Locklin, 2024-05-01 For some four hundred years Hindus and Christians have been engaged in a public controversy about conversion and missionary proselytization especially in India and the Hindu diaspora Hindu Mission Christian Mission reframes this controversy by shifting attention from conversion to a wider interreligious study of mission as a category of thought and practice Comparative theologian Reid B Locklin traces the emergence of the nondualist Hindu teaching of Advaita Vedanta as a missionary tradition from the eighth century to the present day and draws this tradition into dialogue with contemporary proposals in Christian missiology As a descriptive study of the Chinmaya Mission the Ramakrishna Mission and other leading Advaita mission movements Hindu Mission Christian Mission contributes to a growing body of scholarship on transnational Hinduism As a speculative work of Christian comparative theology it develops key themes from this engagement for a new interreligious theology of mission and conversion for the twenty first century and beyond
