Suppressed on Political Grounds, Fourth Edition Nicholas Karolides,2019-08-01 Throughout history tyrants totalitarian states church institutions and democratic governments alike have banned books that challenged their assumptions or questioned their activities Political suppression also occurs in the name of security and the safeguarding of official secrets and is often used as a weapon in larger cultural or political battles Literature Suppressed on Political Grounds Fourth Edition illustrates the extent and frequency of such censorship in nearly every form of writing Entries include Animal Farm George Orwell The Appointment Herta and Paul Amirson Born on the Fourth of July Ron Kovic Burger's Daughter Nadine Gordimer Cancer Ward Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn Doctor Zhivago Boris Pasternak The Fugitive Pramoedya Ananta Toer Girls of Riyadh Rajaa Alsanea The Grapes of Wrath John Steinbeck Gulliver's Travels Jonathan Swift The Hate U Give Angie Thomas The Jungle Upton Sinclair Kiss of the Spider Woman Manuel Puig Manifesto of the Communist Party Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels Les Misérables Victor Hugo Mein Kampf Adolf Hitler Slaughterhouse Five Kurt Vonnegut Jr Snow Orhan Pamuk The Struggle Is My Life Nelson Mandela The Things They Carried Tim O'Brien The Van Klief Plays Václav Havel and more Disfiguring Mark C. Taylor,1992 Disfiguring is constructive or perhaps more accurately reconstructive By exploring the religious dimensions of twentieth century painting and architecture he shows how the visual arts continue to serve as a rich resource for the theological imagination Opposing Censorship in Public Schools June Edwards,1997-12-01 In the past several years hundreds of challenges a year to books used in public schools have been reported across the nation Most of these have come from the Religious Right This book confronts the attacks on public education and commonly used literature books by challenging the religious assumptions the biblical interpretations and the intimidation tactics of the Religious Right Part I counters the claims of these censors by presenting opposing views on democracy secular humanism religion the Bible morality and the purposes of literature In Part II six books frequently taught in high school classes are analyzed Edwards shows why they have been challenged by the Religious Right and presents a case for their moral and religious virtues as well as their literary worth The book differs from other anti censorship works because it deals primarily and directly with the religious and moral aspects that educators often tend to avoid This book offers teachers and school administrators scholarly counterarguments that can help confront with literature challenges from the Religious Right Literature Suppressed on Political Grounds Nicholas J. Karolides,Margaret Bald,2014-05-14 Literature Suppressed on Religious Grounds Revised Edition profiles the censorship of many such essential works of literature The entries new to this edition include extensive coverage of the Harry Potter series which has been frequently banned in the United States on the grounds that it promotes witchcraft as well as entries on two popular textbook series The Witches by Roald Dahl Women Without Men A Novel of

Modern Iran and more Also included are updates to such entries as The Satanic Verses by Salman Rushdie and On the Origin of Species by Charles Darwin

A Muse of Fire Arnold D. Harvey, 1998-01-01 This is the first book to relate to the literature and art of the First World War to the literature and art produced by the Second World War and by earlier wars A Muse of Fire is also the first serious attempt to examine the whole range of war poetry and war fiction in English in its relation to the work of German French Italian and to a lesser extent Russian Danish and Hungarian authors Before 1914 few authors wrote about or experienced war War especially its reality was not the proper subject of literature while writers seldom served in the armed forces and were almost never in battle More than half this book deals with the First World War In successive chapters A D Harvey discusses what sort of people in what sort of physical and psychological conditions wrote about the war or painted it how they handled the challenge of describing their experiences with complete honesty what literary and artistic techniques they employed how other forms of creative talent were fostered by the war and how far memoirs of the war prepared the way for the next one The account given of the Second World War in the final section like the chapters on pre 1914 war literature provides far more than simply an introduction and conclusion to the central part of the book It is an important contribution to an understanding of how literature and art relate to the psychological and social structures of the communities within which they are produced This is the first book to relate to the literature and art of the First World War to the literature and art produced by the Second World War and by earlier wars A Muse of Fire is also the first serious attempt to examine the whole range of war poetry and war fiction in English in its relation to the work of German French Italian and to a lesser extent Russian Danish and Hungarian authors Before 1914 few authors wrote about or experienced war War especially its reality was not the proper subject of literature while writers seldom served in the armed forces and were almost never in battle More than half this book deals with the First World War In successive chapters A D Harvey discusses what sort of people in what sort of physical and psychological conditions wrote about the war or painted it how they handled the challenge of describing their experiences with complete honesty what literary and artistic techniques they employed how other forms of creative talent were fostered by the war and how far memoirs of the war prepared the way for the next one The account given of the Second World War in the final section like the chapters on pre 1914 war literature provides far more than simply an introduction and conclusion to the central part of the book It is an important contribution to an understanding of how literature and art relate to the psychological and social structures of the communities within which they are produced

Mielec, Poland Rochelle G. Saidel, 2012 The book's 45 visuals include rare documentation of correspondence during the Holocaust Author Dr Rochelle G Saidel's research was carried out as a Research Fellow at the Yad Vashem International Research Institute as well as under the auspices of Remember the Women Institute Mielec Poland is just one of many small dots on the map of the Holocaust but its remarkable and unique history calls for closer scrutiny Using an experimental process that was not repeated the Nazis destroyed the Mielec Jewish community on March 9 1942

After murdering those deemed too old or disabled to be useful the German occupiers selected able bodied survivors mostly men for slave labour and then deported the rest 4 000 mostly women some with children to another sector of the Generalgouvernement the Lublin district This process was recorded not only by the Nazis but also by some members of the local Jewish and non Jewish population The visual and written documentation in this book allows us to learn about the Jewish community that had flourished in Mielec until the Holocaust as well as the unusual way in which it was wiped out by the Nazis In addition testimonies and war criminal trial records describe an almost unknown brutal slave labour camp that operated on the outskirts of Mielec from before March 1942 until July 1944 Mielec is located in the Rzesz w province in southern Poland quite close to Tarn w and was in the Krak w district of the Generalgouvernement Both the Jewish community and the concentration camp of Mielec have almost vanished from history and evidence at the site is sparse Nevertheless what happened there can be recounted using old and new testimonies rare photographs and documents survivor interviews and archival material With the exception of a small number of people fortunate enough to survive by running and hiding the entire population was murdered sent to slave labor camps or later deported to death camps from the Lublin district Mielec was the first town in the Generalgouvernement from which the entire Jewish population was deported in the context of the Final Solution The Nazis well documented decision to deport the Jews of Mielec was made very early in January 1942 Furthermore after deportation to the Lublin district following an Aktion on March 9 1942 the Mielec Jews were not murdered immediately They were allowed to live for months under terrible circumstances in some of the small towns in that district near Sobib r and Be ec Ultimately these two death camps would be the final destination for Mielec s Jews Another unusual aspect of the Mielec story is the labor camp that was located there The site of the Polish National Aircraft Company PZL part of a Centralny Okreg Przemys owy Central Industrial District was taken over by the Nazis for the manufacture of Heinkel airplanes Later this work camp became a concentration camp complete with tattoos and sadistic commandants Despite these facts histories of the Holocaust rarely mention Mielec Today this site is a Euro Park industrial complex The rare visuals about Mielec during the Holocaust are from survivor Moshe Borger who was given a photograph album and correspondence by a Polish neighbour after World War II from archives the deportation from research trips to Mielec and from other survivors Very early and much more recent survivor testimonies as well as Nazi documentation help to tell the story The author interviewed survivors and also found Nazi war criminal trial records Material from the unpublished manuscript of a Mielec concentration camp survivor and from the diary and unpublished manuscript of a Mielec shtetl survivor are included as is testimony from a Mielec resident who was one of ten women to survive the Sobib r revolt Research was carried out in Yad Vashem the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum the Jewish Historical Research Institute in Warsaw and on site in Mielec

Translating Cultures David Katan, 2014-06-03 As the 21st century gets into stride so does the call for a discipline combining culture and translation This second edition of Translating Cultures retains its original aim of putting some rigour and coherence into these fashionable words and lays the foundation for such a discipline This edition has not only been thoroughly revised but it has also been expanded In particular a new chapter has been added which focuses specifically on training translators for translational and intercultural competencies The core of the book provides a model for teaching culture to translators interpreters and other mediators It introduces the reader to current understanding about culture and aims to raise awareness of the fundamental role of culture in constructing perceiving and translating reality Culture is perceived throughout as a system for orienting experience and a basic presupposition is that the organization of experience is not reality but rather a simplified model and a distortion which varies from culture to culture Each culture acts as a frame within which external signs or reality are interpreted The approach is interdisciplinary taking ideas from contemporary translation theory anthropology Bateson s logical typing and metamessage theories Bandler and Grinder s NLP meta model theory and Hallidayan functional grammar Authentic texts and translations are offered to illustrate the various strategies that a cultural mediator can adopt in order to make the different cultural frames he or she is mediating between more explicit
