The study is 12 weeks but can easily be reformatted based on your schedule. Does each person in the study need their own book? Yes. It's most helpful for learning purposes if each person has their own study guide. However, couples might find it convenient to share the actual book. Is there much homework? The only homework is to read one chapter each week and answer corresponding discussion questions prior to class. Can anyone lead the study? Absolutely. The study is created in a discussion format allowing leaders to simply guide participants through each study question at weekly meetings. Can I get access to the answers for each discussion question? Yes. The answers for each discussion question are available for free online.

Peanut Butter and Dragon Wings Shari Zook, 2021-07-06. Longing for permission to be real about your own needs and struggles. Permission granted. As good Christian moms, we're not supposed to ask for much. Jesus meets all our needs, and we're the light of the world to everybody else. Right? Wrong. Shari Zook appeared to be an overachieving supermom who deftly supported her pastor husband and their congregation, looked after their children and cared for foster children through the ups and downs of placements. But inside her world was growing increasingly desperate as she struggled with the grief of miscarriage, parenting a difficult child, and spiraling depression. In her darkest hour, Zook let go of her need to appear super-human and reached out to receive God's unfolding grace. With humor and artistry, Peanut Butter and Dragon Wings gives us permission to step out from behind the appearance of rose-filtered perfection and embrace the authenticity of honest need and human limitations. In the book's twelve chapters, you'll find twelve practical ways to reach for a faith that includes doubt and holiness that includes failure.
