

Dear Mrs. Anderson,

I am writing to you regarding the position in your technical support team that you have posted on your company website. I worked with one your current team members, Marissa Johnson, in the Help Desk department of Milwaukee School of Management for several years before taking a hiatus to raise my children.

I maintained contact with Marissa over the years and when I mentioned I was returning to the workforce, she recommended I contact you about this position, as she felt that I would be an excellent fit for your organization.

At Milwaukee School of Management, I worked closely with Marissa to help customers with Windows, Unix and Microsoft Office issues and we also worked on projects to convert customer and HR data at our legacy billing system to handle the increase in sales volume the company was experiencing. I got multiple awards from management on highest customer satisfaction, based on the survey data and for number of successful support cases I was able to effectively close in a month and a year, during that busy transition period.

I have successfully worked as a Support Center analyst to help customers with their technical issues and have experience working on the projects, helping project team to manage the deadlines and delivery on commitment. I worked in the different environments, but I am most comfortable in an environment like that at your company. I feel that my experience would be an asset to MAC (Milwaukee Accounting Corporation) and would appreciate the opportunity to meet with you regarding the open position.

I attach a copy of my resume for your review. Feel free to contact me any time using my contact information listed above. Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

Regards,
Anita Patel
