12 Rules for Christian Activists Ellen Loudon, 2020-04-30 If you've ever browsed the self-help sections of any bookshop you'd be forgiven for thinking that all we need to do in order to have a better life is to work hard take exercise and get thin Yet Christian activism calls us to a bigger vision of what life is for It dares to suggest that Christians change the world for the better In 12 Rules for Christian Activists Ellen Loudon and a host of contributors present 12 accessible and practical principles to encourage a new generation to create a movement for positive social change Each chapter combines clear theological insight with inspiring stories told by activists and practitioners including Naomi Maynard activist researcher Richard Peers spiritual director Angus Ritchie Director Centre for Theology and Community and Nadine Daniel Church of England National Refugee Coordinator

What God's Up To on Planet Earth? Mark J. Keown, 2011-05-07 Have you ever wondered Why am I here What's gone wrong with the world What is the answer How will it all end What do I have to do to know God What's God up to on Planet Earth offers a no strings attached presentation of the Christian message written for those who are seeking answers to questions like these Mark Keown gives a compelling vision of a loving God whose desire is the restoration of the whole world The book focuses on the individual person and how he or she fits into this inspiring vision It is a must read for those seeking to understand the Christian faith more

Thomas Merton: God's Messenger on the Road towards a New World Paul R. Dekar, 2021-06-02 Thomas Merton God's Messenger on the Road towards a New World highlights the contribution of the best selling North American writer between the Second World War and 1968 The Cistercian monk called people to act justly love kindness and walk humbly By his critique of technology a major impediment for people to follow Jesus by his writing on contemplative prayer by his interfaith outreach and through his witness against racism war and degradation of nature Merton still matters This book uses Micah 6:8 to organize Merton's focus on justice lovingkindness and humility as well as his dialogue with Rachel Carson Ernesto Cardinal Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr Thich Nhat Hahn and others

The New Conspirators Tom Sine, 2009-10-25 If you have faith as small as a mustard seed Jesus says in the Gospel of Matthew nothing will be impossible for you That sounds good but does it work in a world where seeds are genetically altered by an impatient few and hard to come by for countless others In a world where the gulf between the very rich and the profoundly poor is constantly growing can a mustard seed faith make any difference And can such a little bit of faith be sustained in a world whose future is so uncertain on so many fronts Tom Sine says yes and he has the audacity to try to prove it in his latest book In The New Conspirators Tom surveys the landscape of creative Christianity where streams of renewal are flowing freely from diverse sources The emerging church Contemporary monastic movements The missional church The mosaic movement Individuals and communities of faith are coalescing in and drawing energy from these four streams to retrofit the church as it leads serves and gives witness to the kingdom of God in the turbulent times facing us Read the book and you'll want to and be prepared to join God's conspiracy to create a better future

New Monasticism and the Transformation of American Evangelicalism Wes Markofski, 2015 In New Monasticism and the Transformation of American Evangelicalism Wes Markofski combines vivid ethnographic storytelling and incisive theoretical analysis to introduce readers to the fascinating and unexplored terrain of the burgeoning neo monastic evangelical movement

The Other Journal: Marxism The Other Journal, 2013-10-01 The literary critic and Marxist philosopher Fredric Jameson has said It is easier to imagine the end of the world than to imagine the end of capitalism The military social and political effects of capitalism are felt everywhere across the planet and even as we acknowledge the negative effects the imbalances of power the imperialist exploitations the social alienation we are captivated by its message of self sufficiency and success In this issue The Other Journal examines the potentially surprising intersections of Marxism with Christianity the ways in which this nexus of thinking and faith may help us contend with and recognize the powers of the market The issue features essays and reviews by Daniel Colucciello Barber Luke Bretherton Kevein Hargaden Paul Dafydd Jones D L Mayfield W Travis McMaken Christina McRorie Thomas J Millay Silas Morgan and David Schmidt an interview by Timothy McGee with Joerg Rieger fiction by Alex McCauley creative nonfiction by Jonathan Hiskes poetry by Brett Foster Elizabeth Myhr and Hannah Faith Notess and art by Steve Bakker and Benjamin Violet

Catholics and Evangelicals for the Common Good Ronald J. Sider, Dr. John Borelli, 2018-11-07 For centuries evangelical Protestants and Catholics have hurled harsh epithets at each other But that has changed dramatically in the last forty years In 1960 many prominent evangelicals opposed John Kennedy for president because he was a Catholic Today Catholics and evangelicals work together on many issues of public policy This book records one important process in this transformation In 2004 the board of The National Association of Evangelicals NAE the largest representative body of evangelicals in the US unanimously approved For the Health of the Nation as the official public policy document for its public policy efforts representing 30 million evangelicals When scholars read this new ground breaking document they quickly realized there was widespread agreement between the NAE's official public policy document and the official public policy positions of American Catholics The result was a series of annual meetings held at Georgetown University and Eastern University that brought together prominent Catholic and Evangelical scholars and public policy specialists to explore the extent of the common ground This book reports on that dialogue and its contribution to the increasing Catholic evangelical cooperation

Longing for Spring Elaine A. Heath, Scott Kisker, 2010-01-01 Delving into the widespread contemporary longing for a more serious and communal experience of Christianity this book provides important theoretical underpinnings and casts a vision for a new monasticism within the Wesleyan tradition Elaine Heath and Scott Kisker call for the planting of neo monastic churches which embody the Wesleyan vision of holiness in postmodern contexts This book also points toward some vital shifts that are necessary in theological education in order to equip pastors to lead such communities Longing for Spring helps Wesleyans of all stripes understand the theory and praxis necessary for planting neo monastic communities as a new model of the church that is particularly important in the postmodern context The authors write in an engaging conversational style that is conversant with postmodern culture yet thoroughly informed by critical research Heath and Kisker boldly challenge the imagination of the church both within and beyond Wesleyan traditions to consider the possibility of revitalizing the church through the new monasticism

Missional. Monastic. Mainline. Elaine A. Heath, Larry Duggins, 2014-01-30 Here is the long awaited volume that provides both the theoretical foundations and practical guidance for developing new monastic and missional communities in contexts that are theologically progressive racially and economically diverse and multicultural This book contains the wisdom and perspectives of people who live and serve in missional new monastic communities in United Methodist and other mainline traditions and it describes new forms of theological education that are emerging to resource a new generation of Christian leaders Heath and Duggins challenge Methodists Lutherans Episcopalians Presbyterians and other Christians to reach into their own robust mainline heritage for resources to develop small intentional communities that practice a rigorous life of prayer hospitality and justice

Pentecostal Perspectives on Social Justice Thomas U. Kurt, 2025-06-10 The beginnings of the Pentecostal movement were characterized by charismatic gifts and an extraordinary missionary dynamic At the same time early Pentecostals stood out from their social environment for their liberal practices on race and women's issues and for their pacifism. In a world characterized by violence, oppression and exploitation, the question of justice is crucial for the future of this world. At the same time, for Pentecostals, the question of the future of this world is closely linked to the kingdom of God. This book explores whether there is a common denominator in Pentecostal social ethics, what that denominator consists of, and what its theological categories are. To answer these questions, it examines four representatives of the global Pentecostal church who have made prominent contributions in the field of social ethics. The results are then discussed in a dialogue with Jürgen Moltmann, one of the most prominent voices in systematic theology for social justice and the liberation of the oppressed.

The Road That I Must Walk Darrin W. Snyder
Belousek, 2015-02-26
How much of myself and my stuff must I give up to follow Jesus? How does belonging to a faith community shape being a Christian? How do I walk in faith with friends whose faith is unclear or uncertain? What gives Christians hope in the face of power politics? Can I be pro-life and decry war too? How do I make peace amidst the wrongs of the world? If you wonder about such questions, this book is for you. The Road That I Must Walk represents the author's own wrestling with the call and cost of discipleship across a decade. Rather than an academic attempt to define or describe discipleship, these are simply the words of a disciple, one who has sought to walk in the way of Jesus. Arising from various circumstances and responding to various concerns, the several pieces collected here comprise a sketchbook of ethical reflections, biblical meditations, and spiritual ponderings drawn from one person's journey of following Jesus.

Go Deep Doris Kizinna, 2009-09-04
So you're involved in youth ministry. How do you lead? How do you know yourself and keep yourself connected? What personal practices do you embrace? How do you optimize your time with youth so that they and you may come to know God more fully? What resources might you use for practical help? Where would you find these ideas? Go Deep Open Doris Kizinna's book and read about how to prepare and ground yourself as youth leader in your personal spiritual practice. Then, using practices drawn from many traditions and designed to open hearts and minds to an all-encompassing wonder of the Holy One, engage and mentor youth on the path of Christian spirituality. Go Deep offers inspiration and practical tools to youth leaders who want to develop and deepen their youth ministry, both for themselves and for the youth they minister to. The book is divided into two sections: Part 1 addresses the leader, and Part 2 describes the various spiritual practices. Part 2 also includes prayer practices to engage the senses of written and spoken word, of creativity of movement, and of body of compassion, of community of worship and song.

Plunging into the Kingdom Way Tim Dickau, 2011-01-01
What practices might a community of faith take up that will bear witness to the alternative world Jesus envisions and calls us towards? That is the question that Grandview Calvary Baptist Church, an initially small and fragile group of Christ followers, has kept asking over the last twenty years. Along the way, this small group has spawned a vibrant community of faith that has traveled along four trajectories towards a shared life in community, radical hospitality, justice for the least, and confession leading to transformation. In a culture where individualism, consumerism, injustice, and autonomy shape us all, these practices have re shaped not only the people of this church but also the neighborhood they inhabit in the East side of Vancouver British Columbia For anyone wanting to recover ancient but newly shaped practices of the first disciples Plunging into the Kingdom Way offers renewed hope By relating their story in conversation with a host of theologians sociologists and philosophers Tim Dickau sparks the imagination for how you and your friends your community or your church can live out the radical vision of Jesus in your neighborhood today Plunge in and you will discover renewed hope that you can actually follow the way of Jesus today

The Limits of Hospitality Jessica Wroblewski, 2012-04-01 Practicing hospitality is central to building a civil society not to mention living a Christian life It can be enriching and joy filled but it can also be profoundly demanding and sometimes even dangerous In The Limits of Hospitality Jessica Wroblewski explores the ethical questions surrounding the practice of hospitality particularly hospitality that is informed by Christian theological commitments While there is no algorithm that distinguishes between ethically legitimate and illegitimate boundaries the variety of circumstances in which hospitality is relevant and the nature of hospitality itself make advocating firm and fixed boundaries difficult How much more so for Christians for whom the practice of hospitality should be a manifestation of agape a participation in God's eschatological welcome extended to all people through Jesus Christ Are limits to hospitality then merely a regrettable concession to our finite and fallen condition Wroblewski offers a rich theological reflection that will interest anyone who has a role in the practice of hospitality in community Whether such communities are families households churches educational institutions or nation states

Disarming the Church Eric A. Seibert, 2018-04-11 If Christians follow the Prince of Peace why do they often behave so violently What can be done to transform the church so that it looks more like Jesus Eric Seibert explores these questions in this important and timely study He builds a biblical and practical case for living nonviolently in all areas of life and urges Christians to reexamine their most fundamental attitudes toward violence warfare and killing Through true stories and careful analysis Seibert demonstrates that it is possible to resolve conflict correct injustice and stop oppression without resorting to violence Many nonviolent alternatives are discussed throughout the book alternatives that can be used in a wide range of situations from dealing with an unwanted intruder at home to removing a dictator from power In a world filled with so much violence hate and fear alternatives like these are desperately needed This book offers hope that a better way is possible one that has the potential to transform the church and change the world So read on and join in

The Color of Grace Bethany Haley Williams, 2015-03-03 The pain of a middle class white woman in rural America and that of war ravaged children in Africa find common ground in their shame their self loathing and their hopelessness Author Bethany Haley is the woman behind the non profit organization Exile International which nurtures rescued children innocent little boys who are forced to kill maim and rape and defenseless young girls who are abducted as sex slaves for the army The Kony 2012 youtube sensation which received over 100 million views in one week brought these horrors to light With a foreword by Katie Davis of Kisses from Katie Bethany shares that the steps that led to healing and hope in her own life also transform the desperate lives of children an ocean away
