P. Chandrasekhar,Girish Kumar R.,2016-12-01 The 101st Constitution Amendment Act 2016 on GST is a big leap for the fiscal reforms relating to the Indirect Tax regime in India as it seeks to introduce a single comprehensive tax that will subsume other indirect taxes on consumption like sales and service taxes strengthen the nation s tax institutions dismantle barriers that exist across States and create a common market The main objective of the GST Act is to replace the existing multi layered indirect tax regimes instituted by the Union and State Governments and to unify them across the country It is a comprehensive value added tax on the manufacture sale and consumption of goods and services levied and collected on value addition at each stage of sale or purchase of goods or supply of services based on the input tax credit method but without State boundaries The administrative power generally vests with a single authority to levy tax on goods and services By amalgamating a large number of Central and State taxes into a single tax GST would pave the way for a common national market This volume focuses on the GST Act 2016 and its effects on Indian federal polity And those who contributed papers are C P Chandrasekhar Chirashree Dasgupta Girish Kumar R Gopakumar K Prabhat Patnaik Reapan Tikoo      Guide to Free Tax Services ,1999      Consumer Economics Education Guidelines Michigan.
