Heart of Darkness (Unabridged Deluxe Edition) Joseph Conrad, 2015-11-12 This carefully crafted ebook Heart of Darkness Unabridged Deluxe Edition is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents Heart of Darkness 1899 is a classic of world literature The book tells a story about a voyage up the Congo River into the Congo Free State in the heart of Africa Marlow the story's narrator tells his story to friends aboard a boat anchored on the River Thames London England This setting provides the frame for Marlow's story of his obsession with the ivory trader Kurtz which enables Conrad to create a parallel between London and Africa as places of darkness Central to Conrad's work is the idea that there is little difference between so-called civilized people and those described as savages Heart of Darkness raises important questions about imperialism and racism Joseph Conrad acknowledged that Heart of Darkness was in part based on his own experiences during his travels in Africa In 1890 at the age of 32 he was appointed by a Belgian trading company to serve as the captain of a steamer on the Congo River Joseph Conrad 1857-1924 was a Polish author who wrote in English after settling in England Conrad is regarded as one of the greatest novelists in English though he did not speak the language fluently until he was in his twenties He wrote stories and novels often with a nautical setting that depict trials of the human spirit in the midst of an indifferent universe He was a master prose stylist who brought a distinctly non-English tragic sensibility into English literature Contents Heart of Darkness Memoirs or Some Reminiscences The Mirror of the Sea Notes on Life Letters Biography Critical Essays Joseph Conrad A Biography by Hugh Walpole Joseph Conrad by John Albert Macy A Conrad Miscellany by John Albert Macy Joseph Conrad by Virginia Woolf Chambers's Cyclopaedia of English Literature, 1876 Encyclopædia Britannica: or, A dictionary of arts and sciences, compiled by a society of gentlemen in Scotland [ed. by W. Sporting Magazine, 1827 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science, 1889 Romanticism and Modernity Thomas Pfau, Robert Mitchell, 2014-07-16 Though traditionally defined as a relatively brief time period typically the half-century of 1780-1830 the Romantic era constitutes a crucial indeed unique transitional phase in what has come to be called modernity for it was during these fifty years that myriad disciplinary aesthetic economic and political changes long in the making accelerated dramatically Due in part to the increased velocity of change though most of modernity's essential master tropes such as secularization instrumental reason individual rights economic self-interest emancipation system institution nation empire utopia and life were also subjected to incisive critical and methodological reflection and revaluation The chapters in this collection argue that Romanticism's marked ambivalence and resistance to decisive conceptualization arises precisely from the fact that Romantic authors simultaneously extended the project of European modernity while offering Romantic concepts as means for a sustained critical reflection on that very process Focusing especially on the topics of form both literary and organic secularization and its political correlates utopia and apocalypse and the question of how one narrates the arrival of modernity this collection collectively emphasizes the importance of understanding modernity through the lens of Romanticism rather than simply understanding Romanticism as part of modernity This book was previously published as a special issue of European Romantic Review The Blue Dwarf Lady Esther Hope (pseud.),1861 The Athenaeum ,1889 The New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art ,1968 Gately's Universal Educator Charles E.
