America and Iran John Ghazvinian, 2020-10-22 Selected as one of the 100 Notable Books of the Year by the New York Times In recent times the United States and Iran have seemed closer to war than peace but that is not where their story began When America was in its infancy Thomas Jefferson and John Quincy Adams turned to the history of the Persian Empire as they looked for guidance on how to run their new country And in the following century Iranian newspapers heralded America as an ideal that their own government might someday emulate How then did the two nations become the adversaries that they are today In this rich fascinating history John Ghazvinian traces the complex story of America and Iran over three centuries Drawing on years of research conducted in both countries including access to Iranian government archives rarely available to Western scholars he leads us through the four seasons of US Iranian relations from the spring of mutual fascination where Iran sick of duplicitous Britain and Russia interfering in its affairs sought a relationship with the United States to the long dark winter of hatred that we are yet to see end A revealing account America and Iran lays bare when where and how it all went wrong and why it didn't have to be this way

Vigilante Islamists Joshua T. White, Professor of the Practice of International Affairs Joshua T White, 2025-07-17 For over three decades the Pakistani state has had to contend with the rise of violent anti-state movements that have sought to overthrow the government for being insufficiently Islamic This book provides an inside look at how Islamist political parties which often have sympathies with these radical groups but also have a stake in the democratic system make decisions about whether to support or undermine violent movements that are challenging the state With five studies that span three decades the book provides a detailed look at some of Pakistan's most interesting and controversial political parties

Islam and Colonialism Will Myer, 2003-08-27 Tracing the development of western thought about Central Asia this book argues that for historical and political reasons Central Asia was seen as being in a colonial relationship with Russia Consequently an anti-colonial revolution in Asia was seen as the greatest threat to the USSR The book questions the suitability of the colonial model for understanding the region's recent political history and challenges many of the assumptions which underlay the adoption of such a model and examines how this one interpretation came to dominate western discourse to the virtual exclusion of all others Northern Spirits Robert C. Sibley, 2008-02-08 Canadians have devoted considerable thought to Hegel a proposition born out by the work of John Watson George Grant and Charles Taylor three major Canadian political philosophers of the last century In Northern Spirits Robert Sibley examines how Watson Grant and Taylor found in Hegel the theoretical tools needed to respond to Canada's uncertain existence The Politics of the Jamiat Ulema-i-Islam Pakistan Sayyid A. S. Pirzada, 2000 This work is based on the Ph D thesis of the author It is a welcome arrival in a field that has so far not attracted much research there are not many books on the role and influences exercised by religious parties in Pakistan On the subject of the JUIP specifically Dr Pirzada has achieved a first as there is no other well researched work on the topic The lack of academic work on religious politics in Pakistan is a serious omission It is a whole school of thought in Pakistani politics which has gained in influence and power The book is not only good source material for political scientists it will also prove to be of interest to any intelligent layman interested in the political history of Pakistan BOOK JACKET Persian Gulf Beyond Desert Storm Fariborz Levaye Mokhtari, 1994

Strangers and Pilgrims on Earth Paul van Geest, Eduardus van der Borght, 2011-11-25 The title Strangers and Pilgrims on Earth Hebrews 11:13 captures well the eschatological nature of the christology which has become so central in the theological enterprise of Prof dr Abraham van de Beek At the occasion of his sixty fifth birthday in October 2011 many of his former colleagues and students honour him in this Festschrift with a contribution to one of the themes that have been central to his theology christology theology of Israel eschatology theology of the church creation theology and freedom of religion The volume opens with an article providing an overview of his theological development one probing his deepest theological intentions and with an up to date bibliography Contributors include Martien Brinkman Johan Buitendag Jaesung Cha Pieter Coertzen Ernst Conradie Gerrit de Kruijf Bert de Leede Adelbert Denaux Gerard den Hertog Rene de Reuver Henk de Roest Andre Drost Szilveszter F sti Moln r Harm Goris Botond Gudor John Hesselink Jan Hoek Gerrit Immink Allan Janssen Tam s Juh sz Nico Koopman Daniel Migliore ChristIan Mostert Istv n P sztori Kup n Christoff Pauw Arjan Plaisier Ad Prosman Bernhard Reitsma Riemer Roukema Frank Sawyer Alan Sell Matthias Smalbrugge Gerrit Singgih Dirkie Smit Adrianus Cardinal Simonis Ferenc Sz cs Eep Talstra Wessel ten Boom Johann Theron Jacob van Beelen Henk van den Belt Gijsbert van den Brink Leon van den Broeke Eduardus Van der Borght Kees van der Kooi Paul van Geest Sjaak van t Kruis Willem van Vlastuin Amie van Wyk Danie Veldsman Rian Venter Wim Verboom Koos Vorster Nico Vorster Robert Vosloo Henk Vroom Paul Wells Writing British Muslims Rehana Ahmed, 2024-06-04 The Rushdie affair September 11 2001 and 7 7 pushed British Muslims into the forefront of increasingly fraught debate about multiculturalism Stereotyping images have proliferated reducing a heterogeneous minority group to a series of media soundbites This book examines contemporary literary representations of Muslims by British writers of South Asian Muslim descent including Salman Rushdie Hanif

Kureishi Monica Ali and Nadeem Aslam to explore the contribution they make to urgent questions about multicultural politics and the place of Muslims within Britain By focusing on class and its intersection with faith race and gender in identity and community formation it challenges the dichotomy of secular freedom versus religious oppression that constrains thinking about British Muslims and offers a more nuanced perspective on multicultural debates and controversies Writing British Muslims will appeal to academics and postgraduate and final year undergraduate students in the fields of postcolonial studies English studies and cultural studies      The Intractable Dispute Raphael Israeli, 2019-02-21 The Middle East conflict which has been raging for a century and seems to have no end in sight is not over territory or other assets but is historically anchored in the Islamic tradition which has become the preponderant faith of the Arabs Being a qualitative factor of an either or import from the Muslim point of view which is today best expressed by Iran the Muslim Brothers Hamas Hezbollah and other radical Muslim movements it is not given to negotiation and compromise as any other political conflict but is governed by absolutes and one sided perspectives Arab nationalism Islam and Zionism are the main political and religious movements taking center stage in this conflict The intractable nature of the conflict has so far defied all negotiations agreements and peace treaties All the proposed peaceful settlements have thus far remained brittle while the fundamental issues of stereotyping suspicion hatred and condescendence have remained in place unshaken This book confronts two contradictory ideologies and attempts to bridge them over
