Wits Application Forms 2015:

Slovak Republic International Monetary Fund. European Dept.,2017-03-23 Slovakia is an economic success story Sustained convergence since 1995 has lifted real per capita GDP to over 70 percent of the European Union average The post crisis recovery has been one of the most robust in Europe and GDP growth is projected to pick up further in the medium term in part from additional foreign investment in the automotive industry However with regional disparities and aging pressures among the most severe in Europe significant challenges remain The banking sector also faces vulnerabilities from very high exposure to the real estate sector

The Responsive University and the Crisis in South Africa ,2021-05-31 Around the world higher education is faced with a fundamental question what is the basis for our claim of societal legitimacy In this book the authors go beyond the classical response regarding teaching research and community engagement Instead the editor puts forward the proposition that the answer lies in responsiveness the extent to which universities respond or fail to respond to societal challenges Moreover because of its intractable legacy issues and crisis of inequality the question regarding the societal legitimacy of universities is particularly clearly manifested in South Africa one of the most unequal countries in the world The Responsive University brings together contributions on the issue of responsiveness from a number of international university leaders half of them specifically addressing the South African situation within the context of the international situation as presented by the other authors In the global discussion about the role of universities in society this book provides a conceptual framework for a way forward

Aid for Trade at a Glance 2017 Promoting Trade, Inclusiveness and Connectivity for Sustainable Development OECD,World Trade Organization,2017-07-11 This edition focuses on trade connectivity which is critical for inclusiveness and sustainable development Physical connectivity enables the movement of goods and services to local regional and global markets

A Glass Half Full Sanjay Kathuria,2018-09-19 Trade has played a critical role in global poverty reduction In harnessing the potential of trade some of the most successful countries have developed strong trade relationships with their neighbors However many South Asian countries have trade regimes that often offset the positive impact of geography and proximity This report documents systematically the gaps between current and potential trade in South Asia and addresses important specific barriers that have held trade back These barriers include tariffs and paratariffs real and perceived nontariff barriers connectivity costs and the broader trust deficit This policy focused report unpacks these critical barriers to effective trade integration in South Asia through four in depth studies that produce new detailed on the ground knowledge Three of the studies are based on extensive stakeholder consultations Two studies also rely on tailored surveys The fourth study on tariffs benefits from new data on paratariffs The report also marshals new evidence showing how trading regimes in South Asia discriminate against each other Given the South Asian context incremental yet concrete steps aimed at tapping the potential of deeper integration are appropriate The report has been drafted in this spirit It offers precise actionable policy recommendations that could help achieve measurable progress in key areas of trade and integration that would be to the advantage of all countries in the region

History through Narratives of Education in Africa, 2024-04-15 Who were the actors involved in colonial and post independence education in Africa This book on the history of education in Africa gives a special attention to narratives of marginalized voices With this original approach and cases from ten countries involving four colonial powers it constitutes a dynamic and rich contribution to the field The authors have searched for narratives of education from below through oral interviews autobiographies films and undiscovered archival sources Throughout the book educational settings are approached as social spaces where both contact and separation between colonisers and colonised are constructed through social interaction negotiations and struggles Contributors include Ant nia Barreto Lars Folke Berge Clara Carvalho Charlotte Courreye Pierre ric Fageol Fr d ric Garan Esther Ginestet Pedro Goulart Pierre Guidi Lydia Hadj Ahmed Kalpana Hiralal Mamaye Idriss Mihary Jaofeno Rehana Thembeke Odendaal Roland Rakotovao Maria da Luz Ramos Ellen Vea Rosnes Caterina Scalvedi Eva Van de Velde Pieter Verstraete

Young Women Against Apartheid Emily Bridger, 2021 Provides a new perspective on the struggle against apartheid and contributes to key debates in South African history gender inequality sexual violence and the legacies of the liberation struggle WINNER OF THE RHS GLADSTONE BOOK PRIZE 2022 WINNER OF THE SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH GRACE ABBOTT BOOK PRIZE 2021 SHORTLISTED FOR THE ASUK FAGE relate their personal experiences to collective histories of the struggle and insert themselves into a historical narrative from which they have been excluded Through exploring these women s memories this book serves as an important corrective to South Africa s male centric literature on violence and provides a new gendered perspective on the wider histories of township politics activism and conflict

The Scientific Imagination in South Africa William Beinart, Saul Dubow, 2021-05-20 An innovative three hundred year exploration of the social and political contexts of science and the scientific imagination in South Africa

The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism Zachary Levenson, Marcel Paret, 2024-06-28 This book documents the emergence and development of the theory of racial capitalism in apartheid South Africa It interrogates the specificity of this theory in the South African context and draws lessons for its global applicability Racism and capitalism have a long history of entanglement Nowhere is this more evident than in South Africa where colonial and apartheid regimes used explicit systems of racial hierarchy to shore up profit It is therefore no surprise that South Africa has represented a key site for thinking about the role that racism plays in shaping state policy labor markets patterns of capital accumulation and working class struggle Illuminating these dynamics this volume develops a distinctive South African tradition of thought about the relationship between racism and capitalism The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism contributes to a burgeoning literature on the concept of racial capitalism the origins of which many commentators trace back to apartheid South Africa It pays particular attention to the crucial role of anti apartheid activists as theorists whose important insights remain relevant for scholars and activists around the globe This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Student Movements in Late Neoliberalism Lorenzo Cini, Donatella della Porta, César Guzmán-Concha, 2021-08-22 This book inquires into the global wave of student mobilizations that have arisen in the aftermath of the economic crisis of 2008 accounting for their historical and sociological significance More specifically its eleven chapters explore the role of students as political actors their ability to build effective organizations to make political alliances with other actors and to win public consensus as well as their impact on cultural political and policy outcomes To do so the volume examines case studies in England Chile South Africa Quebec and Hong Kong covering Europe Africa Asia and North and Latin America Grouped into two major sections the collection covers the organizational structures of student movements and their alliances and outcomes Ultimately this volume examines the understudied political aspects of student unrest exploring how student mobilizations driven by indebtedness precariousness the corporatization of the university and other issues correspond to larger processes of change with wider implications in society consequences A perfect blend of theory and application the book provides a realistic outlook on sensitive economies and interdependencies between sectors The Revolutionary Road to Me Chetan Bhatt,2024-12-03 How can the left be credible when it can't decide what a woman is How can antiracists fight for equality if they promote fictions about race If identity politics is the answer why are so many Western left organizations being damaged by it As the culture wars rage this compelling book examines why much of the Western political left has foundered because of identity politics Identity issues have mired many good organizations in intractable conflicts and deflected them from their purpose In ignoring poverty and inequality the Western left has lost its way Meanwhile powerful social movements from the past black women's gay and lesbian are reduced to corporate slogans Attuned to the needs of activists and academics this book offers intelligent explanations for how we got here It examines serious problems with antiracism transgender rights activism and the work of LGBTQ groups In showing how identities are outcomes of social and institutional forces it argues that technofinancial capitalism uses identity politics to mould new labour processes for the Western middle class while accelerating economic inequality Clearing a path through the vagaries of identity politics the book offers arguments the Western left must face amidst formidable far right and right wing authoritarianism climate emergency and severe inequalities Strengthening

Argentina's Integration into the Global Economy Martha Martínez Licetti,Mariana Iootty,Tanja Goodwin,José Signoret,2018-05-14 Integration into global markets can improve the efficiency of the Argentinian economy providing opportunities for private investment to flourish and for the associated benefits to accrue to consumers Among many policies that are important for integrating into the global economy particularly relevant are trade investment and competition policies They all share a common attribute the capacity to shape the incentives of firms to improve resource allocation and to strengthen productivity while integrating into international markets Once properly combined investment trade and competition policies have mutually reinforcing relationships in the sense that growth dividends stemming from reforms in one policy area are reinforced when properly combined with reforms in the other two Against this backdrop this report follows a three pronged approach It presents a set of robust empirical analyses drawing from both general and partial equilibrium exercises to assess the potential impacts from trade competition and investment policy reforms It offers a new comparative review of international experience with structural microeconomic reform programs to bring insights for Argentina's design and sequencing of such reforms Finally it presents individual reform recommendations for each institution in charge of the three respective policy areas in an integrated step by step framework from the firm perspective to illustrate the critical challenges to investment and internationalization for Argentinian firms For an Anti-capitalist Psychology of Community Nick Malherbe,2022-04-22 Anti capitalist political struggle is a site of struggling psychologies Conscious political action is never far from unconscious desire and the fight for material justice is always also the fight for dignity and psychological well being Yet how might community psychologists conceive of their discipline in a way that opposes the very capitalist political economy that historically most of the psy disciplines have bolstered in return for disciplinary legitimacy In its consideration of an anti capitalist psychology of community this book does not ignore or try to resolve the contradictory position of such a psychology Instead it draws on these contradictions to enliven psychology to the shifting demands both creative and destructive of a community centred anti capitalism Using practical examples the book deals with the psychological components of building community centred social movements that challenge neoliberal capitalism as a political system an ideology and a mode of governing rationality The book also offers several theoretical contributions that grapple with how an anti capitalist psychology of community can remain attentive to the psychological elements of anti capitalist struggle what the psychological can tell us about anti capitalist politics and how these politics can shape the psychological

Racism Anthony Moran,2023-11-30 Racism has a long history and its devastating impacts continue to spark heated moral and political debate and give rise to social movements and widespread protest This accessible primer provides a cogent introduction to the study and confrontation of racism in the twenty first century making use of key insights from sociology and other social sciences Drawing on a range of scholars including from the radical black tradition and the Global South this book explores key issues in racism studies Putting racism into historical context Moran explains the modernity of racism and its creation through European colonialism and imperialism racial capitalism and the development of racist hierarchies stimulated by colonialist exploitation as well as pseudoscientific and Enlightenment thinking centred upon white supremacy Moran also discusses the intersectional structural institutional and systemic nature of racism and the connections between race racism and nationalism evident in the explosion of right wing nationalist populism around the world The book also investigates how the self and subjectivity are involved in racism and contribute to the reproduction of racism as a system before considering whether there are new cultural forms of racism and how we can account for Islamophobia and other racisms described as new such as colour blind racism post racial racism and racism without racists Crucially the book explores anti racist social movements such as Black Lives Matter and how racism has been challenged and discusses how accounts of race and racism can be given without reproducing the category of race as a natural organiser of people groups and identities This book will appeal to the general reader and students in the humanities and social sciences with an interest in the continuing impact of racism racial identities migration multiculturalism ethnic and racial studies nationalism and identity studies
