Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women's and girls' lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women's Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists

Re-imagining Indigenous Knowledge and Practices in 21st Century Africa Tenson M. Muyambo, Anniegrace M. Hlatywayo, Pindai M. Sithole, Munyaradzi Mawere, 2022-01-13 This book is on the re-imagination of Indigenous Knowledge Systems (IKS) and practices in 21st century Africa Framed from an anti-colonial perspective the book critically interrogates epistemological erasures and injustices meted against African IKS and practices It magnifies the different contexts where African IKS were and continue to be used effectively for collective and personal benefit Beyond the legitimate frustration and disheartenment expressed by the contributors to this volume over the systematic colonial efforts to render inferior and delegitimate African systems of knowing and knowledge production the book makes an important contribution to the quest to correct misconceptions and misrepresentations by Eurocentric thinkers and practitioners about African indigenous knowledges The book makes an informed claim that the future and vibrancy of African indigenous knowledge and practices lie in how well scholars of knowledge studies and decoloniality in and on Africa are able to join hands in articulating debating and fronting their vitality and relevance in varied real life situations More importantly the book provides a re-invigorated overview and nuanced analyses of the important role and continued relevance of African IKS and practices in the understanding interpreting and tackling of the social unfoldings of everyday life and dynamism Without romanticising African IKS and practices the book provides added insights and pointers on policy and trends It is an important addition to critical debates on knowledge studies across fields
