Subsequent use key (4)

- Press the button (4) → Fig. 14 and key in the key slot.

Unlocking

The two keyrings that come as standard with the vehicle are used as follows. If the vehicle is unlocked using button (2) → Fig. 14 outside of the range of the remote control system, the door is unlocked. The vehicle is automatically locked again and the safe opening system, air and theft alarm system is reactivated. This function is intended to prevent the vehicle being unlocked unintentionally.

In addition, when the car is unlocked, the door is adjustable (see) and interior mirrors (see) are positioned. The mirror assigned to this key. The stored setting of door lock and system (see) is restored.

Locking

The two (see) keys must be used to confirm that the vehicle has been correctly locked.

If the doors or trunk lid remain open after the vehicle has been locked, the key signal light in the front centering light must flash.

WARNING

If the car is locked from the outside and the information system is activated, there will not be any sound in the car or the alarm will not be triggered. The sound of activation (locking) is not. The sound (lock) is not to be used for communication with the vehicle in emergency situations.

NOTE

A key operates the remote control when the doors and trunk lid are closed and the vehicle is parked.

If the car is being automatically opened, the car, the button (2) of the remote control must be pressed before the car is started. The car will not start. Should this happen, press the vehicle button (2) of the remote control.

Signal transmission

If the vehicle cannot be unlocked by pressing the remote control system then it is recommended that the code in the key and the code in the car is used as a backup system. This can occur when the button on the remote control key is not used in a number of times outside of the operating range of the equipment or the battery on the remote control is replaced.

The correct key location is indicated in the table below.

A press of the button on the remote control key

A pressing of the button means that the door will unlock with the key within 1 m.
