Old Rose and Silver Myron W. Reed,1911      Old Rose and Silver Olive Green,1909      The White Shield Myrtle Reed,2014-12-24 The editor takes great pleasure in being able to give to the public another volume from the pen of the lamented author Myrtle Reed These fascinating bits of fiction reflect the characteristics of the writer the same vivid imagination the quick transition from pathos to humour the facility of utterance the wholesome sentiment the purity of thought the delicacy of touch the spontaneous wit which endeared her to friends and to thousands of readers not only in Europe and America but also in Australia and South Africa are here fully represented Her mission was largely one of comfort to the suffering and the sorrowing letters of good cheer went to far away countries where her personal ministry could reach in no other way and her writings are rich with sympathy and hope which have poured the oil of gladness into many a wounded spirit Pathos is not sadness but it is rather the sunshine gleaming through a passing cloud and hence the writings of Myrtle Reed are illumined with the gladsome light of unfailing love Not only in her books and in letters to troubled souls but also in her personal records we find the unfading lines of a deeply devotional nature which was sacredly guarded from the careless observer and seldom discussed even with friends But in this abiding faith was rooted the brave loyalty and high purpose which not only characterised herself but also all of her productions The beautiful stories here presented have given pleasure to thousands of readers in the magazines in which they first came into print and it is to the unvarying courtesy of the publishers that we are indebted for the privilege of thus binding the scattered grain into a single golden sheaf For the many letters of sincere sympathy which in response to a formal request have come from these stranger friends the editor is especially grateful
