Becoming Community Olivia A. Phillips,2021-10-15 How we minister matters especially to those who have already been hurt by the church Instead of ministering out of God s love and compassion the church has often ministered to the Queer community out of a deep rooted fear Why do we administer hatred instead of allowing the balm of the Holy Spirit s tender care to define our actions The integrity of the gospel message has been hurt by the way many of us have wielded the power we have been given Becoming Community is a call for us to renew our Christian commitment to social responsibility and justice as a primary focus of the church We must challenge the practices and visions which we hold most important in our communities Are our ministries truly inclusive to all who would seek to find solace at the feet of Christ Regardless of whether a person might adopt a philosophy of affirmation or denial of queer practices as God honoring one trait must remain in our response inclusion Without intentionally inclusive language care and practice can the church live up to the higher calling that we have been given Is it possible for every individual to be genuinely included in our communities

Closing Costs Dominic Dutra, 2021-12-23 For decades many different denominations have experienced devastating declines in attendance finances and influence Thousands of church leaders have watched their congregations grow older smaller and in many cases whiter than their surrounding communities Rising costs and decreased giving make it virtually impossible to sustain the staff and fabric of these organizations let alone their spiritual mission But all hope is not lost In a clarion call that demands death to bring new life the local church is tasked with evaluating and ultimately sacrificing all its resources including underutilized real estate to bring healing and hope to the poor marginalized and disenfranchised Decades of decline do not foretell the death of the church and by reimagining their church spaces congregations can experience revitalization as they grow to better embody their missional purpose Contemplation and Counseling P.
