Brushes with Faith Aaron Rosen, 2019-09-04 Contemporary artists are engaging more deeply than ever with religious imagery, themes, practices, and audiences. Focusing on individual artists, from eminent names to emerging stars, Rosen's essays and interviews tackle key questions: from how art might sustain communities to how it might offer new approaches to conflict resolution. Drawing on years spent developing relationships with artists around the globe, from Algeria to India to the United States, Rosen gets artists to talk, often for the first time, about how religion impacts their practice. Whether inspiring or unsettling, these brushes with faith challenge and invigorate the artists in question and those who ponder the results. Replete with more than seventy color images of works ranging from video art to outdoor installations, this volume is indispensable reading for those looking to see contemporary art in a new light.
