Fusion Hans Wilhelmsson, 1999-12-01 Journeying through fusion in the universe Fusion A Voyage Through the Plasma Universe discusses all aspects of fusion and how they relate to our universe It also studies the attempts to produce fusion energy on Earth The book addresses a wide range of topics from stars galaxies comets pulsars black holes and quasars to the auroras lightning and fluorescent tubes Interestingly the author explores how artists and authors like Vincent van Gogh Leonardo da Vinci and Hannes Alfvén have been fascinated by cosmic phenomena that rely on fusion and plasmas He discusses motions in plasma such as flames waves and whirls similar to those that occur in water The book also examines several other branches of science where parallels can be found with fusion plasmas including ecological systems that provide only very short term weather forecasts and the dramatic changes in the world economy with its explosive tendencies and sometimes catastrophic results It briefly shows how these nonlinear phenomena are at the heart of modern fusion plasma theory

Choreographies of Multilingualism Tong-King Lee, 2022 Singapore boasts a complex mix of languages and is therefore a rich site for the study of multilingualism and multilingual society In particular writing is a key medium in the production of the nation's multilingual order one that is often used to organize language relations for public consumption In Choreographies of Multilingualism Tong King Lee examines the linguistic landscape of written language in Singapore from street signage and advertisements to institutional anthologies and text based memorabilia to language primers and social media based poetry to reveal the underpinning language ideologies and how those ideologies figure in political tensions The book analyzes the competing official and grassroots narratives around multilingualism and takes a nuanced approach to discuss the marginalization celebration or appropriation of Singlish Bringing together theoretical perspectives from sociolinguistics multimodal semiotics translation and cultural studies Lee demonstrates that multilingualism in Singapore is an emergent and evolving construct through which identities and ideologies are negotiated and articulated Broad ranging and cross disciplinary this book offers a significant contribution to our understanding of language in Singapore and more broadly to our understanding of multilingualism and the sociolinguistics of writing Translation and Linguistic Hybridity Susanne Klinger, 2014-12-05 This volume outlines a new approach to the study of linguistic hybridity and its translation in cross cultural writing By building on concepts from narratology cognitive poetics stylistics and film studies it explores how linguistic hybridity contributes to the reader's construction of the textual agent's world view and how it can be exploited in order to encourage the reader to empathise with one world view rather than another and consequently how translation shifts in linguistic hybridity can affect the world view that the reader constructs Linguistic hybridity is a hallmark of cross cultural texts such as postcolonial migrant and travel writing as source and target language come into contact not only during the process of writing these texts but also often in the fictional or non fictional story world Hence translation is frequently not only the medium but also the object of representation By focussing on the relation between medium and object of representation the book complements existing research that so far has neglected this aspect The book thus not only contributes to current scholarly debates within and beyond the discipline of translation studies concerned with cross cultural writing and linguistic hybridity but also adds to the growing body of translation studies research concerned with questions of voice and point of view Race in Translation Robert Stam, Ella Shohat, 2012-05-28 While the term culture wars often designates the heated arguments in the English speaking world spiraling around race the canon and affirmative action in fact these discussions have raged in diverse sites and languages Race in Translation charts the transatlantic traffic of the debates within and between three zones the U S France and Brazil Stam and Shohat trace the literal and figurative translation of these multidirectional intellectual debates seen most recently in the emergence of postcolonial studies in France and whiteness studies in Brazil The authors also interrogate an ironic convergence whereby rightist politicians like Sarkozy and Cameron join hands with some leftist intellectuals like Benn Michaels and Bourdieu in condemning multiculturalism and identity politics At once a report from various fronts in the culture wars a mapping of the germane literatures and an argument about methods of reading the cross border movement of ideas the book constitutes a major contribution to our understanding of the Diasporic and the Transnational Sliding Stop B. Bramblett, 2004-10 Wade Lawson made one run down and sliding stop looking back over his horse's haunches at perfect elevens tracked in the soft dirt Finally he had the horse to take him to the finals of the National Reining Horse Association Futurity When his sons and their friend a young veterinarian student uncover a plot that rocks the Quarter Horse industry Wade is forced to re-examine his priorities and his own need to love and be loved When I Am Italian Joanna Clapps Herman, 2019-10-22 My ancestral Italian village in America was in Waterbury Connecticut In this sentence Joanna Clapps Herman raises the central question of this book To what extent can a person born outside of Italy be considered Italian The granddaughter of Italian immigrants who arrived in the United States in the early 1900s Herman takes a complicated and nuanced look at the question of to whom and to which culture she ultimately belongs Sometimes the Italian part of her identity her Italianit feels so aboriginal as to be inchoate inexpressible Sometimes it finds its expression in the rhythms of daily life Sometimes it is embraced and enhanced at others it feels attenuated If like me Herman writes you are from one of Italy s overseas colonies at least some of this Italianit will be in your skin bones and heart other pieces have to be understood considered called to ourselves through study travel reading Some of it is just longing How do we know which pieces are which Reapers of the Dust Lois Phillips Hudson, 1984 Lois Phillips Hudson is recognized as a major chronicler of America s agricultural heartland during the grim years of the Great Depression Reapers of the Dust now reprinted for a new generation of readers vividly evokes that difficult time From Hudson s childhood in North Dakota spring these unusual moving stories of simple joyful days of continuing battles with hostile elements and of a family s new life as migrant workers on the West Coast Hudson writes with grace and beauty and an abiding understanding of the meaning of those bitter tragic years Chicago Tribune These tales are to discomfit civilization in the tradition of personal accounts of the settling of the West by such writers as Mari Sandoz Wallace Stegner and Walter Van Tilburg Clark The Nation For the Love of a Butterfly John Christopher, 2012-08-31 John and Brea have lived very different lives His began as a near orphan in New York City where he became involved with and practically raised by the mob accepted as a man of honor by his fellow mobsters young and old His involvement in an incident one resulting in the death of his childhood friend lands him in prison He now wears not only some physical scars he carries a consuming agony and guilt over this night that took the life of his friend Brea Rhodes is a golden girl a sweetheart of Hollywood A famous starlet she is swarmed by rumor hungry paparazzi despite her success however theres something sad about the young beauty After his release from prison John accepts an offer from a senior fellow mobster and also fatherly figure to John to head out west and tend to a faltering businesshe seemingly by chance runs into Brea one day at a deli He also makes the acquaintance of enigmatic Hollywood agent to the stars named Gabe Something about John interests Gabe and Gabe invites John to a fancy celebrity gala hes hosting Brea also happens to attend and soon John and Brea find they have more in common than they imagined Their love affair is rapid and passionate They cant get enough of each other and John feels the need to keep her protected from his past and from the paparazzi Soon turmoil resulting from the death of his fatherly senior mobster back east calls John home He must now choose between the life he once lived and the life he hopes to start with Brea What will his final alliance be and will John be able to protect his butterfly from the oncoming storm FOR THE LOVE OF A BUTTERFLY is a story of love compassion divine beauty and divine redemption It is a heartfelt tale of love with philosophical undertones that contemplate good and evil right and wrong pain sacrifice loneliness and the divinity found in sincerity found in truth

Pitching to the Corners Don August, Mark Knudson, 2024-09-23 Most professional baseball players hang up their spikes for good after their time in the major or minor leagues Don August chose a different path In 1989 August was the Milwaukee Brewers Opening Day starting pitcher The year before he went 13 7 and finished fourth in the balloting for American League Rookie of the Year He was the Brewers Ace and then suddenly he wasn't By 1992 August was a free agent looking for an opportunity that no big league team was willing to offer After playing winter ball in Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic he signed to play in Mexico After refusing to be a replacement player during the Major League Baseball lockout in 1994 he continued his career in Taiwan learning new languages earning multiple awards making game show experiences and surviving earthquakes gambling scandals and a hurricane After five years August left Taiwan and ended up in Europe pitching his team to the Italian League title This book is the complete autobiography of a singular baseball player with a storied international career to which few players can lay claim

Love at First Snow Tanya Hanson, 2023-11-01 When Elaine Martin first sets eyes on former bull rider Alex Kennedy her heart says he belongs right here with her on her Colorado ranch Someday But her faith is in tatters and she can't soften her heart When her vagabond uncle seems to have made shady arrangements that may cause her and her mother to lose the ranch Elaine digs in to her lack of faith and distrust in people No matter how much she wants to love Alex she's not sure she can let him in Can Alex's trust in God help to restore her own Through Alex's gift of encouragement comfort and strength will Elaine learn to love again
