The Knowledge Of The Holy:

The Knowledge of the Holy A.W. Tozer, 2022-01-01 A W Tozer maintained that a theologian's message must be both timeless and timely a sentiment borne out in the fact that his writing on worship still acts as an urgent warning today Tozer is primarily concerned with the loss of the concept of majesty from the popular mind and more importantly from the thinking of the church He sees the church as having surrendered her once lofty concept of God not deliberately but little by little and without her knowledge With this comes a further loss of religious awe and a sense of the divine presence of an appropriate spirit of worship and of our ability to withdraw inwardly to meet God in adoring silence Tozer addresses this problem to go back to the causes of the decline and to understand and correct the errors that have given rise to our devotional poverty It is impossible to keep our moral practices sound and our inward attitudes right while our idea of God is erroneous or inadequate he tells us What is needed is a restoration of our knowledge of the holy confronts earth with heaven and brings eternity to bear upon time The messenger of Christ though he speaks from God must also as the Quakers used to say speak to the condition of his hearers otherwise he will speak a language known only to himself His message must be not only timeless but timely He must speak to his own generation The message of this book does not grow out of these times but it is appropriate to them It is called forth by a condition which has existed in the Church for some years and is steadily growing worse I refer to the loss of the concept of majesty from the popular religious mind The Church has surrendered her once lofty concept of God and has substituted for it one so low so ignoble as to be utterly unworthy of thinking worshipping men This she has done not deliberately but little by little and without her knowledge and her very unawareness only makes her situation all the more tragic
