American Bar Association Journal American Bar Association, 1960      Through A Glass Darkly Margaret Thornton, 2015-11-08 This collection of essays arose from a workshop held in Canberra in 2013 under the auspices of the Academy of Social Sciences in Australia to consider the impact of the encroachment of the market on public universities While the UK tripled fees in 2013 and determined that the teaching of the social sciences and the humanities would no longer be publicly funded it was feared that Australia would go further and deregulate fees altogether In the best tradition of the social sciences the contributors have assumed the role of critic and conscience of society to present penetrating analyses of the ramifications of the corporatisation of the university as neoliberalism continues to occupy the ascendant position in the political firmament The dramatis personae in these analyses are students academics managers and political mandarins with the gendered character of corporatisation an important sub theme      Mapping World Anglophone Studies Pavan Kumar Malreddy, Frank Schulze-Engler, 2024-10-30 This book explores core issues in the emerging field of World Anglophone Studies It shows that traditional frameworks based on the colonial and imperial legacies of English need to be revised and extended to understand the complex adaptations iterations and incarnations of English in the contemporary world The chapters in this volume make three significant interventions in the field First they showcase the emergence of Anglophone literatures and cultures in parts of the world not traditionally considered Anglophone Cuba the Arab world the Balkan region Vietnam Algeria and Belize among others Second they feature new zones of contact and creolization between Anglophone literatures cultures and languages such as Swahili Santhali Ojibway and Hindi as well as Anglophone representations of colonial encounters and contemporary experiences in non Anglophone settings such as Cuba Angola and Algeria And finally the volume turns to Anglophone literary and cultural productions on new platforms such as social media and Netflix and highlights the role of English in emergent sites of resistance involving women Indigenous populations queer and other non heteronormative sexualities as well as post conflict societies Mapping linguistic transgressions and the transmigration of cultural tropes between Englishes vernaculars and a wide variety of other languages with a rich set of case studies this volume will be essential reading for courses such as world literatures in English postcolonial studies anglophone studies literature and culture Indian Ocean worlds Global Englishes and Global South studies      Green Illusions Ozzie Zehner, 2012 We don't have an energy crisis We have a consumption crisis And this book which takes aim at cherished assumptions regarding energy offers refreshingly straight talk about what's wrong with the way we think and talk about the problem Though we generally believe we can solve environmental problems with more energy more solar cells wind turbines and biofuels alternative technologies come with their own side effects and limitations How for instance do solar cells cause harm Why can't engineers solve wind power's biggest obstacle Why won't contraception solve the problem of overpopulation lying at the heart of our concerns about energy and what will This practical environmentally informed and lucid book persuasively argues for a change of perspective If consumption is the problem as Ozzie Zehner suggests then we need to shift our focus from suspect alternative energies to improving social and political fundamentals walkable communities improved consumption enlightened governance and most notably women s rights The dozens of first steps he offers are surprisingly straightforward For instance he introduces a simple sticker that promises a greater impact than all of the nation s solar cells He uncovers why carbon taxes won t solve our energy challenges and presents two taxes that could Finally he explores how future environmentalists will focus on similarly fresh alternatives that are affordable clean and can actually improve our well being Watch a book trailer Congressional Record Index ,1919 Includes history of bills and resolutions
