Portuguese Oceanic Expansion 1400 18:

A Plurilingual History of the Portuguese Language in the Luso-Brazilian Empire Luciane Scarato, 2023-07-21 This book investigates the diverse ways in which the Portuguese language expanded in Brazil despite the multilingual landscape that predominated before and after the arrival of the Europeans and the African diaspora Challenging the assumption that the prevalence of Portuguese was a natural consequence and foregone conclusion of colonisation the book argues that the language's expansion was as much a result of state intervention as of individual agency The growth of the Portuguese language was a tumultuous process that mirrored the power relations and conflicts between Amerindian European African and mestizo actors who shaped standardised and promoted the language within and beyond state institutions Knowing Portuguese became an identification sign of being Brazilian However a significant number of languages disappeared along the way and the book highlights that virtual language homogeneity does not imply social equality Portuguese's variants place speakers on different social levels that justify domination and inequality This research tells the history of a victorious language and other languages that left their mark on Brazilian Portuguese A Plurilingual History of the Portuguese Language in the Luso Brazilian Empire is a useful resource for scholars interested in the history and standardisation of languages Portuguese and Brazilian history and the impacts of colonisation The Dutch Empire between Ideas and Practice, 1600–2000 René Koekkoek, Anne-Isabelle Richard, Arthur Weststeijn, 2019-11-18 This volume explores the intellectual history of the Dutch Empire from a long term and global perspective analysing how ideas and visions of empire took shape in imperial practice from the seventeenth century to the present day Through a series of case studies the volume critically unearths deep rooted conceptions of Dutch imperial exceptionalism and shows how visions of imperial rule were developed in metropolitan and colonial contexts and practices Topics include the founding of the Dutch chartered companies for colonial trade the development of commercial and global visions of empire in Europe and Asia the continuities and ruptures in imperial ideas and practices around 1800 and the practical making of empire in colonial court rooms and radio broadcasting Demonstrating the relevance of a long term approach to the Dutch Empire the volume showcases how the intellectual history of empire can provide fresh light on postcolonial repercussions of empire and imperial rule Chapter 1 Chapter 3 Chapter 7 and Chapter 8 of this book are available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com Neutrality and Collaboration in South China Helena F. S. Lopes, 2023-06-15 Analyses the uses of neutrality and collaboration in Second World War Macau a small territory at the crossroads of different empires The World the Plague Made James Belich, 2024-06-25 A groundbreaking history of how the Black Death unleashed revolutionary change across the medieval world and ushered in the modern age In 1346 a catastrophic plague beset Europe and its neighbours The Black Death was a human tragedy that abruptly halved entire populations and caused untold suffering but it also brought about a cultural and economic renewal on a scale never before witnessed The World the Plague Made is a panoramic history of how the bubonic plague revolutionized labour trade and technology and set the stage for Europe's global expansion James Belich takes readers across centuries and continents to shed new light on one of history's greatest paradoxes Why did Europe's dramatic rise begin in the wake of the Black Death Belich shows how plague doubled the per capita endowment of everything even as it decimated the population Many more people had disposable incomes Demand grew for silks sugar spices furs gold and slaves Europe expanded to satisfy that demand and plague provided the means Labour scarcity drove more use of waterpower wind power and gunpowder Technologies like water powered blast furnaces heavily gunned galleons and musketry were fast tracked by plague A new crew culture of disposable males emerged to man the guns and galleons Setting the rise of Western Europe in global context Belich demonstrates how the mighty empires of the Middle East and Russia also flourished after the plague and how European expansion was deeply entangled with the Chinese and other peoples throughout the world

The Capital Market of Manila and the Pacific Trade, 1668-1838 Juan José Rivas Moreno, 2024-10-19 Economic history has always emphasized the importance of long distance trade in the emergence of modern financial markets yet almost nothing is known about the Manila trade This book offers the first reconstruction of the capital market of Manila using new archival sources that have never been used in the economic history of Pacific trade The book explains how trade between Asia and Spanish America across the Pacific which lasted for 250 years 1571-1815 was financed from the city of Manila The book analyses the political economy and institutional structures of the Manila capital market in the context of the global silver trade as well as addressing key similarities and differences with European trade routes and differing approaches to colonialism and commerce in Asian waters It traces how the Manila capital market emerged in a bottom up process with a redistributive aspect that tied the interests of citizens with the fortunes of trade using institutions familiar to the public like legacy funds brotherhoods and lay religious orders to pool liquidity originate working capital and internalise the risk of loss at sea It challenges the notion that there is a normative model for the development of capital markets and introduces an industrial organisation analysis to the broader structure of Early Modern trade in the Spanish Empire Sitting at the intersection of economic and financial history global history imperial history and political economy this book will be a cutting edge and valuable resource for a broad range of scholars

China and Maritime Europe, 1500-1800 John E. Wills, Jr, 2010-12-31 China and Maritime Europe 1500-1800 looks at early modern China in some of its most complicated and intriguing relations with a world of increasing global interconnection New World silver Chinese tea Jesuit astronomers at the Chinese court and merchants and marauders of all kinds play important roles here Although pieces of these stories have been told before these chapters provide the fullest and clearest available summaries based on sources in Chinese and in European languages making this information accessible to students and scholars interested in the growing connections among continents and civilizations in the early modern period

Alessandro Valignano the Visitor to the Jesuit mission in the East Indies sent four Japanese boys to Europe. Until the arrival of the embassy in Europe the Euro Japanese encounter had been almost exclusively one way Europeans going to Japan. This book is an account of their travels their long journeys out and back and the 20 months in Europe being received by popes and kings. It was published in Macao in 1590 with the title De Missione Legatorum Iaponensium ad Romanum curiam. The present edition is the first complete version of this rich complex and impressive work to appear in English and is accompanied with maps and illustrations of the mission and an introduction discussing its context and the subsequent reception of the book.

A Companion to the Early Modern Catholic Global Missions Ronnie Po-Chia Hsia, 2018-01-03. A survey of the latest scholarship on Catholic missions between the 16th and 18th centuries, this collection of fourteen essays by historians from eight countries offers not only a global view of the organization, finances, personnel and history of Catholic missions to the Americas, Africa and Asia, but also the complex political, cultural and religious contexts of the missionary fields. The conquests and colonization of the Americas presented a different stage for the drama of evangelization in contrast to that of Africa and Asia; the inhospitable landscape of Africa; the implacable Islamic societies of the Ottoman, Safavid and Mughal empires; and the self-assured regimes of Ming, Qing, China, Nguyen dynasty, Vietnam and Tokugawa, Japan. Contributors are Tara Alberts, Mark Z. Christensen, Dominique Deslandres, R. Po-chia Hsia, Aliocha Maldavsky, Anne McGinness, Christoph Nebgen, Adina Ruiu, Alan Strathern, M. Antoni J. Erler, Fred Vermote, Guillermo Wilde, Christian Windler and Ines Zupanov. Portuguese and Luso-Asian Legacies in Southeast Asia, 1511-2011, vol. 1 Laura Jarnagin, 2003-08-01. In 1511 a Portuguese expedition under the command of Afonso de Albuquerque arrived on the shores of Malacca, taking control of the prosperous Malayan port city after a swift military campaign. Portugal, a peripheral but then technologically advanced country in southwestern Europe, since the latter fifteenth century had been in the process of establishing solid outposts all along Asia's littoral in order to participate in the most active and profitable maritime trading routes of the day. As it turned out, the Portuguese presence and influence in the Malayan Peninsula and elsewhere in continental and insular Asia expanded far beyond the sphere of commerce and extended over time well into the twenty-first century. Five hundred years later, a conference held in Singapore brought together a large group of scholars from widely different national, academic and disciplinary contexts to analyse and discuss the intricate consequences of Portuguese interactions in Asia over the longue durée. The result of these discussions is a stimulating set of case studies that, as a rule, combine original archival and/or field research with innovative historiographical perspectives. Luso-Asian communities, real and imagined, and Luso-Asian heritage, material and symbolic, are studied with depth and insight. The range of thematic, chronological and geographic areas covered in these proceedings is truly remarkable, showing not only the extraordinary relevance of revisiting Luso-Asian interactions in the longer term, but also the surprising dynamism within an area of studies which seemed on the verge of exhaustion. After all, archives from all over the world, from Rio de Janeiro to London, from Lisbon to Rome and from Goa to Macao, might still hold some secrets on the subject of Luso Asian relations when duly explored by resourceful scholars Rui M Loureiro Centro de Historia de Alem Mar Lisbon

The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Imperial Histories John Marriott, 2016-03-23 Written by leading scholars this collection provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of modern empires Spanning the era of modern imperial history from the early sixteenth century to the present it challenges both the rather insular focuses on specific experiences and gives due attention to imperial formations outside the West including the Russian Japanese Mughal Ottoman and Chinese The companion is divided into three broad sections Part I Times surveys the three main eras of modern imperialism The first was that dominated by the settlement impulse with migrants many voluntarily and many more by force making new lives in the colonies This impulse gave way most especially in the nineteenth century to a period of busy and rapid expansion which was less likely to promote new settlement and in which colonists more frequently saw their sojourn in colonial lands as temporary and related to the business mostly of governance and trade Lastly in the twentieth century in particular empires began to fail and to fall Part II Spaces studies the principal imperial formations of the modern world Each chapter charts the experience of a specific empire while at the same time placing it within the complex patterns of wider imperial constellations The individual chapters thus survey the broad dynamics of change within the empires themselves and their relationships with other imperial formations and reflect critically on the ways in which these topics have been approached in the literature In Part III Themes scholars think critically about some of the key features of imperial expansion and decline These chapters are brief and many are provocative They reflect the current state of the field and suggest new lines of inquiry which may follow from more comparative perspectives on empire The broad range of themes captures the vitality and diversity of contemporary scholarship on questions of empire and colonialism encompassing political economic and cultural processes central to the formation and maintenance of empires as well as institutions ideologies and social categories that shaped the lives both of those implementing and those experiencing the force of empire In these pages the reader will find the slave and the criminal the merchant and the maid the scientist and the artist alongside the structures which sustained their lives and their livelihoods Overall the companion emphasises the diversity of imperial experience and process Comprehensive in its scope it draws attention to the particularities of individual empires rather than over generalising as if all empires at all times and in all places behaved in a similar manner It is this contingent and historical specificity that enables us to explore in expansive ways precisely what constituted the modern empire

The Return of Hans Staden Eve M. Duffy, Alida C. Metcalf, 2012-01-04 Hans Staden's sixteenth century account of shipwreck and captivity by the Tupinamb Indians of Brazil was an early modern bestseller This retelling of the German sailor's eyewitness account known as the True History shows both why it was so popular at the time and why it remains an important tool for understanding the opening of the Atlantic world Eve M Duffy and Alida C Metcalf carefully reconstruct Staden's life as a German soldier his two expeditions to the Americas and his subsequent shipwreck captivity brush with cannibalism escape and return The authors explore how these events and experiences were recreated in the text and images of the True History Focusing on Staden s multiple roles as a go between Duffy and Metcalf address many of the issues that emerge when cultures come into contact and conflict An artful and accessible interpretation The Return of Hans Staden takes a text best known for its sensational tale of cannibalism and shows how it can be reinterpreted as a window into the precariousness of lives on both sides of early modern encounters when such issues as truth and lying violence religious belief and cultural difference were key to the formation of the Atlantic world Empires of the Sea ,2019-10-07 Empires of the Sea brings together studies of maritime empires from the Bronze Age to the Eighteenth Century The volume aims to establish maritime empires as a category for the comparative study of premodern empires and from a partly non western perspective The book includes contributions on Mycenaean sea power Classical Athens the ancient Thebans Ptolemaic Egypt The Genoese Empire power networks of the Vikings the medieval Danish Empire the Baltic empire of Ancien R gime Sweden the early modern Indian Ocean the Melaka Empire the non European aspects of the Portuguese Empire and Dutch East India Company and the Pirates of Caribbean Pursuing Empire: Brazilians, the Dutch and the Portuguese in Brazil and the South Atlantic, c.1620-1660 ,2022-10-24 Peoples living on the shores of the South Atlantic during the first sixty years of the seventeenth century were confronted with challenges imposed by colonial occupation disputes between empires and continuous warfare While the future of the Dutch and Portuguese empires was being decided with unparalleled violence common people faced daily challenges to survive institutional and political interests beyond their control This book takes the perspective of individuals families and groups of interest in their daily strive to survive a European pursuit of empire Contributors are C tia Antunes Francisco Bethencourt Filipa Ribeiro da Silva Jos Manuel Santos P rez Marco Ant nio Nunes da Silva Bruno Romero Ferreira Miranda Anne B McGinness Thiago Nascimento Krause Christopher Ebert and Am lia Pol nia
