Wilson, 2008-11-15 Polio was the most dreaded childhood disease of twentieth century America Every summer during the 1940s and 1950s parents were terrorized by the thought that polio might cripple their children They warned their children not to drink from public fountains to avoid swimming pools and to stay away from movie theaters and other crowded places Whenever and wherever polio struck hospitals filled with victims of the virus Many experienced only temporary paralysis but others faced a lifetime of disability Living with Polio is the first book to focus primarily on the personal stories of the men and women who had acute polio and lived with its crippling consequences Writing from personal experience polio survivor Daniel J Wilson shapes this impassioned book with the testimonials of more than one hundred polio victims focusing on the years between 1930 and 1960 He traces the entire life experience of the survivors from the alarming diagnosis all the way to the recent development of post polio syndrome a condition in which the symptoms of the disease may return two or three decades after they originally surfaced Living with Polio follows every physical and emotional stage of the disease the loneliness of long separations from family and friends suffered by hospitalized victims the rehabilitation facilities where survivors spent a full year or more painfully trying to regain the use of their paralyzed muscles and then the return home where they were faced with readjusting to school or work with the aid of braces crutches or wheelchairs while their families faced the difficult responsibilities of caring for and supporting a child or spouse with a disability Poignant and gripping Living with Polio is a compelling history of the enduring physical and psychological experience of polio straight from the rarely heard voices of its survivors Exciting Stories of My Personal Brushes with Greatness: Memoirs of Another Time (1922 to 1956) Charles Austin Sherman III, 2011-03-14 Born in 1922 Charles Austin Sherman has written a book about his experiences that few people can ever claim His mother was a famous American actress of the time As a child he lived in Manhattan and summered on Long Island After his parents divorce his mother met and married Colonel John Bigelow Dodge an American educated British citizen who saved her life while she was swimming and was caught in a rogue current Dodge Steve McQueen starred as Col Dodge in the movie The Great Escape was a war hero and a good friend of Winston Churchill John Dodge moved his new family to London where they were to stay And so the stage was set for meeting famous people and history makers People who cross the pages of this book include Winston Churchill Franklin D Roosevelt Adolf Hitler Herman Goering Tito Mussolini's son in law Ernest Hemingway Marlene Dietrich General George C Marshall King Edward VIII Wallis Simpson and Eva Peron Anyone who is interested in the period and in the wars that tore nations apart will find this personal account to be fascinating reading Mr Sherman continues to live a charmed life in Tampa Florida In the Company of Heroes: the Memoirs of Captain Richard M. Memoirs from the Night Greg Medlin, 2011-04-13

Memoirs from the Night started out as my diary of each hunt our eight-year-old Redbone coon hound named Red and I took during the 2008-09 raccoon hunting season in Nebraska. It details what we experience together in the woods each night. It became the story of my bond with a special hound that discovered his passion and through which rekindled my own passion for night hunting that I had back in high school 25 years ago. All these hunts take place within a 45-minute drive outside of Omaha, Nebraska.

Memoirs of a Deployed Airman Patrick B. Monahan, 2009

Almost as if it were a dream, day number 360 came and I was transported into another world. The flights were long, but within just a couple of days, I found myself back at my original starting point, Salt Lake City, Utah. Before arriving in Salt Lake City, though, I was greeted by my parents and my in-laws at Baltimore Washington International (BWI) airport. As I scrambled through the baggage claim area and customs, I made my way towards my release from the regimented deployment world. Both sets of parents were poised and ready to greet me, and my friends returning from overseas. Upon catching a glimpse of me, they popped out of their seats and began waving small American flags in my general direction. It was very nice to see them, and it was a nice patriotic sight. I arrived at the airport at approximately midnight, and I was hungry, so we all went out to eat at an all-night diner in Arlington, Virginia. It was about 0300 in the morning when we finished up our meal and headed back to my in-laws' house to sleep. I caught an 1800 flight the next day, which brought me to Salt Lake City at approximately 2300 that night. The second leg of my flight from Phoenix, Arizona, was very comfortable and relaxing. Wearing my DCUs, one of the flight attendants decided to move me to First Class. Not only did this provide me with more comfort, but it also provided me an opportunity to sit next to her husband, who had joined her on the flight. I had a really nice conversation with the flight attendant's husband throughout the flight. Then, as we landed in Salt Lake City, the flight attendant announced to all of the people on the flight that I had just returned home from the war in Afghanistan. Everyone began to clap, and I received the honor of being the first person off of the airplane. I then began my mad dash towards my family. People noticed that I was in uniform, holding two little bears, one for each of my girls.

and I was practically running so everyone pretty much got out of my way Within minutes I saw Melanie holding a Welcome Home poster and my girls waving small American flags It was a very impressive and precious sight I scooped up both of my daughters in my hands and I embraced the whole family The nice thing was that Suzanna didn't cry everyone seemed to at least have some idea who I was this time In fact Annabelle wouldn't hardly let me go out of her sight for the next few days I learned several days later that Annabelle had a lot of trouble sleeping while I was gone which was attributed to me not being there and her not knowing when I would come home This latter fact is what changed my mindset from wanting to go back to the combat zone any time soon While I was gone I made the most of my deployment and I even learned to enjoy many aspects of the adventure However when you see the effects of being gone on the homefront nothing else seems to matter but family Would I go again Absolutely But I would certainly wait for my number to come up or for someone to come asking for my assistance a little more passionately When I arrived at my actual home in the Ogden Utah area I quickly noticed several decorations on the property I hadn't expected such extravagance but I was certainly impressed by what I saw As I walked around the house and the yard in my civilians clothes the next day surrounded by my family I finally felt like I was home
