The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Futures Robert C. Brears, 2023-01-13 While urban settlements are the drivers of the global economy and centres of learning culture and innovation and nations rely on competitive dynamic regions for their economic social and environmental objectives urban centres and regions face a myriad of challenges that impact the ways in which people live and work create wealth and interact and connect with places Rapid urbanisation is resulting in urban sprawl rising emissions urban poverty and high unemployment rates housing affordability issues lack of urban investment low urban financial and governance capacities rising inequality and urban crimes environmental degradation increasing vulnerability to natural disasters and so forth At the regional level low employment low wage growth scarce financial resources climate change waste and pollution and rising urban peri urban competition etc are impacting the ability of regions to meet socio economic development goals while protecting biodiversity The response to these challenges has typically been the application of inadequate or piecemeal solutions often as a result of fragmented decision making and competing priorities with numerous economic environmental and social consequences In response there is a growing movement towards viewing cities and regions as complex and sociotechnical in nature with people and communities interacting with one another and with objects such as roads buildings transport links etc within a range of urban and regional settings or contexts This comprehensive MRW will provide readers with expert interdisciplinary knowledge on how urban centres and regions in locations of varying climates lifestyles income levels and stages development are creating synergies and reducing trade offs in the development of resilient resource efficient environmentally friendly liveable socially equitable integrated and technology enabled centres and regions

Academic Development and its Practitioners Gert Young, 2022-03-03 The chapters in this collection are reflections of the intellectual emotional and day to day experiences of professional staff engaged in academic development They provide the reader with glimpses of how academic developers at one South African university are continuously shaping their identities through sense making processes how they creatively apply different theoretical approaches to both analysing and informing their work and what their views are of the practical and systemic challenges facing higher education As such this book expands on as well as challenges the dominant ways of thinking about academic development and academic developers in higher education

Dynamics Of Mediatization Olivier Driessens, Göran Bolin, Andreas Hepp, Stig Hjarvard, 2017-11-30 This volume sheds light on the underlying dynamics of mediatization disentangling the actual unfolding of mediatization processes The wide adoption and deep embedding of digital media and technology brings new questions to mediatization studies how can we grasp this deep mediatization In which way should we develop existing approaches of mediatization to analyse such dynamics What are the consequences of this for theorising and empirically studying mediatization By using these questions as a starting point this book presents an innovative and original collection that is dedicated to both the underlying dynamics of mediatization and recent dynamics related to digital media

Suid-Afrikaanse Hofverslae, 2015 How People Compare Mathijs Pelkmans, Harry Walker, 2022-12-26 This book focuses on comparison in anthropology turning an ethnographic lens onto the diversity of comparative practice It seeks to understand how why and with what consequences diversely situated groups of people many of whom operate on radically different premises to professional anthropologists make comparisons above all between themselves and real or imagined others What motivates people to compare what techniques or logics do they employ and what are the most likely outcomes both intended and unintended How do comparative practices reflect reinforce or refuse uneven relations of power And finally what can a rejuvenated comparative anthropology learn from the anthropology of comparison The volume develops a dialogue between scholars with long term ethnographic engagement in a variety of contexts around the world and is particularly valuable reading for those interested in anthropological methodology and theory

Beyond the Mountain B Camminga,zethu Matebeni,2023-02-10 Beyond The Mountain

Queer Life in Africa's Gay Capital contributes to the body of knowledge on the lived experiences of lesbian gay bisexual transgender queer and intersex LGBTQI communities in Cape Town. The book provides insight on the lives of the LGBTQI communities in Cape Town and challenges the stereotypes and prejudices against these communities. The chapters consist of both narratives of lived experiences and academic discussions presented by novice as well as experienced scholars. The imagery of beyond the mountain is a depiction of the lives of LGBTQI community and immovable negative perceptions the general public have to them and seeks to expose their world and the kinds of violence and abuse they are subjected to as well as unveiling the racial discrimination within these communities. The book revolves around five themes: education, emancipation, protection, acceptance, and integration of those who identify as LGBTQI people in society. Things That Matter William Emilsen, Patricia Curthoys, 2025-04-25

Often theological colleges are the site of tension between the aspirations of the overall institution of the church and the goals of the particular college itself. While they are usually the first called upon to solve the numerous problems facing the modern church, yet just as likely they are criticized for being too academic, too out of touch with contemporary society, and too expensive. A fair reading of the ten essays in Things That Matter will refute or at the very least question these criticisms. The authors of this inspiring collection, although far from uncritical, clearly show that since 1999 when United Theological College, the Uniting Church's premier college in New South Wales, became part of Charles Sturt University's School of Theology, there have been great benefits for students, faculty, the church, and the broader community. Gender and the Law of the Sea Irini Papanicolopulu, 2019-05-07

Listen to the podcast with Nilufer Oral on Climate Change, Oceans, and Gender. In Gender and the Law of the Sea, a distinguished group of law of the sea and feminist scholars critically engages with one of the oldest fields of international law. While the law of the sea has been traditionally portrayed as a technical, gender-neutral set of rules of concern to States rather than humans, authors in this volume persuasively argue that critical feminist perspectives are needed to question the underlying assumptions of ostensibly gender-neutral norms. Coming at a time when the presence of women at sea is increasing, the volume forcefully and successfully argues that legal rules are relevant to ensure gender equality and the empowerment of women at sea in an effort to render law for the oceans more inclusive.
