

Psalm 23

- 1 The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not be in want.

- 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures
and leads me beside still waters.

- 3 He revives my soul
and guides me along right pathways
for his Name's sake.

- 4 Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil; for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

- 5 You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me;

you have anointed my head with oil,

and my cup is running over.

- 6 Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,
and I will dwell in the  of the LORD for ever.

Tucker,2005-10 Long Story Short Marty Machowski,2010-11-03 Christian parents know the importance of passing the gospel story on to their children yet we live in a busy world filled with distractions This easy to use family devotional in just ten minutes a day five days a week empowers parents to pass on the most valuable treasure the world has ever known Each day focuses on highlighting the Mother & Daughter Animal Adventures & Short Stories Lois Gravitte Mraz,2009-09

Suffer the Children Robert McCutcheon,2021-07-28 The stories in Suffer the Children dramatize a generation s mingled faith and doubt Suffer the Children the title novella follows the divergent faith journeys of three baby boomers raised in the same Presbyterian church through pivotal moments in their lives until they converge at a funeral In Simple Gifts a childless and recently fatherless man questions the nature of charity on a church mission to Kenya Two unlikely friends one Christian and one Jewish pursue an interfaith discussion in The Disputation in the context of graduate school which poses its own challenges to their identity The Last Miracle Incident at Nain recounts a New Testament story from a fresh perspective In The Rapture a pastor questions whether the non attending spouse of one of his members can be saved or whether since he seems so happy he needs to be saved A college campus is the setting of The Recommendation the story of a student and a perplexing professor who seems to hold or rather withhold the answers to life s big questions The Passenger follows the experience of a spiritual seeker led by an enigmatic dream to consider a new life in the church Listening to Children on the Spiritual Journey Catherine Stonehouse,Scottie May,2010-06-01 How do children experience and understand God How can adults help children grow their life of faith Throughout more than a decade of field research children s spirituality experts Catherine Stonehouse and Scottie May listened to children talk about their relationships with God observed children and their parents in learning and worship settings and interviewed adults about their childhood faith experiences This accessibly written book weaves together their findings to offer a glimpse of the spiritual responsiveness and potential of children Through case studies it provides insight into children s perceptions of God and how they process their faith In addition the book suggests how parents teachers and ministry leaders can more effectively relate to and work with children and pre adolescents to nurture their faith offering a helpful picture of adults and children on the spiritual journey together

Psalms and the Transformation of Stress Dennis D. Sylva,1993 Professor Sylva has written a major book in what Clifford Geertz terms blurred genres By that Geertz means a study that refuses to stay slotted in a specified scholarly discipline but reaches across such distinctions in order to face real and complex human issues As biblical scholarship moves out of its more positivistic modes it is able to make contact with human dimensions of the text that objectivist criticism had long precluded In this book Sylva with painstaking research and urbane articulation reflects upon how the Psalms touch fractured human conditions in healing ways This is no surface interpretation of scripture for the sake of an easy religious fix and it is no pop psychology because the author has thought with great steadfastness and is informed on both sides of the interface The power of his argument is in the detail of human stress and in the effective nuance of the poetry For his interface he employs the intriguing term theotherapy I have no doubt that this book will become a major resource for bringing back together text and human reality that our recent interpretative past has rent asunder Sylva invites us to a new conversation as we blur our safer points of reference Walter Brueggemann Professor of Old Testament Columbia Theological Seminary This book seeks to uncover the serious and deep ways in which the Psalms speak to the human situation Few works that I know of have sought to bring the Psalms to bear on the stresses and strains the functions and dysfunctions of the family as has been done here Professor Sylva endeavors to show how the Psalms create a fundamental trust in God a trust that moves out into all other relationships starting with the family This is something that happened to me as a child and that I came to realize only much later In this work The Psalms are clearly not simply a springboard to say some things about family therapy They are the heart of this book and it is only as they are heard in detail that one then moves or is carried by them into a more secure family relationship I hope very much that this work will enhance the reading and appropriation of the Psalms within the family as a source of family health and strength Patrick D Miller Professor of Old Testament Theology Princeton Theological Seminary Dana Sylva is Associate Professor of Biblical Studies at Saint Francis Seminary in Milwaukee Wisconsin He is the editor of Reimagining the Death of the Lukian Jesus 1990 and he has published articles on Old testament and New Testament exegesis
