Imagined Histories Anthony Molho, Gordon S. Wood, 2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book s first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book

Evangelicals and the Early Church George Kalantzis, Andrew Tooley, 2011-10-12 In this volume noted Evangelical historians and theologians examine the charge of the supposed ahistorical nature of Evangelicalism and provide a critical historical examination of the relationship between the Protestant evangelical heritage and the early church In doing so the contributors show the long and deeply historical rootedness of the Protestant Reformation and its Evangelical descendants as well as underscoring some inherent difficulties such as the Mercersburg and Oxford movements In the second part of the volume the discussion moves forward as evangelicals rediscover the early church its writings liturgy catechesis and worship following the temporary amnesia of the earlier part of the twentieth century Most essays are accompanied by a substantial response prompting discussion or offering challenges and alternative readings of the issue at hand thus allowing the reader to enter a conversation already in progress and engage the topic more fully This bidirectional look understanding the historical background on the one hand and looking forward to the future with concrete suggestions on the other forms a more full orb ed argument for readers who want to understand the rich and deep relationship between

Evangelicalism and the early church Partisan Canons Anna Brzyski,2007-10-08 Case studies that counter the idea of a transcendent art canon by demonstrating that the content of any and every canon is historically and culturally specific
