The Mystery of the Missing Flowers

It was a beautiful spring morning in the small town of Willow Creek. The sun was shining, and the birds were singing. Connor and his best friend, Jake, were excited to explore the park near their school. They had heard that the flowers were blooming beautifully by the time of year.

As they walked to the park, they noticed something strange. The flowers that usually filled the park with color were missing! "Where did all the flowers go?" Connor asked, looking around in confusion. Jake shrugged his head, puzzled. "I don't know, but we have to find out!" he replied with determination.

The two friends decided to become detectives. They started their investigation near the empty flower beds. "Maybe someone took them," suggested Connor. "Or maybe Mr. Thompson, the gardener, forgot to plant them," suggested Jake.

They walked over to Mr. Thompson, who was watering the nearby trees. "Excuse me, Mr. Thompson?" called Jake. "Have you seen the flowers? They are all gone!"

Mr. Thompson sighed and said, "Oh, dear! I noticed they were missing this morning. I had planned to water them today, but yesterday they were all gone!" He looked worried. "I think someone might have taken them during the night."

Connor and Jake exchanged worried glances. "How can we find those flowers?" Connor asked. Jake asked Mr. Thompson if he had seen anything suspicious. Mr. Thompson shook his head, saying they were at the edge of the park. "Last night, I was there, but I didn't see anything unusual."

With a gasp of realization, Connor and Jake headed to the car park. As they approached, they noticed footprints in the grass leading away from the trees. "Look!" Jake exclaimed, pointing towards the tracks.

They followed the tracks into the park. Suddenly, they found a small wooden shed. They looked inside to see what was happening.

The shed was empty, but a small sign on the wall said "Flowers for Sale". They looked at each other and then at the flowers that were still in the shed. They looked at each other and then at the flowers that were still in the shed.
