Beckett's Art of Salvage Julie Bates, 2017-04-19 Introduction Miscellaneous Rubbish Relics Heirlooms Props Treasure Conclusion Writing God and the Self Sharon Jebb, 2011-05-01 Contemporary literature has for several decades and in various guises been dominated by questions of identity and the self It has been forgotten that until the Enlightenment theological reflection emphasized the close connectedness of the self with God knowledge of God is essential to knowledge of the self and vice versa correct knowledge of the self is a necessary correlate to true knowledge of God This has been called the double knowledge Writing God and the Self examines two literary texts and lives as representative of two antithetical positions The first represented by Samuel Beckett s life and his Three Novels is that the self is independent of God the second represented by C S Lewis and Till We Have Faces is that God and the self are intimately connected Beckett s radical apophaticism about God is shown to be tied to his extreme apophaticism about the self whereas Lewis s sense of selfhood is demonstrated to be integrally connected to his sense of a personal and self transcending God Other voices Augustine Teresa of Avila Charles Taylor Rowan Williams Mark McIntosh and Vladimir Lossky join the chorus of theologians psychologists and other thinkers past and present that contribute to this exploration of what Christian theology has to say about the insistent problem of the self Taken together all these voices articulate a powerful vision of selfhood in relation to God that is desperately needed today Ex-changes Edyta Lorek-Jezińska, Katarzyna Więckowska, 2013-02-14 Ex changes Comparative Studies in British and American Cultures is a collection of articles exploring a variety of cultural texts such as fiction film drama poetry and critical thought in order to present the on going transfer of ideas and processes of complementation that characterise cultural re production The analyses gathered in the volume document the shifting ways of thinking about individual identity and social formations describe the mobility of definitions of gender and nationality and address the changing relations between various genres and disciplines through adaptation and re writing All of these preoccupations can be located within the broad domain of Comparative Studies drawing comparisons across time space societies cultures genres media and disciplines The scope of the themes covered by the essays comprising this volume not only confirms the significance of comparative studies in contemporary cultural research but also testifies to the validity of comparative methods both in individual critical analysis and the writing process Beneath the well defined divisions of comparative studies in their inter disciplinary preoccupations such as comparisons involved in translation adaptation cross cultural studies or relationships between various arts this volume exposes to what extent individual cultural texts are founded on comparative structures and concepts conceptualised through analogies changes and internal splits Beckett's Late Stage Rhys Tranter, 2018-02-28 Beckett s Late Stage reexamines the Nobel laureate s post war prose and drama in the light of contemporary trauma theory Through a series of sustained close readings the study demonstrates how the comings and goings of Beckett s prose unsettles the Western philosophical tradition it reveals how Beckett s live theatrical productions are haunted by the rehearsal of traumatic repetition and asks what his ghostly radio recordings might signal for twentieth century modernity Drawing from psychoanalytic and poststructuralist traditions Beckett's Late Stage explores how the traumatic symptom allows us to rethink the relationship between language meaning and identity after 1945 Samuel Beckett Angela B.
