Discover Pretoria Heinie Heydenrych, Abrie Swiegers, 1999 From Polarisation to Multispecies Relationships Janet J. McIntyre-Mills, Yvonne Corcoran-Nantes, 2021-08-05 This book explores the concept of multi species relationships and suggests critical systemic pathways to protect shared habitats This book discusses how the eradication of species as a result of rapid urbanisation places humanity at risk This book demonstrates how narrow anthropocentrism has focused on the rights of human beings at the expense of other species and the environment This book explores a priori norms and a posteriori measures and indicators to include and protect multiple species This book aims to strengthen institutional capacity and powers to address and extend the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda by drawing on local wisdom but also the need to implement laws to prevent ecocide This book highlights that our fragile interdependence requires a recognition of our hybridity and interconnectedness within the web of life and suggests ways to reframe policy within and beyond the nation state to support living systems of which we are a strand Political Warfare in Sub-Saharan Africa

Donovan C. Chau, 2007 Domestic and international terrorism aside the United States and the People's Republic of China PRC are vying for influence over African governments and people Not unlike the Cold War the primary means of exerting influence in Africa is through the use of nonviolent instruments of grand strategy The author considers one nonviolent instrument of grand strategy in particular political warfare He suggests that the PRC has used political warfare as its leading grand strategic instrument in Africa and offers a concise detailed overview of U S capabilities to conduct political warfare in Africa in four of its nation states Spirit-Filled World Allan Heaton Anderson, 2018-02-16 This book is about African

Pentecostalism and its relationship to religious beliefs about a pervading spirit world It argues that Pentecostalism keeps both a continuous and a discontinuous relationship in tension Based on field research in a South African township including qualitative interviews and focus group discussions the study explores the context of African Pentecostalism as a whole and how it interacts with the concepts of ancestors divination and various types of spirit Themes discussed include the reasons for the popularity of healing exorcism the prosperity gospel the experience of the Holy Spirit Spirit manifestations and practices resembling both traditional and biblical precedents as well as scholarly discussions on African Pentecostalism from theological and social scientific disciplines The book suggests that the focus on a spirit filled world affects all kinds of events and explains the rapid growth of Pentecostalism outside the western world Biotechnology in Africa Florence

Wambugu, Daniel Kamanga, 2014-05-10 In this book Florence Wambugu and Daniel Kamanga of Africa Harvest Biotech Foundation International bring together expert African authorities to critique various biotechnology initiatives and project future developments in the field in Africa For the first time African voices from multidisciplinary fields as diverse as economics agriculture biotechnology law politics and academia demand to be allowed to set the continent's biotech development agenda This book argues that there is a great future for biotechnology in Africa which sidesteps western interests that do not match those of the local populace In these diverse chapters Africa's political and scientific leaders demand a greater say in how research and development funds are allocated and spent They argue that Africa's political leaders must see both clear benefits and have elbow room to drive the change required This is the way that African governments can employ workable policies suitable biosafety legislation and regulation and respond effectively to public private partnerships Wambugu and Kamanga show that biotechnology has the potential to improve food security and standard of living as well as mitigate the detrimental effects of climate change on the African continent
