate in rankings they acquiesce to a system based in media logics that has little to do with academic norms of research If they do not participate in the rankings they risk losing public funding students and donors in an increasingly competitive and globalized environment This book delves into the influence of journalists business tycoons and multinational corporations in defining what world class is and how it will be measured Rankings provide us with a rich study for understanding how universities define deploy and manage their assets and liabilities in a mediatized globalized economy

Culture, Organization, and Management in South Africa Marja Spierenburg, Harry Wels, 2006 South Africa is celebrating its first decade of democratic freedom It therefore seems appropriate to examine in more detail how South Africa has tried to restore some of the many social injustices caused by the former apartheid regime This book offers a view into the world of organisation and management from a cultural perspective The authors investigate how initiatives and policies with the aim of generating more employment equity have been developed implemented and have worked out in various sectors of the South African economy The various chapters present in depth case studies that deal with the South African government local NGOs universities and tourism The book reveals in detail the local struggles of the historically disadvantaged and the powers that be to try and live up to the ideals of the New South Africa

Changing Our Worlds Michelle LeBaron, Janis Sarra, 2018-07-03 Changing Our Worlds draws on the wisdom of African artists theorists educators and leaders It profiles an array of transformative arts projects that among other things changed attitudes and behaviours toward HIV testing and prevention helped rural citizens to design and build a new community centre and supported those with HIV AIDS to strengthen their resilience As a group of scholar practitioners collaborating on the book reinforced our confidence in the potency of arts practices to unsettle unjust orders inspire new visions and embrace the human dignity that comes from acknowledging the interdependent world in which we live List of Serials Johannesburg (South Africa). Analysing Academic Writing Louise Ravelli, Robert A. Ellis, 2005-12-07 This volume covers the writing not only of native speakers of the language in which they are being taught but also that of those to whom the language of pedagogy is secondary Australian editors

The Strategic Repositioning of Arts, Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century George Mugovhani, Owen Seda, 2018-06-11 The post millennium world has been experiencing several recognisable historical milestones with regard to arts culture and heritage One of these has been the resuscitation and revival of creative elements of the arts culture and heritage of previously marginalised or disadvantaged communities around the world Until recently there had been scant regard and skewed allocation of resources for these but lately attempts have been made to promote and sustain them in order to enable the socio economic aspirations of a multicultural society The contributions brought together here are the product of papers that were presented during a conference on Strategic Repositioning of Arts Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century They cover a broad spectrum of subjects such as indigeneity music song and identity politics national reconciliation education product development and national development

Aso Ebi Okechukwu Charles Nwafor, 2021-05-24 The Nigerian and West African practice of aso ebi fashion invokes notions of wealth and group dynamics in social gatherings Okechukwu Nwafor's volume Aso ebi investigates the practice in the cosmopolitan urban setting of Lagos and argues that the visual and consumerist hype typical of the late capitalist system feeds this unique fashion practice The book suggests that dress fashion aso ebi and photography engender a new visual culture that largely reflects the economics of mundane living Nwafor examines the practice's societal dilemma whereby the solidarity of aso ebi is dismissed by many as an ephemeral transaction A circuitous transaction among photographers fashion magazine producers textile merchants tailors and individual fashionistas reinvents aso ebi as a product of cosmopolitan urban modernity The results are a fetishization of various forms of commodity culture personality cults through mass followership the negotiation of symbolic power through mass produced images exchange value in human relationships through gifts and a form of exclusion achieved through digital photo editing Aso ebi has become an essential part of Lagos cosmopolitanism as a rising form of a unique visual culture it is central to the unprecedented spread of a unique West African fashion style that revels in excessive textile overflow This extreme dress style is what an individual requires to transcend the lack imposed by the chaos of the postcolonial city

Artefacts of Writing Peter D. McDonald, 2017-10-11 Some forms of literature interfere with the workings of the literate brain posing a challenge to readers of all kinds including professional literary critics In Artefacts of Writing Peter D McDonald argues they pose as much of a challenge to the way states conceptualise language culture and community Drawing on a wealth of evidence from Victorian scholarly disputes over the identity of the English language to the constitutional debates about its future in Ireland India and South Africa and from the quarrels over the idea of culture within the League of Nations in the interwar years to UNESCO's ongoing struggle to articulate a viable concept of diversity McDonald brings together a large ensemble of legacy writers including T S Eliot James Joyce and Rabindranath Tagore putting them in dialogue with each other and with the policy makers who shaped the formation of modern states and the history of internationalist thought from the 1860s to the 1940s In the second part of the book he reflects on the continuing evolution of these dialogues showing how a varied array of more contemporary writers from Amit Chaudhuri J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie to Antjie Krog Arvind Krishna Mehrotra and Eskia Mphahlele cast new light on a range of questions concerning education literacy human rights translation indigenous knowledge and cultural diversity that have preoccupied UNESCO since 1945 At once a novel contribution to institutional and intellectual history and an innovative exercise in literary and philosophical analysis Artefacts of Writing affords a unique perspective on literature's place at the centre of some of the most fraught often lethal public controversies that defined the long twentieth century and that continue to haunt us today

Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory Carolyn Farquhar Ulrich, 1999 The Routledge Handbook of Development and Environment Brent McCusker, Waqar Ahmed, Maano Ramutsindela, Patricia Solís, 2021-11-29 The handbook seeks to illuminate the key concepts in the study of development environment through showcasing some of the Majoritarian formerly Developing world's scholars in order to explore theoretical connections through critical radical theory small theory various conceptual frameworks and non Western and subaltern viewpoints The volume examines the themes around the study of the relationship between economic and social development and the environment Part 1 covers theoretical and conceptual approaches to the study of development and environment by examining the diverse ways in which people perceive understand and act upon the world around them Cross scalar topics such as neo liberalism and globalization human rights climate change sustainability and technology are covered in Part 2 The book shifts to examinations of resources and production in Part 3 where authors with a focus on one or more environmental resources or types of economic production are presented Topics range from water agriculture and food to energy bioeconomy and mining The fourth section presents chapters where people are at the center of the development environment nexus through topics such as gender relations children health and cities Finally policy and governance of development and environment are explored in Part 5 The section includes both academics and practitioners who have worked with policy makers and are policy makers themselves The book is primarily intended for scholars and graduate students in geography environmental studies and development studies for whom it will provide an invaluable and up to date guide to current thinking across the range of disciplines which converge in the study of development and environment
