Winter's Kiss Sienna Carr, She's the city girl from Boston He's the pottery guy from the bay Their lives were never meant to collide Dylan Fraser is an artist a dreamer and a failed actor He runs a gift store on the edges of Starling Bay a small coastal town where nothing much happens Merry Nicholls hates Christmas The festive season is full of bad memories especially this year which marks the five year passing of her husband's death Having fallen ill due to stress and at her mother's insistence Merry reluctantly agrees to visit Starling Bay She's supposed to recuperate but with her surly daughter and her Great Dane in tow not to mention the town's busy body on her back recuperation might not be possible And when her dog crashes into a gift shop breaking a collection of handmade Christmas coffee mugs all chances of an easy life go out of the window Neither Dylan nor Merry are looking for love but maybe it's time for them to let go and give in Because when the timing is right and the feeling is ripe taking a risk with their hearts could lead to lasting love and happiness

the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e g Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e g Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators
