For the Love of Knitting Kari Cornell, One surviving cotton sock tells us that the Egyptians were knitting as long ago as the first millennium AD Tenderly preserved shawls and sweaters bespeak our great grandmothers handiwork And colorful strands of yarn escaping from a basket in the corner show that the tradition lives on with us That tradition celebrated in the stories and essays in this book knits together a world of warmth and memory wisdom and camaraderie These writings sometimes amusing sometimes moving always entertaining comprise a charming scrapbook reflecting the myriad cultural and historical aspects of knitting Ranging from the days of World War II to our own time they include offerings by Jamaica Kincaid Melanie Falick Elizabeth Zimmermann Meg Swansen Susan Gordon Lydon Pam Allen Lela Nargi Perri Klass Teva Durham and many others Artwork by Solveig Hisdal fiber artists Debbie New and Karen Searle and photographer Chris Hartlove along with historical photographs vintage advertising and pattern booklets brings the color and textures of these stories to vibrant life Whether you ply knitting needles yourself or simply appreciate the art this collection will enfold you in all the softness warmth and beauty of knitting today and yesterday

War Imagery in Women's Textiles Deborah A. Deacon, Paula E. Calvin, 2014-07-02 Through the centuries women have used textiles to express their ideas and political opinions creating items of utility that also function as works of art Beginning with medieval European embroideries and tapestries such as the Bayeux Tapestry this book examines the ways in which women around the world have recorded the impact of war on their lives using traditional fabric art forms of knitting sewing quilting embroidery weaving basketry and rug making Works from the United States Canada Latin America Asia the Middle and Near East and Oceania are analyzed in terms of content and utility and cultural and economic implications for the women who created them are discussed Traditional women s work served to document the upheaval in their lives and supplemented their family income By creating textiles that responded to the chaos of war women developed new textile traditions modified old traditions and created a vehicle to express their feelings Knit with Love Lisa Bogart,2011-10 Through stories tips and spiritual truths this book captures the joy of knitting and inspires readers to share their beautiful creations with those around them Forum ,2011 "Women and the Material Culture of Needlework and Textiles, 1750-1950" MaureenDaly Goggin,2017-07-05 Rejecting traditional notions of what constitutes art this book brings together essays on a variety of fiber arts to recoup women s artistic practices by redefining what counts as art Although scholars over the last twenty years have turned their attention to fiber arts redefining the conditions practices and products as art there is still much work to be done to deconstruct the stubborn patriarchal art craft binary With essays on a range of fiber art practices including embroidery knitting crocheting machine stitching rug making weaving and quilting this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly redefinition of women s relationship to creative activity Focusing on women as producers of cultural products and creators of social value the contributors treat women as active subjects and problematize their material practices and artifacts in the complex world of textiles Each essay also examines the ways in which needlework both performs gender and in turn constructs gender Moreover in concentrating on and theorizing material practices of textiles these essays reorient the study of fiber arts towards a focus on process the making of the object including the conditions under which it was made by whom and for what purpose as a way to rethink the fiber arts as social praxis War Stories David Bolton,2022-11-03 After listening to his mother in law talking about her experiences in the Second World War David Bolton set out to record the wartime memories of British women before it was too late Many of those he interviewed were child evacuees some were single mothers two were ambulance drivers and another was the girlfriend of an American GI killed on D Day Other women remembered their experiences working as a young doctor in a POW camp in a munitions factory filling shells or as a codebreaker at Bletchley Park War Stories archives the memories of over fifty women in their own words supplemented by memoirs and diary entries All tell their very personal war stories with honesty humour an amazing memory for detail and a boldness sometimes bordering on the confessional perhaps because this was their last chance to describe what it was really like to be female in those extraordinary times Popular Science ,1918-06 Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world The core belief that Popular Science and our readers share The future is going to be better and science and technology are the driving forces that will help make it better Canadian craft and museum practice, 1900-1950 Sandra Flood,2001-01-01 This book presents the first overview of craft activity as an integral part of Canadian culture between 1900 and 1950 and reviews the tone and focus of contemporaneous writing about craft It explores the diversity of all aspects of craft including makers production organization education and government involvement Published in English Smithsonian Makers Workshop Smithsonian

Institution,2020 Explores the history of crafts cooking decorating and gardening in America with projects included in each section Includes visual timelines profiles of important creators in each area and insight into the evolution of the domestic arts
