impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on New York City and on the philosophy and practices of the city's urban prepper subculture. With a special focus on the height of the pandemic in New York, this book considers the city's unique position as the pandemic's first epicenter in the United States. It also explores the lived experience of enduring the pandemic as reflections of class division, considering key themes including the exodus of the wealthy, sheltering in place for the middle class, the inability to leave high-risk neighborhoods for the poor, and sheltering in place practices and community resilience efforts by New York preppers. It analyzes the importance of good government and an engaged citizenry in developing an agenda for the city's continued recovery and its future, underscoring the need for cities to develop disaster management approaches that expand traditional command and control models to make space for local knowledge and resources. At its core, Urban Preppers and the Pandemic in New York City: Class, Resilience, and Sheltering in Place is about understanding New York City's pandemic experience and how self-reliance evolves into community resilience outside of institutions. It is vital reading for scholars and students of sociology, anthropology, geography, and urban studies, with interests in subcultures, ethnography, and the sociology of disasters.

Apocalypse Survival T. Gordon Larsen, 2016-01-28 This is a manual for Evangelical Christians who anticipate the second coming of Jesus Christ and understand that they may be called upon to endure some of the hardships of the End Times. It takes the genre of survival literature up a notch by addressing the moral, ethical, and doctrinal questions that Christians should consider in planning for existential challenges in an uncertain future. The author doesn't reinvent the wheel on common survival issues but covers items of interest to Believers who want to develop a survival strategy that deals with the world as they find it, yet is consistent with their faith. Among these are: Does charity really begin at home? Is it righteous to use lethal force in defense of yourself and others? Does subscribing to the Pre-Tribulation Rapture mean that Believers need not be concerned about coping with the End Times?
