Siegel,2012-12-06 Israel Scheffler is the pre eminent philosopher of education in the English speaking world today This volume collects seventeen original invited papers on Scheffler's philosophy of education by scholars from around the world The papers address the wide range of topics that Scheffler's work in philosophy of education has addressed including the aims of education cognition and emotion teaching the language of education science education moral education religious education and human potential Each paper is followed by a response from Scheffler himself The collection is essential reading for anyone concerned with contemporary scholarship in philosophy of education or with the place of this singularly important author in it Educational Foundations, 1994 Higher Education as a Field of Study in China

Xin Wang, 2010-03-18 Higher Education as a Field of Study in China Defining Knowledge and Curriculum Structure concerns the complexity of higher education as an academic field the evolving nature of the field in light of the overall development of higher education in China It reviews how higher education as a field of study has evolved in China since 1978 and how the field has been shaped by political and social forces as well as institutional culture Xin Wang argues that higher education is becoming an interdisciplinary field rather than a subfield under the discipline of education especially when higher education has become an enterprise with such a broad scope in China Wang also expresses a belief that the field of higher education is being challenged by the professional need for preparing and training competent professionals for various administrative positions in China Higher education as a field will be professionalized with its own knowledge base and a set of skills in applying this knowledge to practical areas This book also provides an account of the U S model of higher education as an example how the field was formed and developed how it has evolved from a generalized area of inquiry into a professional specialization how programs of higher education are structured what classes they offer and what challenges they face The U S model presents a comparative perspective for Chinese scholars and program directors about higher education as a field of study International Handbook of Philosophy of Education Paul Smeyers, 2018-06-09 This handbook presents a comprehensive introduction to the core areas of philosophy of education combined with an up to date selection of the central themes It includes 95 newly commissioned articles that focus on and advance key arguments each essay incorporates essential background material serving to clarify the history and logic of the relevant topic examining the status quo of the discipline with respect to the topic and discussing the possible futures of the field The book provides a state of the art overview of philosophy of education covering a range of topics Voices from the present and the past deals with 36 major figures that philosophers of education rely on Schools of thought addresses 14 stances including Eastern Indigenous and African philosophies of education as well as religiously inspired philosophies of education such as Jewish and Islamic Revisiting enduring educational debates scrutinizes 25 issues heavily debated in the past and the present for example care and justice democracy and the curriculum New areas and developments addresses 17 emerging issues that have garnered considerable attention like neuroscience videogames and radicalization The collection is relevant for lecturers teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in philosophy of education as well as for colleagues in teacher training Moreover it helps junior researchers in philosophy of education to situate the problems they are addressing within the wider field of philosophy of education and offers a valuable update for experienced scholars dealing with issues in the sub discipline Combined with different conceptions of the purpose of philosophy it discusses various aspects using diverse perspectives to do so Contributing Editors Section 1 Voices from the Present and the Past Nuraan Davids Section 2 Schools of Thought Christiane Thompson and Joris Vlieghe Section 3 Revisiting Enduring Debates Ann Chinnery Naomi Hodgson and Viktor Johansson Section 4 New Areas and Developments Kai Horsthemke Dirk Willem Postma and Claudia Ruitenberg
