Journalism and Journalism Education in Developing Countries Beatrice Dernbach, Beate Illg, 2020-02-17 Free and fair media are at the heart of any democratic set up A thriving field of journalism and zealous and ethical journalists in that sense become torch bearers of a brighter and promising tomorrow In this light the status of journalists the most important actors in the field becomes increasingly important as a matter of study They act as gatekeepers of information that is flooding in the era of new media a wave that is not so new anymore Their roles remain intact and even becomes prominent in the chaos of many to many communication Not concentrating on specific countries selected contributions in the book reflect on the developments of media and journalism education across different countries. Introducing the book with an overview about the state of the art of journalism education and the research on a meta level, the book moves on to talk about media studies in the Asian countries and in Arab world, the African States and Brazil. This book is an interesting read for all those who care about a vital media landscape and an open democratic society. The recent economic and social developments present both opportunities and risks for journalism. Freedom of expression and freedom of press, even in democratic countries, are under pressure. This book provides an international perspective on the different aspects of journalism: the situation in which journalists work, their working conditions, educational backgrounds, struggles and successes. It is aimed at an international public interested in the field of journalism and freedom of speech. It addresses journalists, trainers and academics. Furthermore, institutions in the field of development cooperation, education or cultural policy and cultural education are the focus of this work. Though the book is focused on journalism and journalism education in developing countries, contributions are from across the globe.

Transformative Practice in Critical Media Literacy

Steve Gennaro, Nolan Higdon, Michael Hoechsmann, 2024-04-16. Transformative Practice in Critical Media Literacy brings together a diverse selection of essays to examine the knowledge production crisis in higher education and the role that news media and technology play in this process. This text highlights the importance of radical pedagogy and critical media literacy to fight back and reclaim higher education as the battleground for democracy and the embodiment of citizenship. Using a global and social justice lens, it explores the transformative potential of critical media literacy in higher education. It also provides real examples of current critical media literacy practices around the globe and of successful experiences inside classrooms. In an era of fake news, this text fulfils the yearning for critical media literacy to permeate higher education by drawing together practitioners and scholars speaking to journalism students, teacher candidates and to students, scholars and activists across a variety of spaces in higher education. This book will be a key resource for scholars, students, policymakers, community members and activists interested in education, politics, youth studies, critical theory, intersectionality, social justice and peace studies, activism, critical media literacy, communication or media studies.

Handbook of Research on Combating Threats to Media Freedom and Journalist Safety Jamil, Sadia, 2019-12-27. The freedom of expression and the freedom of information are the indispensable components of free media. Without these two basic rights, an informed, active and participatory citizenry is impossible. Members of the media require special protections to enable them to operate freely in order to advocate for human rights, public discourse and the plurality of ideas. The Handbook of Research on Combating Threats to Media Freedom and Journalist Safety is an essential reference source that evaluates how diverse threats impact on journalists' wellbeing, their right to freedom of expression and overall media freedoms in various contexts and assesses inadequacies in national security policies, planning and coordination relating to the safety of journalists in different countries. Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Podcasting s stratospheric rise has inspired a new breed of audio reporting Offering immersive storytelling for a binge listening audience as well as reaching previously underserved communities podcasts have become journalism s most rapidly growing digital genre buoying a beleaguered news industry Yet many concerns have been raised about this new medium such as the potential for disinformation the influence of sponsors on content the dominance of a few publishers and platforms and at times questionable adherence to journalistic principles David O Dowling critically examines how podcasting and its evolving conventions are transforming reporting and even reshaping journalism's core functions and identity He considers podcast reporting's most influential achievements as well as its most consequential ethical and journalistic shortcomings emphasizing the reciprocal influences between podcasting and traditional and digital journalism Podcasting both as a medium and a business has benefited from the blurring of boundaries separating news from entertainment editorial from advertising and neutrality from subjectivity The same qualities and forces that have allowed podcasting to bypass the limitations of traditional categories expand the space of social and political discourse and provide openings for marginalized voices have also permitted corporations to extend their reach and far right firebrands to increase their influence Equally attentive to the medium's strengths and flaws this is a vital book for all readers interested in how podcasting has changed journalism Media Studies: Content, audiences, and production Pieter Jacobus Fourie, 2001 This book includes theoretical approaches as well as a production section that focuses on basic techniques and introductory applications of media studies Handbook of Applied Journalism Leon Barkho, Jairo Alfonso Lugo-Ocando, Sadia Jamil, 2024-02-21 This authoritative handbook looks at the entire news cycle and provides a bridge between the theoretical and academic study of journalism and its actual contemporary practice The book's main merit is that it brings theory and practice together with contributors discussing these issues from different perspectives in a way that scholars students and practitioners can find useful in the study of journalism The handbook is also unique as it undertakes an international scope across regions and cultures both from the West and the Global South while providing an overview which balances the over emphasis on content in most academic approaches to journalism The book is divided into four major parts 1 Conceptual foundations 2 Interlink between journalism as scholarship and journalism as practice 3 Regions and cultures and 4 The practitioner world The first two sections lay down the foundation for section 3 which provides an overview of journalism practice in different regions and cultures Section 4 includes contributions by practitioners in which they attempt to respond to some of the issues raised in preceding sections This handbook will appeal to academics practitioners and professionals alike who are interested in a better understanding of the academic study of journalism and its actual contemporary practice

The Routledge Companion to News and Journalism Stuart Allan, 2009-10-20 The Routledge Companion to News and Journalism presents an authoritative comprehensive assessment of diverse forms of news media reporting past present and future Including 60 chapters written by an outstanding team of internationally respected authors the Companion provides scholars and students with a reliable historically informed guide to news media and journalism studies The Companion has the following features It is organised to address a series of themes pertinent to the on going theoretical and methodological development of news and journalism studies around the globe The focus encompasses news institutions production processes
