Joyce's Finnegans Wake John P. Anderson,2014-02 This ninth in a series continues this ground breaking word by word analysis of James Joyce's Finnegans Wake This chapter features the Holy Spirit HS acting in and through the human female The HS described by Jesus as the comforter to follow him inspires ALP to give comfort to her child and to her husband With her help her child Shem comes forth as an individual and HCE comes forth during sex This coming forth of spirit takes place in Earwicker bedrooms pointedly not in the church In RCC dogma dutifully repeated here by the gossellers the HS can perform only in and for the holy church Like the good wife the HS must remain at home In Joyce's view embedded in this chapter the HS is freely out and about on her own recognizance and seeking the genuine holy house the individual human female The HS seeks the human female as a sympathetic channel to promote the spirit of individuality and human to human connection through mutuality not authority For the authority minded gossellers the human female can only come fourth behind the all male trinity and must remain the dog ma at home ALP is the main agent in the principal events in this chapter spiritual nurture of her child Shem not to fear his father and sexual intercourse with her husband In both events and with the HS in her heart she gives comfort and gives us an example of the Joycean divine combined with the human a combination that may sound familiar to Christian trained ears For purposes of embedding the HS in this chapter Joyce used references to the actions of the HS recorded in the bible particularly the Incarnation of divinity in the Jesus seed and the gift of hot tongues at Pentecost both considerable departures from normal reality In the Joyce made web of connections mother's child nurture basks in the glow of the Incarnation and mother and father's sexual congress in the glow of Pentecost
