NOTE: The letter must include the terms of the volunteer agreement (i.e., begin date, end date (if any), time commitment, responsibilities), whom to contact with questions, the insurance paragraph and the ID paragraph. The Volunteer Fact Sheet must be a

Dear <Name>,

Thank you for your willingness to volunteer your services to UW-Madison and specifically this department. We look forward to you helping us with <specify project>.

Based on our previous discussions, your activities as a volunteer will be <briefly describe responsibilities>. You will begin <date> and continue for as long as we mutually wish to maintain the relationship. <Specific end date also possible.> You have indicated that you can spend approximately <number of hours> hours per week on these activities.

Please read carefully the attached "Volunteer Fact Sheet". Note that receipt of this letter makes you an official volunteer and that you will be covered by the State's liability protection program so long as you perform your duties within the scope of the description provided above. Since volunteers are not covered by the state's worker compensation program, however, you are encouraged to maintain your own health insurance. If you should be injured during the course of your activities and the injury results from the negligence of a University employee or agent, you would have the same legal rights to seek compensation as would any visitor to the campus.

As a retiree of the University, you are eligible for an ID card. If you don't already have one, you may want to contact the administrator of your former department.
<IF THE VOLUNTEER IS NOT RETIRED FROM THE UNIVERSITY, OMIT THIS SECTION>

If you have any questions about your volunteer service to our department, please do not hesitate to let me know. Again, thank you for your willingness to donate your time, energy and expertise. We really appreciate it!

Sincerely,

<Name>

LAST Virtual Volunteering Guidebook Jayne Cravens,Susan J. Ellis,2014-01-15 What is virtual volunteering It s work done by volunteers online via computers smartphones or other hand held devices and often from afar More and more organizations around the world are engaging people who want to contribute their skills via the Internet The service may be done virtually but the volunteers are real In The LAST Virtual Volunteering Guidebook international volunteerism consultants Jayne Cravens and Susan J Ellis emphasize that online service should be integrated into an organization s overall strategy for involving volunteers They maintain that the basic principles of volunteer management should apply equally to volunteers working online or onsite Whether you re tech savvy or still a newbie in cyberspace this book will show you how to lead online volunteers successfully by Overcoming resistance to online volunteer service and the myths surrounding it Designing virtual volunteering assignments from micro volunteering to long term projects from Web research to working directly with clients via the Internet Adding a virtual component to any volunteer s service Interviewing and screening online volunteers Managing risk and protecting confidentiality in online interactions Creating online communities for volunteers Offering orientation and training via Internet tools Recruiting new volunteers successfully through the Web and social media and Assuring accessibility and diversity among online volunteers Cravens and Ellis fervently believe that future volunteer management practitioners will automatically incorporate online service into community engagement making this book the last virtual volunteering guidebook that anyone has to write Older Americans Community Service Program United States.
