Living in Silverado David M. Gitlitz, 2019-10-01 In this thoroughly researched work David M Gitlitz traces the lives and fortunes of three clusters of sixteenth century crypto Jews in Mexico s silver mining towns Previous studies of sixteenth century Mexican crypto Jews focus on the merchant community centered in Mexico City but here Gitlitz looks beyond Mexico s major population center to explore how clandestine religious communities were established in the reales the hinterland mining camps and how they differed from those of the capital in their struggles to retain their Jewish identity in a world dominated economically by silver and religiously by the Catholic Church In Living in Silverado Gitlitz paints an unusually vivid portrait of the lives of Mexico s early settlers Unlike traditional scholarship that has focused mainly on macro issues of the silver boom Gitlitz closely analyzes the complex workings of the haciendas that mined and refined silver and in doing so he provides a wonderfully detailed sense of the daily experiences of Mexico s early secret Jews

Subjectivity and Lifeworld in Transcendental Phenomenology Sebastian Luft, 2011-10-31 The purpose of the text is threefold 1 to contribute to the renaissance of Husserl interpretation around a the continuing publication of Husserl s manuscripts and b his unpublished manuscripts 2 to account for the historical origins and influence of the phenomenological project by articulating Husserl s relationship to authors before and after him 3 to argue for the viability of the phenomenological project as conceived by Husserl in his later years In regard to the last purpose Luft s main argument shows that Husserlian phenomenology is not exhausted in the Cartesian early perspective which is indeed its weakest and most vulnerable perspective Husserlian phenomenology is a robust and philosophically necessary perspective when taken from its hermeneutic late perspective And the ultimate point Luft makes in the text is that Husserl s hermeneutic phenomenology is distinct from other hermeneutic philosophers namely Cassirer Heidegger and Gadamer Unlike them Husserl s focus centers on the work the subject must do in order to uncover the prejudices that guide his/her unreflective relationship to the world In making his argument Luft also demonstrates that there is a deep consistency within Husserl s own writings from early to late around the guiding themes of 1 the natural attitude 2 the need and function of the epoch and 3 the split between egos where the transcendental self distinct from the natural self is seen as the fundamental ability we all have to inquire into the genesis of our tradition laden attitudes toward the world

Jones, 2021-02-26 Despite the remarkable growth of Christianity in Africa Asia and Latin America in the twentieth century there is a dearth of primary material produced by these Christians This volume explores the problem of writing the history of indigenous Christian communities in the Global South Many such indigenous Christian groups pass along knowledge orally and colonial forces have often not deemed their ideas and activities worth preserving In
