Somehow Christmas Will Come:

Somehow They Knew Anthony M. Cooper, 2004 Love stories are as old as time What makes this one different is that it is true It is an enchanting story that starts during the Second World War An artillery officer about to go overseas on active service meets a pretty girl in a small village in the south of England She is a talented draftsman in the drawing office of a key wartime research establishment They fall in love His embarkation leave turns into a whirlwind courtship Separated by war and duty they never lose hope that one day they will be together There is a first hand account of the Allied landings in North Africa and the invasion of Sicily A charming picture is painted of the day to day life of the young girl as she awaits his return with fascinating glimpses of life in wartime Britain Their dreams come true and they are married In the post war years their life together is rich in travel and adventure the scene moves to Singapore Hong Kong America and France It contains many amusing incidents and anecdotes that portray everyday life in the half century that has just ended Through it all runs the thread of their timeless romance It is a lovely story that never loses its enchantment It will have special appeal in an age of some cynicism about romance and marriage Once started it is hard to put this book down The Brunonian Brown University, 1891 Brunonian, 1892 Skiing, 1980-10 You've Got to Be Somewhere Terry A. Roberts, 2015-11-09 Have you ever had a Christmas gathering or family vacation that was way too interesting Have you had a family member in the military or deployed to a combat zone Have you struggled with your Christian faith Have you or a family member faced cancer or another serious illness If so you are not alone although you may sometimes feel like it Author Terry A Roberts has felt that way He shares his experiences in his memoir Youve Got to Be Somewhere This slice of Americana sometimes hilarious and sometimes starkly intense recalls Robertss idyllic childhood filled with baseball Boy Scouts and outdoor boondoggles Life later finds him as a single Baptist minister in the South and Midwest while also serving as a marine He saw combat in the first Gulf War later as a US Navy Marine Corps chaplain and once again during the invasions of Iraq and Afghanistan He was later diagnosed with cancer a fact that changed his life forever Through it all his faith in God has helped him through the difficult times while making him more appreciative of the good in his life Now he tells the story of his truly American lifean odyssey of humor tough issues and faith Suffering the Truth Chris K. Huebner, 2020-10-21 Structured around the Christian liturgical calendar Suffering the Truth offers a series of reflections on the exceedingly difficult and yet irrepressibly joyful character of the Christian life Beginning with a meditation on Advent as a time during which we are called to cultivate a readiness for the unexpected presence of God and concluding with a sermon that sets out to challenge the conception of peace frequently celebrated on the day Mennonites have come to call Peace Sunday Chris K Huebner presents an account of the unusual rhythms of Christian temporality These sermons seek to elaborate a liturgical counter temporality and to display what it might look like when its rhythms inform the way we go about our ordinary lives In doing so Huebner invites us to reflect on how we might inhabit truthfully the strange new life into which we have been called by God
