Ed Louisa Anne Meredith,Louisa Anne Twamley,1836 British Museum Catalogue of Printed Books ,1898 Women Poets in the Victorian Era Fabienne Moine,2016-03-09 Examining the place of nature in Victorian women s poetry Fabienne Moine explores the work of canonical and long neglected women poets to show the myriad connections between women and nature during the period At the same time she challenges essentialist discourses that assume innate affinities between women and the natural world Rather Moine shows Victorian women poets mobilised these alliances to defend common interests and express their engagement with social issues While well known poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti are well represented in Moine s study she pays particular attention to lesser known writers such as Mary Howitt or Eliza Cook who were popular during their lifetimes or Edith Nesbit whose verse has received scant critical attention so far She also brings to the fore the poetry of many non professional poets Looking to their immediate cultural environments for inspiration these women reconstructed the natural world in poems that raise questions about the validity and the scope of representations of nature ultimately questioning or undermining social practices that mould and often fossilise cultural identities The Romance of Nature, Or, The Flower-seasons Illustrated Mrs. Charles Meredith,1836 Collecting Ladies Penny Olsen,2013 Around 1870 Ferdinand von Mueller the greatest Australian botanist of the nineteenth century began to advertise in several newspapers across Australia for lady plant collectors This was at a time when women typically had little recourse to science or contact with men outside their circle of friends making Mueller s network of ladies quite extraordinary Collecting Ladies profiles 14 of Mueller s coterie of women collectors Included are Fanny Charsley Louisa Atkinson Annie Walker and Ellis Rowan for whom Mueller made time to assist in pursuit of their own passions He identified the plants they painted and provided letters of introduction to publishers and scientists Together these ladies produced some of the most beautiful books and botanical art to come out of Australia in the nineteenth century covering all the Australian colonies A History of Gardening in England Alicia Amherst,2012-11 Bei diesem Werk aus dem Jahr 1896 handelt es sich um ein Handbuch das den Leser auf eine Reise in die englischen G rten in die Zeit vom 13 bis 19 Jahrhundert mitnimmt Es handelt sich hierbei um eine englischsprachige Ausgabe Men of the Time Thompson Cooper,1875 Men of the Time Thompson Cooper,2023-05-11 Reprint of the original first published in 1872 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost The Romance of Nature ... Edition Mrs. Charles Meredith, 1836 In Nature's Name Barbara T. Gates, 2002-04 From the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century hundreds of British women wrote about and drew from nature Some like the beloved children's author Beatrix Potter who produced natural history about hedgehogs as well as fiction about rabbits are still familiar today But others have all but disappeared from view Barbara Gates recovers these lost works and prints them alongside little known pieces by more famous authors like Potter's field notes on hedgehogs reminding us of better known stories that help set the others in context The works contained in this volume are as varied as the women who produced them They include passionate essays on the protection of animals vivid accounts of travel and adventure from the English seashore to the Indian Alps poetry and fiction and marvelous tales of nature for children Special features of the book include a detailed chronology placing each selection in its historical and literary context biographical sketches of each author's life and works a comprehensive bibliography of primary and secondary literature and over sixty illustrations An ideal introduction to women's powerful and diverse responses to the natural world In Nature's Name will be treasured by anyone interested in natural history women or Victorian and Edwardian Britain Men of the Time George Henry Townsend, 1868 The Collected Works of Gerard Manley Hopkins Gerard Manley Hopkins, 2006 Gerard Manley Hopkins was not only one of the most gifted Victorian poets he was a compelling diarist who used his journals for everything from daily to do lists to the most intimate spiritual self assessments This volume represents Hopkins as a man of extremes both emotionally and psychologically There are mundane memoranda about neckties to purchase or letters to write but also exacting revisions of poems There are entries of quiet rapture his attention caught by the beauty of the natural world Paintings sculptures and works of literature are stringently assessed his aesthetic principles freely exercised There are also nightmares relived undergraduate sins unsparingly recorded signs of heavenly mercy carefully noted This is the first unexpurgated edition of all extant diaries The entries extend from September 1863 during his second term at Oxford until February 1875 while studying theology as a Jesuit in his beloved Wales and from February 1884 until July 1885 while Hopkins was living at a third remove in Dublin

The Gentleman's Magazine, 1837 British Women and Cultural Practices of Empire, 1770-1940 Rosie Dias, Kate Smith, 2018-10-04 Correspondence travel writing diary writing painting scrapbooking curating collecting and house interiors allowed British women scope to express their responses to imperial sites and experiences in the 18th 19th and 20th centuries Taking these productions as its archive British Women and Cultural Practices of Empire 1775-1930 includes a collection of essays from different disciplines that consider the role of British women's cultural practices and productions in conceptualising empire While such productions have started to receive greater scholarly attention this volume uses a more self-conscious lens of gender to question whether female cultural work demonstrates that colonial women engaged with the spaces and places of empire in distinctive ways By working across disciplines centuries and different colonial geographies the volume makes an exciting and important contribution to the field by demonstrating the diverse ways in which European women shaped constructions of empire in the modern period Australian Literature, 1788-1914 Selina Samuels, 2001

This volume commences in 1788 the year of the arrival of the First Fleet sent to colonize Australia and is the logical starting point since the focus is on Australian literature in English and does include entries on Aboriginal writers who wrote and published in English Entries include those writers who produced at least their first important work before the end of 1914
