The Reluctant Land:

The Reluctant Land Cole Harris, 2009-01-01 Winner 2008 K D Srivastava Prize for Excellence in Scholarly Publishing UBC Press The Reluctant Land describes the evolving pattern of settlement and the changing relationships of people and land in Canada from the end of the fifteenth century to the Confederation years of the late 1860s and early 1870s It shows how a deeply indigenous land was reconstituted in European terms and at the same time how European ways were recalibrated in this non European space It also shows how an archipelago of scattered settlement emerged out of an encounter with a parsimonious territory and suggests how deeply this encounter differed from an American relationship with abundance The book begins with a description of land and life in northern North America in 1500 and ends by considering the relationship between the pattern of early Canada and the country as we know it today Intended to illuminate the background of modern Canada The Reluctant Land is an intelligent discussion of people and place that will be welcomed by scholars and lay readers alike

countryside while being cognisant of a wider world of cosmopolitan labour rights The assertion of working class dignity honour and respect Pnina argues is a powerful motivating force for manual workers Against legal sceptical approaches The Making of an African Working Class argues that in challenging the government their employer in court manual workers protests and mobilisation are deeply embedded in ethics social justice and the law The Reluctant Journey Richard Leslie Parrott, Refraction, 2014-10-21 Imagine the God of the universe whispering in your ear What shall we create out of your life that will serve My purpose The path of authenticity is not a solo endeavor but a calling to a partnership with God that requires utter honesty trust commitment and wisdom God guides your path with a two fold promise You know I love you as you are but together we can make of your life what I created you to be Following the petitions of our Lord s Prayer Dr Richard Parrott examines a family of authentic partners the family of Abraham and Sarah their son Isaac grandson Jacob and great grandson Joseph This fresh telling of the story reveals practical answers to the question How can my partnership with God be genuine mature and significant The Reluctant Journey is an honest and practical guide for relating to God As authentic Christians we can live true in Christ and our love for him each day choosing His best for us so that together we advance His kingdom on earth as it is in heaven Features include Truths from the Lord s Prayer Stories of the founders of our faith Thought provoking questions for spiritual conversation or reflection The Reunification of China Peter Lorge, 2015-11-26 A groundbreaking work examining the military and political events that shaped the Song dynasty 960 1279 in China Peter Lorge examines the centrality of warfare and politics in the struggle for internal and external power as well as the influence of individuals and their relationships in political processes Quitting the Nation Eric R. Schlereth, 2024-04-09 Perceptions of the United States as a nation of immigrants are so commonplace that its history as a nation of emigrants is forgotten However once the United States came into existence its citizens immediately asserted rights to emigrate for political allegiances elsewhere Quitting the Nation recovers this unfamiliar story by braiding the histories of citizenship and the North American borderlands to explain the evolution of emigrant rights between 1750 and 1870 Eric R Schlereth traces the legal and political origins of emigrant rights in contests to decide who possessed them and who did not At the same time it follows the thousands of people that exercised emigration right citizenship by leaving the United States for settlements elsewhere in North America Ultimately Schlereth shows that national allegiance was often no more powerful than the freedom to cast it aside The advent of emigrant rights had lasting implications for it suggested that people are free to move throughout the world and to decide for themselves the nation they belong to This claim remains urgent in the twenty first century as limitations on personal mobility persist inside the United States and at its borders The Earthy Paradise: September: The death of Paris; The land east of the sun and west of the moon. LAW, CUSTOM AND PROPERTY RIGHTS AMONG THE MA/NYIMA OF THE NUBA MOUNTAINS IN THE SUDAN Hunud Abia Kadouf, 2014-11-18 This book is based on an extensive field work in which the author tried to study the customary law of property of an African agrarian tribal community of ma also known as Nyima of the Nuba Mountains in the northern Sudan The writer has tried to explain the nature of property holding in the light of the people's philosophy evidenced in their social structure and their traditional beliefs Special attention is paid to the traditional structure of political leadership in this highly segmented society that was prone not only to inter tribal wars but was also in a constant fission and fusion among themselves when not at war with other neighboring tribes In discussing jurisdictional issues and traditional settlement mechanisms based partly on law and custom both adopted by this egalitarian society the study is made currently relevant by keen observation on the effect of modernity on traditional ethics and morality of the ma society that was once described by some authors as being impervious to foreign influence Furthermore the reception and assimilation of the state law together with the Shari'ah laws in various areas such as that relating to property devolution family institution and burial rites is treated as being of great significance in the overall development of the tribal customary laws Like any other Nuba tribe the consciousness of the ma people of their ethos of identity marks their ferociously guarded customs and traditions prevalent up to date The book is not only a precious academic endeavor full of keen observations in depth study and analysis of tribal customary laws of property but is also a memoir for the author to commemorate formidable tribal group of the ma people in the Nuba Mountains of the Sudan
