Forensic Psychology and Neuropsychology for Criminal and Civil Cases Harold V. Hall, 2007-11-19 Greater Understanding Better Evaluations Today s increasingly sophisticated psychological and neuropsychological assessments allow for greater understanding and evaluations in forensic psychology By integrating discussions of modern psychological and neuropsychological tests with extant civil and criminal cases this book presents a unique resource for insight into the impact of modern behavioral science on the legal system Foundational Criminal and Civil Issues Divided into three parts this timely compilation of articles from national and international experts begins with foundational issues such as the legal ethical and applied aspects of mitigation evaluations It examines violence prediction and risk analysis violence in the family and the detection of malingering and deception in forensic evaluations Part 2 looks at the psychological issues found in criminal forensic evaluation This section discusses assessments of competence to stand trial mitigatory defenses and hostage negotiation as well as the psychological impact of officer involved shootings The final part focuses on neuropsychological evaluation as it is relevant to civil cases including worker s compensation malingered pain and memory deficits and parental assessment in child maltreatment cases Template Case Studies Providing several full case studies in more than a dozen appendices this book addresses both psychological and neuropsychological concepts in the context of the legal system and allows for a practical understanding and application of behavioral legal and ethical issues in civil and criminal cases

Religious Studies in Alberta Ronald Neufeldt, 2006-01-01 This first volume on the state of the art in religious studies in Canada offers a description and critique of the field in the colleges universities and secondary schools in Alberta Among the findings philosophical theological and textual approaches to the study of religion predominate to the relative neglect of methodologies employed in fields such as sociology and anthropology the quality and quantity of published research is significant but focusses on Christian studies some interdisciplinary study is being carried on and benefits religious studies as well as other fields religious studies scholars in Alberta have a relatively high public profile but their exercise of public responsibility is time consuming and can jeopardize career advancement in view of wide spread religious illiteracy among students descriptive courses must not be neglected in favour of analytical ones An appendix listing courses offered in the schools surveyed concludes the volume

A New Unified Theory of Psychology Gregg Henriques, 2011-08-17 Concern about psychology's fragmentation is not new but there has for the past decade been increasing calls for psychologists to acknowledge the costs associated with fragmentation and to search for ways to unify the discipline A New Unified Theory of Psychology introduces a new system that addresses psychology's current theoretical and philosophical difficulties The new theory consists of four interlocking pieces that together provide for the first time a macro level view that clarifies the nature of psychology's problems and offers a clear way to unify the various elements of the field The unified theory provides the field of psychology with a well defined subject matter allowing both academic and professional psychologists will be able to develop a shared language and conceptual foundation
