Mariology: A Guide for Priests, Deacons, Seminarians and Consecrated Persons Dr. Mark Miravalle, 2013-09-10 Some of the best minds in Mariology today have collaborated to produce this monumental anthology in honor of Our Lady and in complete fidelity to the Magisterium Buy this book and make a present of it to your parish priest the religious sister you know the seminarian from your diocese or the consecrated person or educated layperson at your parish It s a Mariological must read especially for our priests and seminarians Dr Scott Hahn Author and Professor of Theology at Franciscan University of Steubenville The Interior Castle: Study Edition St Teresa of Avila, 2020-11-27 The Interior Castle is considered St Teresa of Avila's masterpiece. She wrote this last work in just a few months in 1577, five years before her death. At this point in her life, she had been granted the highest mystical graces; this book is the fruit of her lived experience and a deep felt praise of God for it. More than a book, The Interior Castle is a powerful image of the mystery of the human person. It is in a very real sense Teresa's soul. Using the image of a castle, Teresa describes the soul's progressive inner journey through seven dwelling places until finally reaching the center where, now transformed, it is united with God. Reading the works of Teresa herself is indispensable. This second revised study edition has been completely redesigned as a springboard to reading and understanding Teresa's text. The book presents a chapter of The Interior Castle itself followed by a review of the development of her thought and the principal ideas in each chapter. Interpretive notes after each chapter cover doctrine, history, and sociology. Expanded questions for reflection and/or discussion conclude each chapter. A glossary of terms offers definitions as well as their specific and sometimes unique meaning in Teresa's writings. Comprehensive indexes of key themes and figures, castle imagery, and biblical references make this volume an indispensable reference resource. Then, because Teresa always wanted her writings to be in harmony with Scripture, the study edition offers a biblical index that lists by page number scriptural texts or allusions to them found in Teresa's writings. With its combination of Teresa's text and modern commentary and notes, The Interior Castle Study Edition demonstrates how contemporary church teachings are reflected in Teresa's basic concepts and principles of the spiritual life and how modern readers can apply these perennially rich teachings to our lives today.

Theology of Ministry, Borght, 2007-06-30. Theology of ministry has always been a controversial issue in the relation between churches, especially with its juridical approach that concentrated on authority. In recent decades, the secularization and individualization in the Western world have intensified the challenge to reformulate the mission of the church and its ministries. Building on the Reformed theology of the 16th century, Zwingli, Calvin, and confessions, and on the results of the ecumenical convergence on ministry, BEM in the 20th century, this study presents building blocks for a renewed theology of ministry in the 21st century.

International Handbook of Inter-religious Education, Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17. This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance, as well as collaboration between religions, has essential educational value. The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights, justice, and peace. Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being. It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity Carlo Passaglia on Church and Virgin Valfredo Maria Rossi,2020-07-13 In Carlo Passaglia on Church and Virgin Valfredo Maria Rossi traces the significant contribution that Carlo Passaglia 1812-1887 has made to Catholic theology paying particular attention to his Trinitarian ecclesiology and Mariology Though highly neglected due to his troubled life Passaglia is one of the most brilliant theologians of the nineteenth century Commonly and yet erroneously ascribed to the Neo Scholastic movement he anticipates and so emerges as a forerunner of several themes which will be developed during the Second Vatican Council In light of Passaglia's two most relevant theological works De Ecclesia Christi and De Immaculato Deiparae semper Virginis Conceptu Rossi convincingly shows the originality of Passaglia's theology based on a patristic ressourcement highlighting its historical salvific and sacramental dimension Spirit Flowing Like Water Nausikaa Haupt,Olle Kristenson,Michael Nausner,Gregory Ryan,2025-06-19 What if churches focused less on wanting other Christian traditions to become more like theirs and more on exploring what they might learn from them Might this not only help churches to deepen faith mission and service but also revitalize the ecumenical landscape with new possibilities This is the provocative and inspiring vision presented by Receptive Ecumenism a movement which has crossed denominations and continents engaging church leaders ecumenists scholars and Christians in their everyday lives Spirit Flowing Like Water presents the latest conversations in this field It not only engages leading scholars and practitioners of Receptive Ecumenism between churches but also explores the possibility of learning from difference within a church community Internal Receptive Ecumenism and adapting the approach to a wider ecumenism beyond the visible church Church leaders ecumenists and theologians from five continents have contributed chapters on transforming ecumenism practicing mission in context and broadening the horizon They write not only for those already engaged in ecumenical work but with an invitation to all communities leaders and individuals to take a fresh look at what walking together in Christ means in our polarized world

Becoming Apostolic Catherine Sexton,2024-07-01 This book explores the experience and understanding of Roman Catholic sisters of their vocation to the apostolic form of religious life as they age Based on interviews with twelve religious women it draws on the practice of Lectio Divina to explore how these women describe their call to service and activity at a time in life when these might be curtailed by physical diminishment and increasingly reduced social interaction and influence As the very institutions of religious life are themselves under threat the book identifies new emerging forms of ministry through presence to each other and to their carers

Catholics and Evangelicals for the Common Good Ronald J. Sider,Dr. John Borelli,2018-11-07 For centuries evangelical Protestants and Catholics have hurled harsh epithets at each other But that has changed dramatically in the last forty years In 1960 many prominent evangelicals opposed John Kennedy for president because he was a Catholic Today Catholics and evangelicals work together on many issues of public policy This book records one important process in this transformation In 2004 the board of The National Association of Evangelicals NAE the largest representative body of evangelicals in the US unanimously approved For the Health of the Nation as the official public policy document for its public policy efforts representing 30 million evangelicals When scholars read this new ground breaking document they quickly realized there was widespread agreement between the NAE s official public policy document and the official public policy positions of American Catholics The result was a series of annual meetings held at Georgetown University and Eastern University that brought together prominent Catholic and Evangelical scholars and public policy specialists to explore the extent of the common ground This book reports on that dialogue and its contribution to the increasing Catholic evangelical cooperation

Transforming Pastoral Leadership Quentin P. Kinnison,2016-05-20 For many congregations change creates discomfort Pastoral leaders are often expected to be experts who manage and control realities beyond their expertise experience and ability That expectation a product of modern approaches to leadership views the pastor as responsible for maintaining the status quo Transforming Pastoral Leadership responds to this context by challenging readers to rediscover key biblical themes around the shepherding metaphor as well as key theological themes steeped in our historical faith narratives Readers are challenged to consider the origins of our dominant leadership practices and to reconsider how Christ's preeminence as the leader of his church requires us to reconstruct leadership practices that are faithful to his preeminence To assist congregations Transforming Pastoral Leadership suggests two processes that might help congregations discern God's missional promptings as they move forward into God's future and experience conflict as opportunities for transformation Towards Visible Unity: Study papers and reports World Council of Churches.
