feel like you have a loving expert coach by your side along the way Heather Dane co author with Louise Hay of Loving Yourself to Great Health      The North Carolina Historical Review ,2000      African American Review ,2002 As the official publication of the Division on Black American Literature and Culture of the Modern Language Association of America African American review promotes an exchange among writers and scholars in the arts humanities and social sciences who hold diverse perspectives of African American literature and culture      McGraw-Hill's GED Social Studies Kenneth Tamarkin, Jeri W. Bayer, 2002-09 McGraw Hill's GED Test series which reflects the new 2002 test guidelines is dedicated to preparing students to pass each of the five GED subject exams This edition addresses the key change in the GED requiring both reading passages and analyzing related graphics      The Education of Black Males in a 'Post-Racial' World Anthony L. Brown, Jamel K. Donnor, 2013-09-13 The Education of Black Males in a Post Racial World examines the varied structural and discursive contexts of race masculinities and class that shape the educational and social lives of Black males The contributing authors take direct aim at the current discourses that construct Black males as disengaged in schooling because of an autonomous Black male culture and explore how media social sciences school curriculum popular culture and sport can define and constrain the lives of Black males The chapters also provide alternative methodologies theories and analyses for making sense of and addressing the complex needs of Black males in schools and in society By expanding our understanding of how unequal access to productive opportunities and quality resources converge to systemically create disparate experiences and outcomes for African American males this volume powerfully illustrates that race still matters in post racial America This book was originally published as a special issue of Race Ethnicity and Education      Thinking Anthropologically Philip Carl Salzman, Patricia C. Rice, 2008 This book focuses on nine themes that are at the heart of anthropology themes that permeate all fields of anthropology and that prepare learners to think anthropologically before beginning to study the field in any depth KEY TOPICS Chapters written by specialists in each topical area provide quality coverage of areas that the chosen authors are especially knowledgeable about and interested in Chapter titles include What Anthropologists Look For Patterns Thinking Holistically Thinking Theoretically Using Science to Think Anthropologically Thinking about Change Biological Evolution and Culture Change Why Do Anthropological Experts Disagree Thinking and Acting Ethically in Anthropology Applying Anthropological Knowledge and How to Take Anthropology Tests For a clearer and more meaningful understanding of anthropology      Every Closed Eye Ain't Sleep Teresa Hill, 2011-07-16 Every Closed Eye Ain't Sleep African American Perspectives on the Achievement Gap examines the origins and perpetuation of the achievement gap from the perspective of the African American community Instead of accepting the achievement gap as an inevitable matter of fact Every Closed Eye Ain't Sleep questions the fundamental beliefs that perpetuate the gap Drawing on dialogue with African American community members Teresa Hill advances a framework for understanding a predominant African American view of the educational process She then juxtaposes this framework with the norms perpetrated by the educational establishment to demonstrate how disagreements about the roles and responsibilities of parents teachers and students affect community members experiences in schools Every Closed Eye Ain t Sleep opens a dialogue about the achievement gap on different terms analyzes the gap as an issue of social justice and provides educational leaders and policymakers with ways to engage in the productive dialogue necessary to improve education for African American children
