Purveyor Of Enchantment:

Purveyor of Enchantment Marika Cobbold, 2012-03-15 A life lived in fear is a life half lived Clementine Hope's sister Ophelia is fond of quoting to her Clementine thirty something and newly divorced lives in a small Hampshire town teaching music and working on a collection of fairy tales left to her by her Great Aunt Elvira But mostly she worries She worries about the rising crime rate She worries about disease and illness about offending God and in the rare moments when she is at peace with Him about upsetting the man in the carpet shop or Mrs Challis who runs the caf where she meets with her friend Jessica Clementine enjoys as little of the life around her as any Sleeping Beauty Just as she thinks she has found love with Nathaniel Scott the son of her next door neighbour her fears cause her to lose him Then at a moment of a real crisis Clementine sees the destructive quality of her life and resolves to change and make amends To do so she must turn from victim to heroine slay her personal dragon of fears and phobias and rescue her own Prince Charming

The Purveyor of Enchantment Marika Cobbold, 1996 The Purveyor of Enchantment Marion CHESNEY, 1997 Frozen Music Marika Cobbold, 2012-03-15 Pride and Prejudice Scandinavian style Sunday Express _____ My name is Esther Fisher and I'm about to walk out on the only man I've ever loved Esther has been angry all her life angry with her impossible parents and at a world that just won't play by the rules Now working as a tabloid journalist she takes up the fight once more this time on behalf of a couple who are being evicted from their home to make room for an opera house The architect on the project is Swedish born Linus a successful yet dreamy man who is also trying to put his childhood anxieties behind him When Esther's professional integrity comes head to head with her growing friendship with Linus she begins to wonder if ultimately this is a fight with no winners _____ A warm funny novel Daily Mail Deliciously descriptive beneath its charm lie serious truths She Dreamy yet dextrous Observer

A Rival Creation Marika Cobbold, 2012-03-15 At thirty nine Liberty Turner mother of an illegitimate and nearly grown up son and daughter of a flamboyant father who had never grown up realised that she had no talent Once in more prosperous times her books had been published Now as relentless rejections pulverised her every effort she faced up to the whimsical truth that while she was absolutely bursting with the creative urge the talent just wasn't there But as she began to observe her friends and neighbours in the village of Tollymead not quite the idyllic community that everyone wished it was she noticed that there were different kinds of creations Evelyn Brooke her eccentric and idealistic neighbour chained herself to condemned oak trees and fought against polluters of the countryside The vicar resenting his congregation of middle class apparently well adjusted parishioners sought longingly for a real social problem to deal with Even Nancy Sanderson magistrate and secretary of the Women's League was eventually to revolt against her life style and create something of her own As Liberty stoically continued her progress through harvest lunches and creative writing classes she waited for a rival creation of her own to emerge and when Oscar Brooke moved into the village she thought perhaps she might have found it

Frederick Douglass and Herman Melville Robert S. Levine, Samuel Otter, 2012-09-01 Frederick

Douglass 1818 1895 and Herman Melville 1819 1891 addressed in their writings a range of issues that continue to resonate in American culture the reach and limits of democracy the nature of freedom the roles of race gender and sexuality and the place of the United States in the world Yet they are rarely discussed together perhaps because of their differences in race and social position Douglass escaped from slavery and tied his well received nonfiction writing to political activism becoming a figure of international prominence Melville was the grandson of Revolutionary War heroes and addressed urgent issues through fiction and poetry laboring in increasing obscurity In eighteen original essays the contributors to this collection explore the convergences and divergences of these two extraordinary literary lives Developing new perspectives on literature biography race gender and politics this volume ultimately raises questions that help rewrite the color line in nineteenth century studies Contributors Elizabeth Barnes College of William and Mary Hester Blum The Pennsylvania State University Russ Castronovo University of Wisconsin Madison John Ernest West Virginia University William Gleason Princeton University Gregory Jay University of Wisconsin Milwaukee Carolyn L Karcher Washington D C Rodrigo Lazo University of California Irvine Maurice S Lee Boston University Robert S Levine University of Maryland College Park Steven Mailloux University of California Irvine Dana D Nelson Vanderbilt University Samuel Otter University of California Berkeley John Stauffer Harvard University Sterling Stuckey University of California Riverside Eric J Sundquist University of California Los Angeles Elisa Tamarkin University of California Irvine Susan M Ryan University of Louisville David Van Leer University of California Davis Maurice Wallace Duke University Robert K Wallace Northern Kentucky University Kenneth W Warren University of Chicago

Irish Pride Sonja Massie,1999 The unique charm of the Irish shines through these 101 delightful essays celebrating Ireland s most extraordinary people events and cultural artifacts The Mediatization of Culture and Society Stig

Hjarvard,2013-03-12 Mediatization has emerged as a key concept to reconsider old yet fundamental questions about the role and influence of media in culture and society In particular the theory of mediatization has proved fruitful for the analysis of how media spread to become intertwined with and influence other social institutions and cultural phenomena like politics play and religion This book presents a major contribution to the theoretical understanding of the mediatization of culture and society This is supplemented by in depth studies of The mediatization of politics From party press to opinion industry The mediatization of religion From the faith of the church to the enchantment of the media The mediatization of play From bricks to bytes The mediatization of habitus The social character of a new individualism Mediatization represents a new social condition in which the media have emerged as an important institution in society at the same time as they have become integrated into the very fabric of social and cultural life Making use of a broad conception of the media as technologies institutions and aesthetic forms Stig Hjarvard considers how characteristics of both old and new media come to influence human interaction social institutions and cultural imaginations Deadlier Than the Male Michelle Lovric,1997 Allegory and Enchantment Jason Crawford,2017-01-19 What is modernity Where are modernity's points of origin Where are its boundaries And what lies beyond those boundaries Allegory and Enchantment explores these broad questions by considering the work of English writers at the threshold of modernity and by considering in particular the cultural forms these writers want to leave behind From the fourteenth to the seventeenth centuries many English writers fashion themselves as engaged in breaking away from an array of old idols magic superstition tradition the sacramental the medieval Many of these writers persistently use metaphors of disenchantment of awakening from a broken spell to describe their self consciously modern orientation toward a medieval past And many of them associate that repudiated past with the dynamics and conventions of allegory In the hands of the major English practitioners of allegorical narrative William Langland John Skelton Edmund Spenser and John Bunyan allegory shows signs of strain and disintegration The work of these writers seems to suggest a story of modern emergence in which medieval allegory with its search for divine order in the material world breaks down under the pressure of modern disenchantment But these four early modern writers also make possible other understandings of modernity Each of them turns to allegory as a central organizing principle for his most ambitious poetic projects Each discovers in the ancient forms of allegory a vital powerful instrument of disenchantment Each of them therefore opens up surprising possibilities that allegory and modernity are inescapably linked that the story of modern emergence is much older than the early modern period and that the things modernity has tried to repudiate the old enchantments are not as alien or as absent as they seem Shooting Butterflies Marika Cobbold,2011-05-15 This gripping and moving story is an honest chronicle of what happens to relationships over time and a sharp observation of one woman's emotional life The Times A perceptive and delicately written study of human relations and motivations painful funny and fresh which Cobbold has structured quite ingeniously building the story layer upon layer rather like a painting Observer By the time Grace is eighteen

she has been orphaned moved countries and lost touch with her only brother Talented awkward and a little fierce she can't help thinking that she's managed to lose anything she's ever loved So she decides to revisit her past in America and she's brought her camera she's going to catch these memories and pin them down to keep What she isn't expecting that summer in New Hampshire is to meet the love of her life Some years later now divorced and flourishing as a controversial photographer Grace lives alone she likes the fact that everything will be exactly where she left it Until Grace finds that she is quite literally being haunted by the past
