single woman within the evolving landscape of modernity examining how she negotiated rural and urban worlds explored domestic and bohemian roles and traversed public and private spheres In the modern era the single woman was both celebrated and derided for refusing to conform to societal expectations regarding femininity and sexuality The different versions of single women presented in cultural narratives of this period including the old maid odd woman New Woman spinster and flapper were all sexually suspicious The single woman however was really an amorphous figure who defied straightforward categorization Emma Sterry explores depictions of such single women in transatlantic women's fiction of the 1920s to 1940s Including a diverse selection of renowned and forgotten writers such as Djuna Barnes Rosamond Lehmann Ngaio Marsh and Eliot Bliss this book argues that the single woman embodies the tensions between tradition and progress in both middlebrow and modernist literary culture Anaïs Nin Benjamin Franklin, Duane Schneider, 1979 The Winter of Artifice Anaïs Nin, 1939 The Diary of Anaïs Nin, 1944-1947 Anaïs Nin, 1972-10-18 The fourth volume of one of the most remarkable diaries in the history of letters Los Angeles Times The renowned diarist continues her record of her personal professional and artistic life recounting her experiences in Greenwich Village for several years in the late 1940s where she defends young writers against the Establishment and her trip across the country in an old Ford to California and Mexico Nin is one of the most extraordinary and unconventional writers of the twentieth century The New York Times Book Review Edited and with a preface by Gunther Stuhlmann Anaïs Nin Clara Oropeza, 2018-08-06 Anaïs Nin A Myth of Her Own traces Nin's literary craft by following the intimacy of self exploration and poetic expression attained in the details of the quotidian transfigured into fiction By digging into the mythic tropes that permeate both her literary diaries and fiction this book demonstrates that Nin constructed a mythic method of her own revealing the extensive possibilities of an opulent feminine psyche Clara Oropeza demonstrates that the literary diary for Nin is a genre that with its traces of trickster archetype among others reveals a mercurial yet particular understanding of an embodied and at times mystical experience of a writer The cogent analysis of Nin's fiction alongside the posthumously published unexpurgated diaries within the backdrop of emerging psychological theories further illuminates Nin's contributions as an experimental and important modernist writer whose daring and poetic voice has not been fully appreciated By extending research on diary writing and anchoring Nin's literary style within modernist traditions this book contributes to the redefinition of what literary modernism was comprised who participated and how it was defined Anaïs Nin A Myth of Her Own is unique in its interdisciplinary expansion of literature literary theory mythological studies and depth psychology By considering the ecocritical aspects of Nin's writing this book forges a new paradigm for not only Nin's work but for critical discussions of self life writing as a valid epistemological and aesthetic form This impressive work will be of great interest to academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies literary studies cultural studies mythological studies and women's studies Winter of Artifice ... Anaïs Nin, 1944 Anaïs Nin Suzanne Nalbantian, 1997-07-13 This book of essays is the first to probe Anaïs Nin's achievements as a literary artist With an introduction by the editor Suzanne Nalbantian the collection examines the literary strategies of Nin in their psychoanalytical and stylistic dimensions Various contributors scrutinize Nin s artistry identifying her unique modernist techniques and her poetic vision Others observe the transfer of her psychoanalytical positions to narrative The volume also contains fresh views of Nin by her brother Joaquin Nin Culmell as well as innovative analyses of the reception of her works

The Making of a Counter-culture Icon Maria R. Bloshteyn,2007-01-01 At first glance the works of Fedor Dostoevsky 1821 1881 do not appear to have much in common with those of the controversial American writer Henry Miller 1891 1980 However the influencer of Dostoevsky on Miller was in fact enormous and shaped the latter s view of the world of literature and of his own writing The Making of a Counter Culture Icon examines the obsession that Miller and his contemporaries the so called Villa Seurat circle had with Dostoevsky and the impact that this obsession had on their own work Renowned for his psychological treatment of characters Dostoevsky became a model for Miller Lawrence Durrell and Anaïs Nin interested as they were in developing a new kind of writing that would move beyond staid literary conventions Maria Bloshteyn argues that as Dostoevsky was concerned with representing the individual s perception of the self and the world he became an archetype for Miller and the other members of the Villa Seurat circle writers who were interested in precise psychological characterizations as well as intriguing narratives Tracing the cross cultural appropriation and mis interpretation of Dostoevsky s methods and philosophies by Miller Durrell and Nin The Making of a Counter Culture Icon gives invaluable insight into the early careers of the Villa Seurat writers and testifies to Dostoevsky s influence on twentieth century literature

Cinematic Fictions David Seed,2012-01-01 The phrase cinematic fiction has now been generally accepted into critical discourse but is usually applied to post war novels This book asks a simple question given their fascination with the new medium of film did American novelists attempt to apply cinematic methods in their own writings From its very beginnings the cinema has played a special role in defining American culture Covering the period from the 1910s up to the Second World War Cinematic Fictions offers new insights into classics like The Great Gatsby and The Grapes of Wrath discussing major writers critical writings on film and active participation in film making Cinematic Fictions is also careful not to portray cinema as a single or stable entity Some novelists drew on silent film others looked to the Russian theorists for inspiration and yet others turned to continental film makers rather than to Hollywood Film itself was constantly evolving during the first decades of the twentieth century and the writers discussed here engaged in a kind of dialogue with the new medium selectively pursuing strategies of montage limited point of view and scenic composition towards their different ends Contrasting a diverse range of cinematic and literary movements this will be compulsory reading for scholars of American literature and film Anaïs Nin Rose Marie Cutting, 1978
