today Author and narrator Anne starts the book with stories of the myths and legends lying behind the country's past and recounts many memories from her childhood in Burma She also gives a key insight into its politics history and geography and reproduces a vivid first hand account of the devastating trek from Burma to India to escape the Japanese occupation written in the mid 1940s Her husband shared her interest in Burma having served there in the Indian army and some of his memories are included As Aung San Suu Kyi takes her rightful seat in parliament and Myanmar re emerges onto the world stage after many decades of exclusion Bewitched by Burma gives a unique insight into the country's complex past The book will appeal equally to today's travellers and business people to families of servicemen who served there and to those interested in the early life of the church and even in the introduction of Girlguiding

with their own questions in the wake of a loved one's death Foreword Reviews INDIES Book of the Year Award in Grief Grieving Finalist 2023 Army, 1976 War Letters Of Edmond Genet : The First American Aviator Killed Flying The Stars And Stripes Edmond Charles Clinton Genet, 2014-06-13 Edmond Genet from Ossining New York was the first American flier to die in the First World War after the United States declared war against Germany shot down by anti aircraft artillery on April 17 1917 Genet was the great great grandson of Edmond Charles Genet also known as Citizen Genet the French Ambassador to the United States shortly before the French Revolution who is mostly remembered for being the cause of an international incident known as the Citizen Genet Affair Edmond Genet sailed for France at the end of January 1915 to join the French Foreign Legion while still technically on leave from the US Navy He never arranged to be formally relieved of his responsibility to the Navy before joining the Lafayette Escadrille on January 22 1917 This decision weighed heavily on him as time wore on since he could be classified as a deserter because the US was not yet formally in the war and his involvement in the Escadrille was therefore not an official assignment by the US military He was particularly celebrated since it was known that he was the descendant of Citizen Genet As the prospect of American involvement in the war grew he became both increasingly worried and hopeful that his participation in the Escadrille would not be affected by the American entry into the war and sought the help of prominent Americans in France to help him straighten out his status Ironically he died shortly after the formal entry of the US into the war before the issue of his status could be dealt with Although other Americans had died as part of the Escadrille he was the first one to do so after the US formally declared war on the Central powers This made him the first official American casualty of the war despite the fact that the US had not yet had time to organize or send any actual troops to Europe He was 20 years old at the time of his death Wiki Alfgar the Dane A. D. Crake, 2023-10-20 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 Embodied Expression in Popular Music Timothy Koozin, 2024-03-18 Theory in popular music has historically tended to approach musical processes of rhythm harmony counterpoint and form as abstractions without very directly engaging the intimate connection between the performer and instrument in popular music performance Embodied Expression in Popular Music illuminates under researched aspects of music theory in popular music studies by situating musical analysis in a context of embodied movement in vocal and instrumental performance Author Timothy Koozin offers a performance based analytical methodology that progresses from basic idiomatic gestures to gestural combinations and interactions with large scale design to broader interpretive strategies that engage with theories of embodiment the musical topic and narrative The book examines artistic practices in popular song that draw from a vast range of stylistic sources including rock blues folk soul funk fusion and hip hop as well as European classical and African American gospel musical traditions Exploring the interrelationships in how we create hear and understand music through the body Koozin demonstrates how a focus on body instrument interaction can illuminate musical structures while leveling implied hierarchies of cultural value He provides detailed analysis of artists creative strategies in singing and playing their instruments probing how musicians represent subjectivities of gender race and social class in shaping songs and whole albums Tracing connections from foundational blues gospel and rock musicians to current rap artists he clarifies how inferences of musical topic and narrative are part of a larger creative process in strategically positioning musical gestures By engaging with songs by female artists and artists of color Koozin also challenges the methodological framing of traditional theory scholarship As a contribution to work on embodiment and meaning in music this study of popular song explores how the situated and engaged body is active in listening performing and the formation of musical cultures as it provides a means by which we understand our own bodies in relation to the world The Living Church ,1963
