industry to governments from India to the USA people are beginning to listen to the pain survivors have been living with forever Writing from her own experiences and those she has met through her podcast and her work as an activist Catriona Morton will approach topics of consent and education the mental and physical health of survivors the cultural shift concerning attitudes surrounding sexual violence the impact of politics and governmental cuts to survivors in the UK as well as the realities of subjects such as dating and reclaiming sexuality in the aftermath of sexual violence With unflinching honesty and surprising moments of humour Catriona wants to change the narrative around survivors and to force us to reconsider the ways in which we talk about surviving sexual violence

Goldstein,2008-09-07 A fascinating memoir about a Holocaust survivor s loss of and journey back to faith In 1939 Baruch Goldstein was a religiously observant adolescent resident of the Jewish community in Mlawka a town that was then in East Prussia After war broke out the Jewish community there was relatively sheltered as that region was incorporated into the German Reich rather than into the General Government the German run fragment of pre war Poland where conditions were harsh for everyone However in 1942 Goldstein was sent to Auschwitz where he stayed two and a half years His family was scattered all to their deaths but he survived the war barely For Decades I Was Silent is an account of life in a small Polish German town and provides information on the religious life of the Jewish citizens This book creates a direct sense of the random mystifying personal violence individuals felt at the hands of Germans not the anonymous industrial death machine but immediate face to face violence After the war Goldstein drifted as a refugee to UNRRA camps in Italy Over time young Goldstein had to face the fact that all of his extended family was lost and he had only the possibilities of Palestine or help from distant relatives in the United States as a future His American relatives urged him to enter the United States as a yeshiva student and eventually he became a rabbi and started a family As a young rabbinical student and then as a rabbi

Goldstein was forced to confront the events of the Holocaust and the damage done to his faith Breaking Borders
Alexander Harris, 2008-09 In 1939 Alexander Harris a teenager in Lodz Poland experienced the darkness of World War II and the Russian occupation of his native country He lived through a Soviet gulag and the battlefields of Germany but never let his spirit be broken He tells of friendship and betrayal war love and hate Separated from his family at a young age he triumphed over many obstacles including discrimination and torture Harris was thankful to arrive in the United States the cradle of freedom and land of opportunity in which he could begin his life anew Remaining steadfast in his determination to help overcome ignorance misconceptions and prejudices that divide people and nations he worked in the tourism profession to do his part to abolish the barriers between hostile worlds His father's words When you come to a border cross it If you cannot cross it go around it If you can't go around it break it inspired him throughout his life providing the motivation he needed to devote his professional life to breaking borders and promoting peace via the international tourism industry His work led to the receipt of numerous awards including the Ellis Island Medal of Honor
