Wits Application Form For Undergraduate 2015:

The Improviser's Classroom Daniel Fischlin, Mark Lomanno, 2025-01-17 The Improviser's Classroom foregrounds how improvisation can facilitate the emergence of pedagogical approaches in which research performance and activism are interactive and cross referential while challenging orthodoxies of educational practice and institutional mandate Legal pedagogy, practice and curriculum transformation: What does the future hold and look like? Charles Maimela, 2025-07-18 In an era marked by rapid technological innovation and complex socio political shifts legal education stands at a critical crossroads This timely publication explores the imperative for a curriculum that is both responsive and resilient capable of adapting to the evolving needs of students institutions and society at large Blending theoretical analysis with practical insight the book offers forwardthinking strategies to navigate the multifaceted challenges of curriculum transformation Drawing on the lived experiences and reflections of law educators across diverse institutions it provides a unique lens into how curriculum innovation can enhance teaching learning and research in the legal academy More than a commentary this book is a call to action a vital resource for educators academic leaders and policymakers committed to ensuring the continued relevance excellence and social responsiveness of legal education in the 21st century The 4IR and the Humanities in South Africa Bhaso Ndzendze, Asheel Singh, Suzall Timm, 2024-05-28 The world is at a crossroads because of industrial change compounded by a global pandemic Humanities and social science education is grappling with the meaning of this change to the effect that there have been some anxieties and misguided perceptions about the irrelevance of the humanities in this emerging new world With the emergence of new technologies this book highlights the indispensable centrality of humanity and the humanities going forward The book will provide a reference point for new and innovative approaches to the humanities in the 4IR in South Africa and Africa Its diverse content means that it will be useful across the humanities and social science spectrum Scholarship Students in Elite South African Schools Jennifer Wallace, Jennifer Feldman, 2022-11-16 This book provides a narrative account of the experiences of twenty former scholarship students from historically disadvantaged communities who attended elite public and private secondary schools It draws on in depth one on one semi structured interviews conducted with former scholarship recipients who were between the ages of 19 and 24 years at the time of the interviews Various themes are explored specifically focusing on elite schooling in relation to the experiences and navigational practices of the scholarship recipients and the adjustments that they felt they needed to make in order to fit into the elite school space The book analyses and discusses the reflective experiences of students who were awarded a scholarship to attend an elite secondary school It reveals that accepting the gift of a scholarship is far more complex multi layered and at times harsh and even painful for the individual recipients than is possibly realized by those involved in this practice This book contributes to academic educational debates within the sociology of education elite schools and schooling in the post apartheid South African context Genres of Transition: Literature and Economy in

Portuguese-Speaking Southern Africa Thomas Waller, 2024-07-22 This book argues that literary production in Portuguese speaking southern Africa has developed distinctive aesthetic idioms that critically respond to crises of global capitalism and related failures of post colonial governance Drawing from recent research at the intersection of world systems analysis and materialist theories of world literature it identifies and evaluates two generic trends in the post independence literatures of Mozambique and Angola From the mid 1980s to the early 1990s there is a marked tendency in Mozambican literary production towards fictional representations of ghosts spectral effects and gothic narrative techniques In Angola there is an analogous outburst of literary expression from the mid 1990s onwards in which writers increasingly turn towards dystopian images of apocalypse ecological crisis and the disintegration of existing modes of social reproduction Away from a restricted focus on the decline of the post independence Marxist Leninist state the book contends that the upswing in these two genres of writing functions to critically register a world systemic horizon that both surpasses and includes locally determined national realities The patterned repetition of spectral and dystopian forms in Portuguese speaking southern Africa occurred at a time of heightened capitalisation in which the region was subjected to newly expropriative forms of accumulation and ecological enclosure via integration into a reconstellated world system headed by neoliberal finance capital Through close readings of texts by authors such as Mia Couto Suleiman Cassamo Ungulani Ba Ka Khosa Pepetela and Ondjaki this book asks What factors drove literary production towards the figure of the spectre in Mozambique and towards dystopia in Angola What emerging energies and social contradictions found shape in these generic idioms in ways that existing vocabularies were unable to express What does the geo temporal passage from spectrality to dystopia tell us about the history of capitalist development in southern Africa and about the restructuring of political economic parameters across the globe Common Neil Rhodes, 2018 A study of the development of literary culture in sixteenth century England that explores the relationship between the Reformation and literary renaissance of the Elizabethan period through the exploration of the theme of the common

Language Narratives and Shifting Multilingual Pedagogies Belinda Mendelowitz, Ana Ferreira, Kerryn Dixon, 2024-07-25 Winner of the UKLA Academic Book Award 2024 This book challenges monoglossic ideologies traditional language pedagogies and dominant forms of knowledge construction by foregrounding multilingual and multicultural students language narratives repertoires and identities The research is based on a sixteen year longitudinal study of a sociolinguistics course at an English language university and the language narratives produced by the first year education students The study was borne out of a need to create a critically inclusive course that would engage a cohort of students from socially and linguistically diverse backgrounds in contemporary South Africa Drawing on data from over 5 000 students who have journeyed through this course this book shows how a narrative heteroglossic pedagogy harnesses students multilingual strengths A close analysis reveals complex identity work by students located in the Global South The authors argue that decolonising language education is about reconceptualising language reconfiguring what knowledges are valued in the classroom and reshaping pedagogy African Ecomedia Cajetan Iheka, 2021-08-23 In African Ecomedia Cajetan Iheka examines the ecological footprint of media in Africa alongside the representation of environmental issues in visual culture Iheka shows how through visual media such as film photography and sculpture African artists deliver a unique perspective on the socioecological costs of media production from mineral and oil extraction to the politics of animal conservation Among other works he examines Pieter Hugo's photography of electronic waste recycling in Ghana and Idrissou Mora Kpai's documentary on the deleterious consequences of uranium mining in Niger These works highlight not only the exploitation of African workers and the vast scope of environmental degradation but also the resourcefulness and creativity of African media makers They point to the unsustainability of current practices while acknowledging our planet's finite natural resources In foregrounding Africa's centrality to the production and disposal of media technology Iheka shows the important place visual media has in raising awareness of and documenting ecological disaster even as it remains complicit in it Social Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Ndangwa Noyoo, 2019-11-01 This book critically examines the current social policy in post apartheid South Africa and proposes an alternative social policy agenda to create a new development pathway for the country Taking social policy as a vehicle that will facilitate the creation of a new society altogether namely the Good Society the author argues for the adoption of policy that will socially re engineer South Africa The author shows how the policy tools and development interventions which were undertaken by the post apartheid state in driving South Africa's transformation agenda failed to emancipate many individuals families and communities from the cycle of intergenerational poverty and underdevelopment He contends that social policy interventions that foster the social re engineering of South African society must take place to untangle the inherited colonial apartheid social order This book includes comparative analyses on the Global South and Global North to present the ways in which countries such as post Second World War Great Britain and Sweden and post independence Zambia of the 1960s and 1970s were able to use social policy to create new societies altogether or places similar to the Good Society The conceptual and methodological issues that form the basis for this book reside in public policy making and the public good and will be of interest to scholars of social policy social development and South African society A Cognitive and Anthropological Response to the 'Death' of Painting Bruce Rimell, 2016-04-07 The alleged death of painting has shaped the recent course of art but the model of the human mind upon which it rests is no longer considered accurate Cognitive science has shown that the mind is not a blank slate but content rich and as such humans bear an array of innate expectations of reality and non reality which apply to painting as well as other human behaviours such as religion or music This creative thesis takes in a series of case studies tracing the prehistory of painting in light of these cognitive propensities from the beginnings of human culture to Bushman rock art and the experiences of painters today to uncover a perennial function for painting which cannot die the ubiquitous sensation of an otherworld beyond the canvas or rock face This approach to painting demands its rehabilitation as a humanising self expression in a world increasingly estranged from art abandoning artistic ideology in favour of an image based communion with human nature

For an Anti-capitalist Psychology of Community Nick Malherbe, 2022-04-22 Anti capitalist political struggle is a site of struggling psychologies Conscious political action is never far from unconscious desire and the fight for material justice is always also the fight for dignity and psychological well being Yet how might community psychologists conceive of their discipline in a way that opposes the very capitalist political economy that historically most of the psy disciplines have bolstered in return for disciplinary legitimacy In its consideration of an anti capitalist psychology of community this book does not ignore or try to resolve the contradictory position of such a psychology Instead it draws on these contradictions to enliven psychology to the shifting demands both creative and destructive of a community centred anti capitalism Using practical examples the book deals with the psychological components of building community centred social movements that challenge neoliberal capitalism as a political system an ideology and a mode of governing rationality The book also offers several theoretical contributions that grapple with how an anti capitalist psychology of community can remain attentive to the psychological elements of anti capitalist struggle what the psychological can tell us about anti capitalist politics and how these politics can shape the psychological

Double Desire Ian McLean, 2014-11-19 Double Desire challenges the tendency by critics to perpetuate an aesthetic apartheid between Indigenous and Western art The double desire explored in this book is that of the divided but also amplified attractions that occur between cultural traditions in places where both indigenous and colonial legacies are strong The result it is argued produces imaginative transcultural practices that resist the assimilation or acculturation of Indigenous perspectives into the dominant Western mod

Inlands Robert S. G. Fletcher, Alec Zuercher Reichardt, 2024-12-31 Conventional narratives of empires and globalization focus on oceans and coasts supposing that global connections are seaborne and that historical change proceeds inward from port cities into continental expanses This book offers a new perspective examining key inland areas around the world to show how interior regions have shaped global history Inlands brings together an interdisciplinary group of experts to explore the modern histories of inland regions across North and South America Africa Eurasia and Australasia from the American heartland to the Yangzi valley the Great Dismal Swamp to the Arabian Desert Together they argue that interior regions provide a fresh vantage point from which to rethink the history of global connection and disconnection Each chapter reconsiders national regional or imperial histories from an inland perspective demonstrating how such places have spurred global change Contributors reveal the critical role inlands and their Indigenous inhabitants have played in the development projection and contestation of state power showing how some interiors became essential to empire even as others developed in resistance to it By examining the struggle to integrate inland regions into wider networks of exchange this book also sheds light on the unevenness and the limits of contemporary globalization A new global history of interior spaces Inlands presents a bold challenge to dominant understandings of the making of today s connected world Contemporary Management Education

Piet Naudé,2021-11-05 Why are we so important What value do we add and What good do we create These are the opening questions posed to management educators in this book This is followed by uncomfortable questions about colonization Who is in the centre and whose knowledge counts and inequality Whom do we exclude After questioning the easy adoption of technology What are we embracing and the challenge posed by global warming Can management education help stop climate change the author ends by sketching some leadership lessons required for the future What lessons can we learn in a black swan event Mixing philosophical analyses with anecdotes from experience the author does not shy away from discussing controversial views to give direction to current debates Tracing eight such crucial questions and providing well researched perspectives this book is an engaging read for anyone interested in the future direction of business schools in particular and management education in general There are many books and articles on business education but few as deep and insightful as Contemporary Management Education I enthusiastically recommend it to anyone who seeks to understand and improve the training of business leaders Peter Tufano Sa d Business School University of Oxford An amazing read Piet Naude is eclectic and sparkling He applies his talents to the wicked maze of management education in society No issue is more important for global business No writer is better qualified Thomas Donaldson The Wharton School University of Pennsylvania A powerful persuasive and superbly compelling book Contemporary Management Education serves as an invaluable and informative reference to the essential issues that are shaping the future Sherif Kamel Dean School of Business The American University in Cairo Handbook on Academic Freedom Richard Watermeyer,Rille Raaper,Mark

Olssen,2022-11-15 Identifying academic freedom as a major casualty of rapid and extensive reforms to the governance and practices of academic institutions worldwide this timely Handbook considers the meaning of academic freedom the threats it faces the consequences of its loss and its relation to rights of critical expression public accountability and the democratic health of open societies Unstable Ground Rosalind C. Morris,2025-03-04 What has gold done to people What has it made them do The Witwatersrand in South Africa once home to the world s richest goldfields is today scattered with abandoned mines into which informal miners known as zama zamas venture in an illicit often deadly search for ore Based on field research conducted across more than twenty five years around these mines Unstable Ground reveals the worlds that gold made possible and gold s profound costs for those who have lived in its shadow and dreamt of its transformative power From the vantage point of the closure of South Africa s gold mines Rosalind C Morris reconsiders their histories beginning in the present and descending into the pasts that shaped them Anchored in evocative descriptions of mining in the ruins this book explores the social worlds built on gold and the lives that were remade and sometimes undone by the industry over a century and a half Viewing this industry from its margins against the backdrop of the cyanide revolution the gold standard s demise and recurrent sinkholes as well as the insurrectionary protests and violence that continue to this day it recasts the history of South Africa and the incomplete effort to overcome apartheid amid the transformations of the global economy In writing that is by turns immersive incisive and poetic Morris unearths a history that was born of imperial aspiration and that persists as a speculative mirage Interweaving ethnography history personal testimony and political thought with striking readings of South African literary texts Unstable Ground is a work of extraordinary ambition and depth William Blake and the Cartographic Imagination Caroline Anjali Ritchie,2025-02-24 This book contributes to current discussions about the meaning history and theorisation of maps The monograph focuses on William Blake 1757 1827 whose astute critical angle on cartography invites us to think in a new light about mapping in the eighteenth century commonly regarded as a key phase within the history of European cartography Ritchie positions Blake as a participant in a vibrant mesh of cartographic practices seeking out his antecedents peers interlocutors and followers She characterises Blake s participation in cartographic culture as both energetic and uneasy In addition the book traces Blake s legacy as a point of contact for London based psychogeographical writers and small press publishers seeking to rethink the nature of maps and mapping in recent years and up to the present day Through its exploration of Blake s poetry art and legacy this book aims to pluralise and enrich conceptions of cartography from the eighteenth century to the present Research Handbook on Quality, Performance and Accountability in Higher Education Ellen Hazelkorn,Hamish Coates,Alexander C. McCormick,2018-07-27 As higher education becomes a key determinant for economic competitiveness institutions face increasing pressure to demonstrate their fitness to meet the needs of society and individuals Blending innovative research with richly contextualised examples this unique Research Handbook provides authoritative insights from around the globe on how best to understand assess and improve quality performance and accountability in higher education Breaking a Rainbow, Building a Nation Rekgotsofetse Chikane,2018-10-01 Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation is a first hand account of the university protests that gripped South Africa between 2015 and 2017 widely better known as the FeesMustFall Chikane outlines the nature of student politics in the country before during and after the emergence of MustFall politics exploring the political dynamics that informed and drove the student protests and the effect that these MustFall movements have had on the nature of youth politics in the country Chikane looks at how the current nature of youth politics is different from previous youth upheavals that have defined South Africa specifically due to the fact that the protests were being led by so called coconuts who are part of the black elite Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation poses the provocative question can coconuts be trusted with the revolution
