one morning by border officers acting on a tip off and despite having paid taxes for 28 years is suddenly cast into the detention system with no obvious means of escape An orphan whose entire life has been spent in slavery first on a Ghanaian farm then as a victim of trafficking writes to the Home Office for help only to be rewarded with a jail sentence and indefinite detention These are not fictions Nor are they testimonies from some distant brutal past but the frighteningly common experiences of Europe's new underclass its refugees While those with citizenship enjoy basic human rights like the right not to be detained without charge for more than 14 days people seeking asylum can be suspended for years in Kafkaesque uncertainty Here poets and novelists retell the stories of individuals who have direct experience of Britain's policy of indefinite immigration detention Presenting their accounts anonymously as modern day counterparts to the pilgrims stories in Chaucer's Canterbury Tales this book offers rare intimate glimpses into otherwise untold suffering Poems That Make Grown Women Cry Anthony Holden, Ben Holden, 2016-04-05 Following the success of their anthology Poems That Make Grown Men Cry father and son team Anthony and Ben Holden working with Amnesty International have asked the same revealing question of 100 remarkable women What poem has moved you to tears The poems chosen range from the eighth century to today from Rumi and Shakespeare to Sylvia Plath W H Auden to Carol Ann Duffy Pablo Neruda and Derek Walcott to Imtiaz Dharker and Warsan Shire Their themes range from love and loss through mortality and mystery war and peace to the beauty and variety of nature From Yoko Ono to Judi Dench Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie to Elena Ferrante Carol Ann Duffy to Kauai Hart Hemmings and Joan Baez to Nikki Giovanni this unique collection delivers private insights into the minds of women whose writing acting and thinking are admired around the world The Literary Review, 2012 The Economist, 1843 The Late-Career Novelist Hywel Dix, 2017-08-10 The first scholarly study of the phenomenon of the late career novel this book explores the ways in which bestselling contemporary novelists look back and respond to their earlier successes in their subsequent writings Exploring the work of major novelists such as Angela Carter V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie Ian McEwan Julian Barnes A S Byatt and Graham Swift The Late Career Novelist draws for the first time on social psychology and career construction theory to examine how the dynamics of a literary career play out in the fictional worlds of our best known novelists From here Hywel Dix develops and argues for a new mode of reading contemporary writing on the contexts of current literary culture The Anxious Triumph Donald Sassoon, 2019-06-27 A magnum opus an accessible and genuinely global history This is a book for today and tomorrow Financial Times Capitalist enterprise has existed in some form since ancient times but the globalization and dominance of capitalism as a system began in the 1860s when in different forms and supported by different political forces states all over the world developed their modern political frameworks the unifications of Italy and Germany the establishment of a republic in France the elimination of slavery in the American south the Meiji Restoration in Japan the emancipation of the serfs in Tsarist Russia This book magnificently explores how after the upheavals of industrialisation a truly global capitalism followed For the first time in the history of humanity there was a social system able to provide a high level of consumption for the majority of those who lived within its bounds Today capitalism dominates the world With wide ranging scholarship Donald Sassoon analyses the impact of capitalism on the histories of many different states and how it creates winners and losers by constantly innovating This chronic instability he writes is the foundation of its advance not a fault in the system or an incidental by product And it is this instability this constant churn which produces the anxious triumph of his title To control or alleviate such anxieties it was necessary to create a national community if necessary with colonial adventures to develop a welfare state to intervene in the market economy and to protect it from foreign competition Capitalists needed a state to discipline them to nurture them and to sacrifice a few to save the rest a state overseeing the war of all against all Vigorous argumentative surprising and constantly stimulating The Anxious Triumph gives a fresh perspective on all these questions and on its era It is a masterpiece by one of Britain s most engaging and wide ranging historians
