Suzanne Shea has always loved a good book and she's written five of them all acclaimed In the course of her ten year career she's done a good bit of touring including readings and drop ins at literally hundreds of bookstores She never visited one that wasn't memorable Two years ago while recovering from radiation therapy Shea heard from a friend who was looking for help at her bookstore Shea volunteered seeing it as nothing more than a way to get out of her pajamas and back into the world

But over next twelve months from St Patrick s Day through Poetry Month graduation Father s Day summer reading Christmas and back again to those shamrock displays Shea lived and breathed books in a place she says sells ideas stories encouragement answers solace validation the basic ammunition for daily life Her work was briefly interrupted by an author tour that took her to other great bookstores Descriptions of these and her memories of book lined rooms reaching all the way back to childhood visits to the Bookmobile are scattered throughout this charming humorous and engrossing account of reading and rejuvenation For anyone who loves books and especially for anyone who has fallen under the spell of a special bookstore Shelf Life will be required reading

Subcreation: Fictional-World Construction from J.R.R. Tolkien to Terry Pratchett and Tad Williams Stefanie Schult,2017-01-26 The doctoral thesis argues that the term Subcreation with its revised and broadened definition in part differing from J R R Tolkien s original term sub creation may be used for the discussion of the making of fictional worlds in literary discourse The successful conception of a fictional world depends on the reader s willing suspension of disbelief This depends both on the author and his skilled composition of the world and all its aspects as well as on the reader s acceptance of this invented fictional world The author needs to create a narrative with an inner consistency which is crucial to achieving the effect of the reader s immersion in the fictional world The fundamental aspects that an author needs to realize to achieve successful Subcreation have been structured into and analysed in four categories Language and Linguistic Variation Physiopoeia Anthropoloeia and Mythopoeia Furthermore this thesis shows that as contemporary examples of fantastic literature both Tad Williams s and Terry Pratchett s fictional worlds are successfully created through the realization of these aspects of Subcreation Apart from commenting on the success of the subcreative process this thesis also remarks upon the cultural influences both authors include in their writings While both may be considered Anglophone in a general categorization Pratchett s Discworld retains a feeling of Britishness that is not to be found in Williams s Otherland The thesis proposes several approaches to Subcreation that may be studied subsequently So for example it may be possible to determine the success of an author s Subcreation by collecting empirical data Apart from literary works this field of studies may also include other media
