The Other Side Nazmun A. Akhter,2012-08 This fast moving story tells how life can slip out of the grip and take a complete different shape how the desperate rat race to achieve all these materialistic success forgetting the age old values that holds the society and ignoring all personal relationship or devotion or love that makes life worth living becomes futile It is also the story of young lives with boundless freedom and shapeless future with youthful whims and without any destination that ended up to be an easy prey of adventure and addiction only here the addiction is not drugs it was worse than that it was terrorism It is also a story of the definite realization which is certain to come in life at one stage Here in this story all the people are from a different society may be their concerns and approaches are slightly different but again life and its values are almost same in everywhere and in every time It s a story of life worth reading
