Women Gender And Development In The Caribbean Reflections And Projections:

Women, Gender and Development in the Caribbean Pat Ellis, 2003-06-28 Publisher Description Entrepreneurial Women in the Caribbean Talia R. Esnard, 2022-10-27 Adopting an intersectional lens this book comparatively examines the multiple processes and systems of power that frame the experiences of female entrepreneurs in the Caribbean and the fluid ways in which they respond to these. Specifically it challenges entrepreneurial scholars who are concerned with the experiences of women within that sector to critically interrogate interlocking structures of power e.g. gender, race, class, age, industry based hierarchies that operate within that space, the marginalizing effects of related processes and the extent to which these affect their thinking and practices of female entrepreneurs within the region. Through comparative lenses the book highlights the structural and relational realities and complexities that undergird the entrepreneurial landscape within the region, the effects of these on the entrepreneurial identities, positionalities and practices of female entrepreneurs. It underscores the many ways in which they navigate that terrain. In so doing the book offers critical insights into the historical, socio-cultural and economic parameters within which female entrepreneurs in the region engage the lived realities associated with these, the prospects or possibilities for re-presenting or re-framing such contextual and discursive spaces. It also provides necessary understandings of the motivations, positions, prospects, possibilities and constraints of entrepreneurial women in the region and the policy implications of these realities. This book offers insights for scholars and policymakers that are important for i) understanding the current gaps in entrepreneurial research and policy; ii) the tools, methods and strategies that are needed to address these contextual and discursive realities; and ultimately iii) the ways in which policy makers and local governments can promote the authentic empowerment of female entrepreneurs in the region while giving considerations to precarious realities of women.

Virgin Capital Tami Navarro, 2021-11-01 Virgin Capital examines the cultural impact and historical significance of the Economic Development Commission (EDC) in the United States Virgin Islands. A tax holiday program, the EDC encourages financial services companies to relocate to these American-owned islands in exchange for an exemption from 90% of income taxes and to stimulate the economy by hiring local workers and donating to local charitable causes. As a result of this program, the largest and poorest of these islands, St. Croix, has played host to primarily US financial firms and their white managers, leading to reinvigorated anxieties around the costs of racial capitalism and a feared return to the racial and gender order that ruled the islands during slavery. Drawing on fieldwork conducted during the boom years leading up to the 2008-2009 financial crisis, Virgin Capital provides ethnographic insight into the continuing relations of coloniality at work in the quintessentially modern industry of financial services and neoliberal development regimes with their grounding in hierarchies of race, gender, class and geopolitical positioning.

Black Women, Academe, and the Tenure Process in the United States and the Caribbean Talia Esnard, Deirdre Cobb-Roberts, 2018-08-06 This book explores the meanings, experiences and challenges faced by Black women faculty that are either on the tenure track or have earned tenure The authors advance the notion of comparative intersectionality to tease through the contextual peculiarities and commonalities that define their identities as Black women and their experiences with tenure and promotion across the two geographical spaces By so doing it works through a comparative treatment of existing social inequalities educational disparities and injustices in the promotion and retention of Black women academics Such interpretative examinations offer important insights into how Black women's subjugated knowledge and experiences continue to be suppressed within mainstream structures of power and how they are negotiated across contexts Thinking

Differently Gabrielle Griffin, Rosi Braidotti, 2002-10 This book is the first to ask whether there is a specifically European dimension to certain major issues in Women's Studies It strives to create a synergetic debate among different disciplines and cultural traditions in Europe and in doing so fills some gaps in our knowledge about women and enriches debates hitherto dominated by Anglo American influences Among the new areas of enquiry opened up in this book by the specificities of European Women's Studies are The fact that Europe has repeatedly experienced warfare on its own territory which has impacted significantly on women Hence the focus in this volume on women and militarism and on ethnic cleansing as an attack on the family The abidingly problematic relationship between feminism and anti semitism and issues of migration and whiteness in a context where racism reflects the colonial histories of particular European countries The importance of passion and the emotions as well as psychoanalytical theory for politics particularly in Southern and Eastern European countries Current problems facing Europe including the decline of the welfare state the phenomenon of the single woman and the relationship between women's rights and human rights The diverse faces of feminist movements in particular European countries Reading feminism from a European perspective will enable readers to reflect upon the ways in which changes in political social and cultural positions and practices over the past century in Europe have impacted on feminist thinking and theorizing The volume raises important issues about the transfer of feminist concepts across cultures and languages And to English speaking audiences the volume also offers fresh viewpoints on some of the key debates in Women's Studies Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights of Women in Africa and the Caribbean Zainab Monisola

Olaitan, Tinuade Adekunbi Ojo, Shakira Maxwell, 2025-07-31 In a time of global backlash against women's rights and gender issues this book echoes the importance of protecting the sexual and reproductive health and rights of women by conceptualising and analysing relevant sexual and reproductive health rights issues SRHR in Africa and the Caribbean It examines the linkages that exist around SRHR issues between the two regions and how this understanding can help to support the protection of sexual and reproductive health and rights both in Africa and the Caribbean It focuses on providing historical conceptual and contextual understandings of SRHR issues in the African continent and the Caribbean region The main topics engage theoretical and contemporary issues e.g limitations to the single use of courts as avenues for reducing obstetric violence abortion rights maternal mortality gender based violence and adolescent sexuality The book presents diverse perspectives in the examination of SRHR issues by offering legal socio political and medical frameworks for analysing and understanding sexual and reproductive health and rights It further contributes to the discourse and strategies to protect the sexual and reproductive health and rights of women and men to improve both women s and men s quality of life well being and to also achieve gender equality Black Women's Liberatory Pedagogies Olivia N. Perlow, Durene I.

Wheeler, Sharon L. Bethea, BarBara M. Scott, 2017-11-27 This interdisciplinary anthology sheds light on the frameworks and lived experiences of Black women educators Contributors for this anthology submitted works from an array of academic disciplines and learning environments inviting readers to bear witness to black women faculty s classroom experiences as well as their pedagogical approaches both inside and outside of the higher education classroom that have fostered transformative teaching learning environments Through this multidimensional lens the editors and contributors view instruction and learning as a political endeavor aimed at changing the way we think about teaching learning and praxis

Feminist Visions and Queer Futures in Postcolonial Drama Kanika Batra, 2011-04-13 In this timely study Batra examines contemporary drama from India Jamaica and Nigeria in conjunction with feminist and incipient queer movements in these countries Postcolonial drama Batra contends furthers the struggle for gender justice in both these movements by contesting the idea of the heterosexual middle class wage earning male as the model citizen and by suggesting alternative conceptions of citizenship premised on working class sexual identities Further Batra considers the possibility of Indian Jamaican and Nigerian drama generating a discourse on a rights bearing conception of citizenship that derives from representations of non biological non generational forms of kinship Her study is one of the first to examine the ways in which postcolonial dramatists are creating the possibility of a dialogue between cultural activism women s movements and an emerging discourse on queer sexualities Youth Participation in the Caribbean Terri-Ann Gilbert-Roberts, 2022-03-10 Critically examining narratives of participation in governance and development this volume adds Caribbean voices and experiences to the global discourse on youth participation The essays provide empirical case studies of institutions practices and processes of youth engagement in the politics of Caribbean development orienting the reader to the political culture of the Caribbean and the position of youth within small societies Covering experiences at intergovernmental national and local levels as well as formal and informal modes of participation it examines how young people have organised themselves or have been organised to engage with the state and with community agents in politics public policy and activism It illustrates the heterogeneity of youth political participation employing multi disciplinary multi level and mixed method analyses from the fields of demography political science social policy development studies and youth development Critical themes addressed include regional governance democratic representation online engagement local governance and community development In exploring these themes the book discusses the legitimacy and inclusiveness of governance in relation to age gender race geography and socio economic status The findings will be useful to students researchers and policymakers alike who are keen to improve governance and contribute to inclusive sustainable development in the Caribbean The Wellbeing of Women in Entrepreneurship Maria-Teresa Lepeley, Katherina Kuschel, Nicholas Beutell, Nicky Pouw, Emiel L. Eijdenberg, 2019-07-01 Women accomplish nearly two thirds of total work around the world including household duties comprise one third of the formal labor force but women receive one tenth of the world's income and own only one hundredth of the world's property Entrepreneurship is a vehicle for advancing the lives of women around the world This book brings together 49 distinguished entrepreneurship scholars to provide a unique global vision of the wellbeing of women entrepreneurs necessary for fostering sustainable development and inclusive societies Although gender inequality is an important issue solutions leading to gender parity are far from reaching ideal levels in the formal workplace and globally Meanwhile the number of women involved in entrepreneurship is growing exponentially because there are more opportunities for women to own a business and be their own boss This offers women the most desirable and flexible working conditions that better align with women's lifestyles and multiple family responsibilities However entrepreneurial activities are demanding and complex compared to men women face special challenges that deserve close attention This book presents research and programs to effectively support women entrepreneurs in reaching levels of wellbeing required to ensure business sustainability and personal prosperity Offering a diversity perspectives from around the globe The Wellbeing of Women in Entrepreneurship is of great interest to academics and practitioners working in teaching and research in disciplines including business management entrepreneurship organizational change human centered management human resources sustainable development and women's studies Negotiating Gender, Policy and Politics in the Caribbean Gabrielle Hosein, Jane Parpart, 2016-12-22 Have efforts to advance women's and men's commitments to democratic governance women's rights and gender equality been successful in the Caribbean Do they reflect local as well as international concerns and visions of gender equality This edited collection answers these questions by focusing on women's political leadership electoral quota systems national gender policies and transformational leadership as four feminist strategies that aim to engender democracy and citizenship It offers a rich historical comparative and ethnographic perspective on the lived experience of these strategies through case studies of Trinidad and Tobago Guyana Dominica Jamaica and St Lucia Drawing on national policy debates election campaigns state officials solidarities men's gender consciousness and women leaders life histories across these five Caribbean countries the collection assesses the successes of transnational feminist efforts the resilience of masculinist resistances the limits of gender mainstreaming and the possibilities for gender justice in and beyond the Caribbean today British Bulletin of Publications on Latin America, the Caribbean, Portugal and Spain, 2008 Women Don't Want to Stoop Too Low Sharla Adria Blank, 2005 A Historical Study of Women in Jamaica Lucille Mathurin Mair, 2006 An exposure of women as agents of history a path breaking achievement at a time when Caribbean historiography ignored women The white woman consumed the coloured woman served and the black woman laboured The Americas Kimberly J. Morse, 2022-08-23 This two volume encyclopedia profiles the contemporary culture and society of every country in the Americas from Canada and the United States to the islands of the Caribbean and the many countries of Latin America From delicacies to dances this encyclopedia introduces readers to cultures and customs of all of the countries of the Americas explaining what makes each country unique while also demonstrating what ties the cultures and peoples together The Americas profiles the 40 nations and territories that make up North America Central America the Caribbean and South America including British U S Dutch and French territories Each country profile takes an in depth look at such contemporary topics as religion lifestyle and leisure cuisine gender roles dress festivals music visual arts and architecture among many others while also providing contextual information on history politics and economics Readers will be able to draw cross cultural comparisons such as between gender roles in Mexico and those in Brazil Coverage on every country in the region provides readers with a useful compendium of cultural information ideal for anyone interested in geography social studies global studies and anthropology Continuing Perspectives on the Black Diaspora Aubrey W. Bonnett, Calvin B. Holder, 2009-07-16 Continuing Perspectives on the Black Diaspora is a response to a 1990 publication that studied the persistence and resilience of black African diasporic populations in the Caribbean Latin America North America and the United Kingdom In that book the authors used the themes of persistence and resilience to interrogate the social processes and the coping repertoire of these diasporic populations This volume investigates the often overlooked African presence in Asia Researchers sought to determine how many of these diasporic populations have fared in the context of political independence globalization economic marginalization and the presence of ethnic conflict and institutional racism even with positive class formations and declining significance of race in other geographical areas Prescriptions for the continued viability of these diasporic populations are provided India and China are undergoing a global renaissance emerging as potentially significant economic political and cultural actors on the world scene Meanwhile ancestral Africa is still socially politically and economically fragmented thereby causing a new migratory push to North America and Europe What She Go Do Hope Munro, 2016-06-20 In the 1990s expressive culture in the Caribbean was becoming noticeably more feminine At the annual Carnival of Trinidad and Tobago thousands of female masqueraders dominated the street festival on Carnival Monday and Tuesday Women had become significant contributors to the performance of calypso and soca as well as the musical development of the steel pan art form Drawing upon ethnographic fieldwork conducted by the author in Trinidad and Tobago What She Go Do demonstrates how the increased access and agency of women through folk and popular musical expressions has improved intergender relations and representation of gender in this nation This is the first study to integrate all of the popular music expressions associated with Carnival calypso soca and steelband music within a single volume The book includes interviews with popular musicians and detailed observation of musical performances rehearsals and recording sessions as well as analysis of reception and use of popular music through informal exchanges with audiences The popular music of the Caribbean contains elaborate forms of social commentary that allows singers to address various sociopolitical problems including those that directly affect the lives of women In general the cultural environment of Trinidad and Tobago has made women more visible and audible than any previous time in its history This book examines how these circumstances came to be and what it means for the future development of music in the region

New Books on Women and Feminism ,2004 MaComère ,2002 The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide Irving Epstein,2007-12-30 From the skyrocketing AIDS rate in Haiti to the oppressive pollution in industrial China from the violent street culture of Nigeria to the crippling poverty in Nicaragua from child trafficking in Thailand to child marriages in India this jam packed six volume set explores all these issues and more in an unprecedented look at the world s children at the dawn of the 21st century In recent years while many countries have enjoyed a higher standard of living and improved working conditions others have been torn apart by war and incapacitated by famine and are struggling to improve life for their children and their future Recent concern over the world s children has resulted in a global attempt to define what constitutes an acceptable childhood New attention has been paid not only to healthcare and secondary education but also to the right to play and increased access to technology The UN s codification of children s rights has done much to expand our understanding of what is needed for healthy growth and development of children and youth Organized by region The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children s Issues Worldwide is the first globally focused set of this magnitude offering extensive up to date coverage of these critical issues Original chapters accessibly synthesize current data on key topics including education play and recreation child labor family health laws and legal status religious life abuse and neglect and growing up in the 21st century
