Supplying Custer The Powder River Supply Depot 1876:

Supplying Custer Gerald R. Clark, 2014 Blends archaeology and history to gather new insights into army life at a field supply depot used to support Custer's cavalry John Finerty Reports the Sioux War John Finerty, 2020-07-30 In War Path and Bivouac published in 1890 John Finerty 1846-1908 recalled the summer he spent following George Crook's infamous campaign against the Sioux in 1876. Historians have long surmised that Finerty's correspondence covering the campaign for the Chicago Times reappeared in its entirety in Finerty's celebrated book. But that turns out not to be the case as readers will discover in this remarkable volume. In print at last this collection of Finerty's letters and telegrams to his hometown newspaper written from the field during Crook's campaign conveys the full extent of the reporter's experience and observations during this time of great excitement and upheaval in the West. An introduction and annotations by Paul L. Hedren, a lifelong historian of the period, provide ample biographical and historical background for Finerty's account. Four times under fire giving as well as he got, Finerty reported on the action with the immediacy of an unfolding wartime story. To his riveting dispatches on the Rosebud and Slim Buttes battles, this collection adds accounts of the lesser-known Sibley scout and the tortures of the campaign trail penned by a keen-eyed newsman who rode at the front through virtually all of the action. Here too is an intimate look at the Black Hills gold rush and at principal towns like Deadwood and Custer City captured in the earliest moments of their colorful history. Hedren's introduction places Finerty not only on the scene in Wyoming, Montana, and Dakota during the Indian campaign but also in the context of battlefield journalism at a critical time in its evolution. Publication of this volume confirms John Finerty's outsized role in that historical moment. Montana, 2015

General Custer, Libbie Custer and Their Dogs Brian Patrick Duggan, 2019-03-11 General George Armstrong Custer and his wife Libbie Custer were wholehearted dog lovers. At the time of his death at Little Bighorn, they owned a rollicking pack of 40 hunting dogs including Scottish Deerhounds, Russian Wolfhounds, Greyhounds, and Foxhounds. Told from a dog owner's perspective, this biography covers their first dogs during the Civil War and in Texas, hunting on the Kansas and Dakota frontiers, entertaining tourist buffalo hunters including a Russian Archduke, English aristocrats, and P. T. Barnum, all of whom presented the general with hounds. Custer's attack on the Washita village when he was accused of strangling his own dogs and the 7th Cavalry's march to Little Bighorn, with an analysis of rumors about a Last Stand dog. The Custers' pack was rehomed after his death in the first national dog rescue effort. Well illustrated, the book includes an appendix giving depictions of the Custers' dogs in art, literature, and film. The Great Sioux Campaign of 1876, Day-by-Day Frederic C. Wagner III, 2021-12-08 Drawing on more than 22 years of research, this book presents an exhaustive chronology of the Great Sioux Campaign in three parts: the U.S. Seventh Cavalry's communications, decisions, and movements; October 15, 1875–June 21, 1876, are traced day by day; the three-day prelude to the Battle of Little Bighorn, hour by hour; and the battle itself, minute by minute. The separate actions of the several military commands and the Indians involved are narrated in coherent sequence. Archival intelligence summaries offer the reader fresh perspective on the events leading to the decisive Indian victory known as Custer's Last Stand
